

Management Operations

Module 1 - The Management Story

The diagram above is a simplified representation of the organizational structure of a company. It shows the hierarchy of the organization, from the top level down to the bottom level. The top level is the Chief Executive Officer, who is responsible for the overall management of the company. Below the CEO are the President and Vice President, who are responsible for specific areas of the company. The President is responsible for Sales, Marketing, and Finance, while the Vice President is responsible for Operations and Human Resources. Each of these areas is further divided into North America and Europe, showing the regional structure of the company.

- (a) Identify the various functions that are shown in the organizational structure.
- (b) The diagram shows the hierarchy of the organization. What are the main functions of the organization? (List the functions and their respective responsibilities.)
- (c) How are the functions of the organization organized? (List the functions and their respective responsibilities.)
- (d) How are the functions of the organization organized? (List the functions and their respective responsibilities.)
- (e) How are the functions of the organization organized? (List the functions and their respective responsibilities.)
