

Chapter 1

Introduction to Forensic and Investigative Accounting

CONCLUSIONS

100

When Augustus addressed a broad assembly of citizens, representing both soldiers, a House of representatives that included its most and wealthiest members and the rest of the Roman citizenry, including the thousands of slaves who worked the estates and workshops, he spoke with confidence of his own authority to fix or challenge anything that was established, including laws, customs, traditions, structures, institutions, customs, and the state.

TABLE 1 Summary of Proposed Response and Target Outcomes

Financial reports of business companies and performance were created by companies in the United States, Canada, and Europe for a long time before good information had been established. The current concern of providing better information to financial reporting companies with better informed and improved accounting is particularly acute. Many companies have shifted to better financial reports, but many more still do not show their challenges and costs and revenues. Some have begun to do this, but it is not clear if the information is useful.
