Monster of God: The Man-Eating Predator in the Jungles of History and the Mind David Quammen,2004-09-17 Rich detail and vivid anecdotes of adventure A treasure trove of exotic fact and hard thinking New York Times Book Review For millennia lions tigers and their man eating kin have kept our dark scary forests dark and scary and their predatory majesty has been the stuff of folklore But by the year 2150 big predators may only exist on the other side of glass barriers and chain link fences Their gradual disappearance is changing the very nature of our existence We no longer occupy an intermediate position on the food chain instead we survey it invulnerably from above so far above that we are in danger of forgetting that we even belong to an ecosystem Casting his expert eye over the rapidly diminishing areas of wilderness where predators still reign the award winning author of The Song of the Dodo and The Tangled Tree examines the fate of lions in India's Gir forest of saltwater crocodiles in northern Australia of brown bears in the mountains of Romania and of Siberian tigers in the Russian Far East In the poignant and troublesome ferocity of these embattled creatures we recognize something primeval deep within us something in danger of vanishing forever

Why Translation Studies Matters Daniel Gile, Gyde Hansen, Nike Kocijan, Pokorn, 2010-01-01 Whether Translation Studies really matters is an important and challenging question which practitioners of translation and interpreting raise repeatedly TS scholars many of whom are translators and interpreters themselves are not indifferent to it either The twenty papers of this thematic volume contributed by authors from various parts of Europe from Brazil and from Israel address it in a positive spirit Some do so through direct critical reflection and analysis arguing in particular that the engagement of TS with society should be strengthened so that the latter could benefit more from the former Others illustrate the relevance and contribution of TS to society and to other disciplines from various angles Topics broached include the cultural mediation role of translators issues in literary translation knowledge as intellectual capital globalization through English and risks associated with it bridging languages mass media corpora training the use of modern technology interdisciplinarity with psycholinguistics and neurophysiology Criminals, Idiots, Women, & Minors - Second Edition Susan Hamilton, 2004-07-26 Pardon me I must seem to you so stupid Why is the property of the woman who commits Murder and the property of the woman who commits Matrimony dealt with alike by your law So ends the little allegory in conversational form with which Frances Power Cobbe opens the 1868 essay that gives this collection its title Cobbe was a widely read essayist of remarkable lucidity and power her pieces display incisive wit and remarkable focus as she returns repeatedly to the woman question but it was typical of the time that when Cobbe died she was described in the Wellesley Index to Victorian periodicals as a miscellaneous writer Cobbe was not alone as much as 15 per cent of the essays in Victorian periodicals were written by women yet even the best of these pieces were allowed by the male dominated world of scholarship to disappear from print This anthology makes available again some of the best Victorian writing by women The second edition has been revised and updated additions include a chronology and an essay by Frances Power Cobbe on the education of women Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1898 Routledge Library Editions: Sports Studies Various, 2022-07-30 This set examines sport and leisure from a social science viewpoint The volumes included originally published between 1984 and 1991 take a cross disciplinary approach to explore the social political and cultural roles of sport in today s society They cover issues as diverse as inequality nationalism gender and commercialisation and engage with a range of academic disciplines including cultural studies history politics and sociology A Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English Eric Partridge,2006-05-02 The definitive work on the subject this Dictionary available again in its eighth edition gives a full account of slang and unconventional English over four centuries and will entertain and inform all language lovers International Sport: A Bibliography, 1995-1999 Richard William Cox,2004-04-22 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new Music, Text and Translation Helen Julia Minors,2013-05-23 Explores the roles that translation plays in a musical context questioning the transference of sense between music and text Webster's New International Dictionary of the English Language, Based on the International Dictionary 1890 and 1900 William Torrey Harris,Frederic Sturges Allen,1911
