PROF. (DR.) RAJESH BAHUGUNA, Anjum Parvez, 2022-01-02 Afterlives of Affect Matthew C. Watson, 2020-07-27 In Afterlives of Affect Matthew C. Watson considers the life and work of artist and Mayanist scholar Linda Schele 1942-98 as a point of departure for what he calls an excitable anthropology As part of a small collective of scholars who devised the first compelling arguments that Maya hieroglyphs were a fully grammatical writing system Schele popularized the decipherment of hieroglyphs by developing narratives of Maya politics and religion in popular books and public workshops In this experimental person centered ethnography Watson shows how Schele's sense of joyous discovery and affective engagement with research led her to traverse and disrupt borders between religion science art life death and history While acknowledging critiques of Schele's work and the idea of discovery more generally Watson contends that affect and wonder should lie at the heart of any reflexive anthropology With this singular examination of Schele and the community she built around herself and her work Watson furthers debates on more than human worlds spiritualism modernity science studies affect theory and the social conditions of knowledge production Crime Scene Investigator Tamra B. Orr, 2015-08-01 Readers will learn what it takes to succeed as a crime scene investigator The book also explains the necessary educational steps useful character traits potential hazards and daily job tasks related to this career Sidebars include thought provoking trivia Questions in the backmatter ask for text dependent analysis Photos a glossary and additional resources are included

The Routledge History Handbook of Central and Eastern Europe in the Twentieth Century Jochen Böhrer, Włodzimierz Borodziej, Joachim von Puttkamer, 2022-02-15 Violence analyzes both the violence exerted on the societies of Central and Eastern Europe during the twentieth century by belligerent powers and authoritarian and or totalitarian regimes and armed conflicts between ethnic social and national groups as well as the interaction between these two phenomena Throughout the twentieth century Central and Eastern Europe was hit particularly hard by war violence and repression with armed conflicts in the Balkans at the start and end of the period and two world wars in between In the shadow of these full scale wars ethnic social and national conflicts were intensified found new forms and were violently played out The interwar period witnessed the emergence of authoritarian states who enforced their claim to power through continued violence against political opponents stigmatized ethnic national and social groups and were themselves fought with subversive or terrorist techniques This volume focuses specifically on physical violence war and civil war ethnic cleansing systematic starvation policies deportations and expulsions forced labour and prison camps persecution by state security such as intensive surveillance which had an enormous impact on the lives of those it affected and other forms of government oppression and militant resistance Geographically it considers the western regions of Belarus and Ukraine as sites of extreme violence that had a noticeable impact on neighbouring Central and Eastern European countries as well The concluding volume in a four volume set on Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century it is the go to resource for those interested in violence in this complex region
