the world and escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esau hated him, for his son remained in his place.

Herzliha's Illness and Recovery

20 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amos came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Set your house in order, for you shall die; you shall not recover.'"² Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying, "³Now, O LORD, please remember that I have walked before you in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight."⁴ And Hezekiah wept bitterly.⁵ And before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him, "⁶Turn back, and say to Hezekiah the leader of my people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, 'I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD,'⁸ and I will add fifteen years to your life.'⁹ I will deliver you and this city out of the hands of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David's sake."¹⁰ And Isaiah said, "Bring a cake of figs, and let them take and lay it on the boil, that he may recover."

19 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?" 20 And Isaiah said, "This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has promised: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?" 21 And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to lengthen ten steps. Rather let the shadow go back ten steps." 22 And Isaiah the prophet called to the LORD, and he brought the shadow back ten steps, by which it had gone down on the steps of Ahaz.

Hezekiah and the Babylonian Envoys

12 At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick. 13 And Hezekiah welcomed them, and he showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his armory, all that was found in his storerooms. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them. 14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say to you, from where did they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They came from a far country, from Babylon." 15 He said, "What have they seen in your house?" And Hezekiah answered, "They have seen that is in my house; there is nothing in my storerooms that I did not show them."

17 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the Lord.
18 Richard, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and which your fathers have stored up till this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left," says the Lord. 19 And some of your own sons, who will come from you, whom you will take shall be taken away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." 20 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the

Admission's Refutation

"And the Lord saith Manassch king of Judah has done things more before him, and has therefore thus says the Lord upon Jerusalem and I who hears of it will sit measuring line of Samaria, and I will wipe down her heritage and give thereof to the heathen, and she shall become a prey and have done what is evil since she was founded."

Moreover, Manasse had filled Jerusalem with idols made by him, and he made Judah to sin against the Lord.

Faith Speak Journal Charity Warren, 2015-01-09 How many times have we rehearsed the various worries temptations and anxieties we face throughout the day All of the worrying never achieves much other than give us a longer list the next day of possible things to worry about How exhausting Even worse we take our experiences from throughout the day and we take them with us to our quiet space In contrast to merely regurgitating circumstances that are filled with doubt fear and unbelief we can choose consciously to set aside time each day in quiet meditation at the same place and time to agree with God instead of our circumstance On one hand Satan wants to plant thoughts of defeatism On the other hand God wants us to know and claim the victory that is predestined on our behalf and written inside of the Word of God We must decide whose report we will believe Furthermore this Christian journey is about renewing our carnal minds and sinful natures with the Living Word of God Here is the place where we consciously align our will with God's will We choose to lay aside our burdens and all the daily weights we carry to pick up a load so light by casting our care before the throne and trading God's thoughts for our very own Agreeing with God must be done on purpose in purpose and by His purpose God is pursuing His people Literally He is chasing after you and whispering future into your thoughts and into your hearts Do not let it fall to the ground Harvest it Harvest a garden of faith on purpose and watch the results manifest in your life Plant seeds of faith by the words which proceed from your mouth Proverbs 18:21 instructs us about the power of life and death that lie in the tongue The Spirit of the Lord is urging us on to speak life

Faith Speaking Understanding Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2014-09-19 In this volume highly esteemed scholar Kevin Vanhoozer introduces readers to a way of thinking about Christian theology that takes the work he began in the groundbreaking 2005 book The Drama of Doctrine to its next level Vanhoozer argues that theology is not merely a set of cognitive beliefs but is also something we do that involves speech and action alike He uses a theatrical model to explain the ways in which doctrine shapes Christian understanding and forms disciples The church Vanhoozer posits is the preeminent theater where the gospel is performed with doctrine directing this performance Doctrines are not simply truths to be stored shelved and stacked but indications and directions to be followed practiced and enacted In performing doctrine Christians are shaped into active disciples of Jesus Christ He goes on to examine the state of the church in today's world and explores how disciples can do or perform doctrine Written in an accessible and engaging style Faith Speaking Understanding sets forth a compelling vision of what the church is and what it should be doing and demonstrates the importance of Christian doctrine for this mission Disciples who want to follow Christ in all situations need doctrinal direction as they walk onto the social stage in the great theater of the world The Christian faith is about acknowledging and participating in the great thing God is doing in our world making all things new in Christ through the Holy Spirit Doctrine ministers understanding of God of the drama of redemption of the church as a company of faithful players and of individual actors all of whom have important roles to play In an age where things fall apart and centers fail to hold doctrine centers us

The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar, 2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N T Wright s model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith The reader receives insights into the movement s narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden s authority and blessings This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith s causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden s perfection The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism

Salvation as Praxis Wayne Morris, 2013-12-19 Will people of other faiths be saved and to what extent should the response to this question shape Christian engagements with people of other faiths Historically the predominant answer to these questions has been that the person of another faith will not be saved and is therefore in need of conversion to Christianity for their salvation to be possible Consequently it has been understood to be the obligation of Christian persons to convert people of other faiths More recent theologies of religions for the past half century and more have sought to reconsider these approaches to soteriology This has sometimes led to a reaffirmation of the status quo and at other times to an alternative soteriological understanding In seeking to articulate soteriologies that make logical and doctrinal sense too often these new approaches to salvation and people of other faiths have paid little attention to questions of practice Drawing on alternative understandings of soteriology as deification healing and liberation each perspective having ancient roots in the Christian tradition it is argued that salvation can be understood as form of concrete earthly practice Understood in this way this book considers how these alternative theologies of salvation might shape Christian practices in a way that departs from a history in which the person of another faith has been perceived as a threat to Christianity and therefore in need of conversion Further it asks how the complex multi faith world of the twenty first century might better inform and shape the way in which Christian theologies frame soteriological understandings
