The Blue Economy Handbook of the Indian Ocean Region Attri, V.N., Bohler-Mulleris,

Narnia,2018-08-03 As humanity enters the Anthropocene epoch the oceans are more at risk than ever before as a result of the increased exploitation of its resources The Indian Ocean is the third largest ocean in the world comprising 20% of the water on the Earth s surface The sea lanes in the Indian Ocean are among the busiest in the world with more than 80 percent of global seaborne trade in oil transiting through the Indian Ocean and its vital chokepoints and an estimated 40% of the world s offshore oil production comes from the Indian Ocean The importance of this region cannot be underestimated and there is no doubt that there are many opportunities for economic growth and job creation presented by the waters washing the shores of the Indian Ocean Rim In order to ensure a desirable future for humanity it is necessary to make use of the ocean s resources in a sustainable and responsible manner Climate change is affecting the Indian Ocean negatively placing a strain on the ability to ensure food security and damaging the economies of small island states that depend on fisheries and aquaculture for their livelihoods Increasing ocean temperatures and ocean acidification are taking a toll on ecosystems This book is the first of its kind providing fresh insights into the various aspects and impacts of the Blue Economy in the Indian Ocean Region from shifting paradigms to an accounting framework gender dynamics the law of the sea and renewable energy this handbook aims at increasing awareness of the Blue Economy in the Indian Ocean Region and to provide evidence to policy makers in the region to make informed decisions The contributions are from a mixture of disciplines by scholars and experts from seven countries      Student Resistance to Apartheid at the University of Fort Hare Rico Devara

Chapman,2016-05-12 The book explores forms of popular student resistance to apartheid education in South Africa particularly at the University of Fort Hare UFH by tracing student activism at UFH from 1970 to 2000 highlighting the factors that influenced the development of a culture of student resistance investigating the root causes that made Fort Hare exceptional in its stand against apartheid and chronicling the educational and social implications that resulted from students unparalleled and fearless actions against the apartheid system Student resistance at Fort Hare can be traced as far back as the 1940s however this book will primarily focus on the critical 1970 2000 period which was marked by increased student activism in South Africa The 1980s and 1990s were peak years for student activism in the country There is no doubt that student struggles during this period and thereafter helped dismantle apartheid and usher in a new South African government

Environments and Practices of Higher Education Andrea Caputo,Deborah Lock,Dieu Hack-Polay,2022-10-31 This book provides a critical review of the teaching practices in higher education in international contexts Sticky problems and debates about inclusivity diversity and cultural representation in the curriculum and classroom are explored through the eyes of the academics who negotiate complex teaching landscapes      Handbook of Research on Mixed Methods Research in

been done to elevate mixed methods research in information science A comprehensive picture of information science and its problems is needed to further understand and address the issues associated with it as well as how mixed methods research can be adapted and used The Handbook of Research on Mixed Methods Research in Information Science discusses the quality of mixed methods studies and methodological transparency sampling in mixed methods research and the application of theory in mixed methods research throughout various contexts Covering topics such as the issues and potential directions for further research in mixed methods this comprehensive major reference work is ideal for researchers policymakers academicians librarians practitioners instructors and students

Nationalism, Politics and Anthropology Ilana van Wyk, Jimmy Pieterse, 2022-02-28 In this book Ilana van Wyk and Jimmy Pieterse interrogate the question of political subjectivity and its role in the making of anthropology and anthropologists by revisiting the pitched battles between so called liberal social anthropologists and conservative nationalist volkekundiges in South Africa They pay particular attention to the social and cultural lives of two men who were central proponents of South African anthropology s two tales Kees van der Waal a former volkekundige and John Sharp once one of volkekunde s fiercest critics Through a series of conversations with Kees and John they show that the issues that once divided a local field still animate the ways in which centres and peripheries of global anthropology relate to one another and to foundational questions about the discipline s epistemology and political positionality

