McNulty, 2007-01-01 Growing numbers of church leaders are discovering that many films are able to impact viewers with gospel truths almost as well as a good sermon Ed McNulty a former pastor and longtime reviewer of films offers this guide to help church leaders enter into dialogue with contemporary films McNulty carefully crafts a theology of movies and then provides practical suggestions for creating and leading movie discussions with groups In addition he provides people from all across the theological spectrum with a framework to understand whether the overall message of a film outweighs concerns over profanity violence or sex in the film He concludes by introducing twenty seven films and including provocative questions about each that will prepare leaders to assemble and facilitate a group Popular films explored include The Color Purple Crash Hotel Rwanda The Matrix Million Dollar Baby O Brother Where Art Thou and The Shawshank Redemption      Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler, 2017-08-16 Brings popular cinema and Jewish religious texts into a meaningful dialogue Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God's image among others This is a groundbreaking work of originality insight and high quality It will be of great importance not only for Jewish readers but also for non Jewish readers who long for a non Christian perspective on popular film I loved this book Eric Michael Mazur editor Encyclopedia of Religion and Film

Interdisciplinarity and Social Justice Joe Parker, Ranu Samantrai, Mary Romero, 2012-02-01 In the 1960s and 1970s activists who focused on the academy as a key site for fostering social change began by querying the assumptions of the traditional disciplines and transforming their curricula putting into place women's and ethnic studies programs that changed both the subject and methods of scholarship The pattern of scholars and activists joining forces to open fields of research and teaching continued in subsequent decades and recent additions including critical race studies queer studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies take as their epistemological foundation the inherently political nature of all knowledge production Interdisciplinarity and Social Justice seizes this opportune moment in the history of interdisciplinary fields to review their effects on our intellectual and political landscape to evaluate their ability to deliver promised social benefits and to consider their futures The essays collected in this volume detail histories of the interdisciplinary fields that emerged from social movements examine how effectively they have achieved their goals of intellectual and social change and consider the challenges they now face inside and outside the academy
