France Islam Choc Prejug Malik Bezouh:

Citizenship and Belonging in France and North America Ramona Mielusel, Simona Emilia Pruteanu, 2020-01-09 The first decades of the new millennium have been marked by major political changes Although The West has wished to revisit internal and international politics concerning migration policies refugee status integration secularism and the dismantling of communitarianism events like the Syrian refugee crisis the terrorist attacks in France in 2015 2016 and the economic crisis of 2008 have resurrected concepts such as national identity integration citizenship and re shaping state policies in many developed countries In France and Canada more recent public elections have brought complex democratic political figures like Emmanuel Macron and Justin Trudeau to the public eye Both leaders were elected based on their promising political agendas that aimed at bringing their countries into the new millennium Trudeau promotes multiculturalism while Macron touts the diverse nation and the inclusion of diverse ethnic communities to the national model This edited collection aims to establish a dialogue between these two countries and across disciplines in search of such discursive illustrations and opposing discourses Analyzing the cultural and political tensions between minority groups and the state in light of political events that question ideas of citizenship and belonging to a multicultural nation the chapters in this volume serve as a testimonial to the multiple views on the political and public perception of multicultural practices and their national and international applicability to our current geopolitical context

Religion, Migration, and Existential Wellbeing Moa Kindström Dahlin, Oscar Larsson, Anneli Winell, 2020-09-27 This book uses the very latest research to examine current interactions between religion migration and existential wellbeing In particular it demonstrates the role of religion and religious organizations in the social medical and existential wellbeing of immigrants within their host societies By focusing on the role and politics of religion and religious organisations as well as the religious identity and faith of individuals it highlights the connection between existential wellbeing integration and social cohesion The book brings together researchers from various disciplines taking on the challenge to elaborate on the theme of this book from different perspectives using different methods and theories with a wide selection of cases from various parts of the world The value of multidisciplinary research on the role of religion in a globalised society locally nationally and internationally is important for understanding the composition and potential solutions to social and political problems Religious aspects and organisations are present in legal political and social forms of governance and form the basis for future research on e g secularisation democracy minorities human rights welfare healthcare and identity formation These and other related topics are discussed in this book This book is an up to date and multifaceted study of how religion engages with the mass movement of peoples As such it will be of great interest to any scholar of Religious Studies Migrant Studies Sociology of Religion Religion and Politics as well as Legal Studies with a human right focus