Handbook of Research on Sub-National Governance and Development Schoburgh, Eris, Ryan, Roberta, 2016-11-30 Effective governance is a crucial aspect of all modern nations Through various collaborative efforts and processes nations can enhance their current governance systems The Handbook of Research on Sub National Governance and Development is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly material on the intersection between local and national politics analyzing how this relationship affects nations economy and administration Highlighting theoretical foundations and real world applications this book is ideally designed for professionals academics students and practitioners actively involved in the fields of public policy and governance

African Handbook of Climate Change Adaptation Nicholas Ogue, Desalegn Ayal, Lydia Adeleke, Izael da Silva, 2021-05-20 This open access book discusses current thinking and presents the main issues and challenges associated with climate change in Africa It introduces evidences from studies and projects which show how climate change adaptation is being and may continue to be successfully implemented in African countries Thanks to its scope and wide range of themes surrounding climate change the ambition is that this book will be a lead publication on the topic which may be regularly updated and hence capture further works Climate change is a major global challenge However some geographical regions are more severely affected than others One of these regions is the African continent Due to a combination of unfavourable socio economic and meteorological conditions African countries are particularly vulnerable to climate change and its impacts The recently released IPCC special report Global Warming of 1.5°C outlines the fact that keeping global warming by the level of 1.5°C is possible but also suggested that an increase by 2.0°C could lead to crises with crops agriculture fed by rain could drop by 50% in some African countries by 2020 and livestock production could damage water supplies and pose an additional threat to coastal areas The 5th Assessment Report produced by IPCC predicts that wheat may disappear from Africa by 2080 and that maize a staple will fall significantly in southern Africa Also arid and semi arid lands are likely to increase by up to 8% with severe ramifications for livelihoods poverty eradication and meeting the SDGs Pursuing appropriate adaptation strategies is thus vital in order to address the current and future challenges posed by a changing climate It is against this background that the African Handbook of Climate Change Adaptation is being published It contains papers prepared by scholars representatives from social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies undertaking research and or executing climate change projects in Africa and working with communities across the African continent Encompassing over 100 contributions from across Africa it is the most comprehensive publication on climate change adaptation in Africa ever produced

Christological Paradigm Shifts in Prophetic Pentecostalism in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, Marius Nel, Collium Banda, 2021-09-22 This book explores recent developments in South African Pentecostalism focusing on new prophetic churches The chapters engage with a number of paradigm shifts in Christology identified as complementing Christ competing with Christ removing Christ and replacing Christ What are the implications of these shifts Does it mean that believers no longer believe in Christ but in their leaders Does it shift believers faith towards materiality than the person of Christ This volume will be valuable for scholars of African Christianity and in particular those interested in the neo prophetic movement and Christology in a South African context

Public Relations Management in Africa Volume 2 Albert A. Anani-Bossman, Takalani E. Mudzanani, Cornelius B. Pratt, Isaac A. Blankson, 2023-07-19 This two part volume the first of its kind examines current pedagogical modules and research directions in public relations and communication management identifying emerging issues driving the practice in Africa In comparison to its Western and Asian counterparts literature on public relations management in Africa is limited and much of it is examined through the lenses of Western philosophies and pedagogies failing to reflect Africa's socioeconomic political and cultural contexts This project aims to change that Albert Volume 2 brings together African scholars moving beyond organizational impact to share the wider theoretical and practical perspectives on the practice of public relations on the continent within its cultural global and technological milieu Through conceptual discussions and empirical analyses this volume shows how Africa is gradually coming out of the shadows of the Western world by building a body of knowledge that reflects the nature of public relations management on the continent Chapters cover how public relations contributes to strategic management in Africa health communication and public relations management strategic management of issues as well as the implications of the fourth industrial revolution for public relations practice in Africa

The Palgrave Handbook of Incarceration in Popular Culture Marcus Harmes, Meredith Harmes, Barbara Harmes, 2020-02-03 The Handbook of Incarceration in Popular Culture will be an essential reference point providing international coverage and thematic richness

The chapters examine the real and imagined spaces of the prison and perhaps more importantly dwell in the uncertain space between them. The modern fixation with seeing inside prison from the outside has prompted a proliferation of media visions of incarceration from high minded and worthy to voyeuristic and unrealistic. In this handbook the editors bring together a huge breadth of disparate issues including women in prison, the view from inside prisons as a source of entertainment, the real worlds of prison and issues of race and gender. The handbook will inform students and lecturers of media, film, popular culture, gender and cultural studies as well as scholars of criminology and justice.

Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico, 2018-11-05. Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity, particularly access and affordability, historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism, and the shape and structure of the higher education system. What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development. This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities. In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development, especially in cities. This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities. It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions, homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning. Given the developmental crisis in the country, universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts, cities and regions. But what should that role be? Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework? What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level? Who and what might be involved? Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why? Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns, secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently? This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits, Pretoria, Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges.

Culture, philosophies and reforms in public administration for the globalizing world Edwin O.C. Ijeoma, Ogochukwu I. Nzewi, 2018-12-31. The aim of this scholarly collected work is to contribute to the scientific discourse on public administration in a globalised environment. The book reflects on governance challenges in South Africa and in Africa with its point of departure being the master narratives, the so called grand debates such as New Public Management and specifically the role of technology. It also reflects on the so called middle range discourses concerning organisational level issues in government, e.g. leadership and work procedures and explores new solutions to old governance challenges like corruption and service delivery. The uniqueness of this collected work lies in its ability to reflect on existing philosophies and practices in an innovative way. Through its multidisciplinary lens, the book opens up a new vision for the future of public administration in the South African context and on the African continent not neglecting the current local regional and global environment Until recently globalisation was considered an entrenched world order but international political events during the course of the past few years have resulted in one of the biggest challenges to its endurance in recent history This includes developments such as the successful referendum in Britain to exit the European Union highlighting the growth of a severe nationalist and protectionist agenda that may be a signal of the unravelling of the current globalism world order These developments inspire deeper interrogation of the challenges to effective public administration globally and the ripple effects in South Africa and Africa as a whole Pointedly it is evident that ensuring the voice of citizens in policy decision making remains a critical governance challenge On the policy front there are perennial challenges of land reform service delivery and poverty while on the governance front corruption has metastasised with a growing culture of impunity and lack of accountability in leadership In the midst of growing corruption and more than 20 years into democracy South Africa s income inequality remains one of the highest in the world This setting constitutes the context of the research outcome published in this scholarly work

Integrating Indigenous and Scientific Knowledge for Sustainable Food Systems in Africa Saa Dittoh, Anna Bon, Hans Akkermans, 2025-04-25 This open access book presents a novel approach to food security research SDG 2 Zero Hunger by integrating indigenous and scientific knowledge Through extensive field based research in Burkina Faso Ghana Kenya Mali and South Africa it explores the impact of merging traditional practices and local knowledge with scientific methods Through field studies the book shows the value of local knowledge and community led innovations in combating hunger achieving food security and enhancing nutrition sustainably and food sovereignty Drawing on decades of research in rural Africa the authors introduce the Plug In Principle a theory for integrating indigenous and modern knowledge systems to foster sustainable agricultural practices and enriched food ecosystems in Africa The Plug In Principle advocates that advancements in science and technology should enhance rather than replace existing indigenous knowledge This principle emerged from the failures of many development interventions where attempts at replacement often led to challenges and failures In agriculture for instance interventions in mechanization soil amendments seed and breed improvements and extension services have seldom succeeded due to a lack of integration with existing practices The Plug In Principle emphasizes that effective knowledge integration hinges on a deep understanding and appreciation of prevailing systems By designing interventions that seamlessly plug in to existing technologies we can ensure the co creation of effective solutions to the challenges we face This book is a testament to the potential of collaborative innovation in fostering sustainable development Development workers policymakers researchers students and donor agencies in agriculture and other development areas will find this volume invaluable Additionally scholars focused on decolonization and indigenous knowledge in the Global South will uncover insightful case studies and analyses
