Francesca Haig :

The Forever Ship Francesca Haig, 2017-12-05 Book Three in the critically acclaimed The Fire Sermon trilogy The Hunger Games meets Cormac McCarthy's The Road in this richly imagined post apocalyptic series by award winning poet Francesca Haig The apocalypse has come and gone and now every person is born a twin one a strong Alpha one a mutated Omega The Omegas live in segregation cast out by their families as soon as their mutation becomes clear Forced to live apart they are ruthlessly oppressed by their Alpha counterparts The only thing that keeps the Alphas at bay is the fact that whenever one twin dies so does the other In this thrilling conclusion to The Fire Sermon trilogy Cass Piper and Zoe have discovered that Elsewhere exists and it's more real and more complicated than any of them could have imagined Now they must race to prevent the Alphas from destroying what might be the only salvation for the Omegas The end to their lifelong discrimination is in sight but before she can be free Cass must overcome her loyalty to her Alpha twin Zach her most dangerous enemy But if they're not careful both will die in the struggle for power The Fire Sermon Francesca Haig, 2015-02 Cass and Zach were born a perfect pair no missing limbs no Omega mutation but Cass has a secret In her dreams she has seen the day they will be separated She has felt the searing heat of the Omega brand as it is burned into her forehead marking her fate for all to see For years Cass hides her power of foresight from her family and brother as the eyes of the community bear down upon them waiting for the day the Omega mutation appears When Zach discovers Cass's secret he will stop at nothing to expose her and take his rightful place as an Alpha The Map of Bones Francesca Haig, 2016-12-06 Book Two in the critically acclaimed The Fire Sermon trilogy The Hunger Games meets Cormac McCarthy's The Road in this richly imagined post apocalyptic series by award winning poet Francesca Haig Four hundred years in the future the Earth has turned primitive following a nuclear fire that has laid waste to civilization and nature Though the radiation fallout has ended for some unknowable reason every person is born with a twin Of each pair one is an Alpha physically perfect in every way and the other an Omega burdened with deformity small or large With the Council ruling an apartheid like society Omegas are branded and ostracized while the Alphas have gathered the world's sparse resources for themselves Though proclaiming their superiority for all their effort Alphas cannot escape one harsh fact whenever one twin dies so does the other Cass is a rare Omega one burdened with psychic foresight While her twin Zach gains power on the Alpha Council she dares to dream the most dangerous dream of all equality For daring to envision a world in which Alphas and Omegas live side by side as equals both the Council and the Resistance have her in their sights Fire Sermon Francesca Haig, 2015-09-02 Quatre cents ans apr s notre re la Terre a t ravag e par un terrible feu nucl aire Sur une terre appauvrie qui se repeuple grande peine un ph nom ne myst rieux et inexplicable d bute chaque personne na t d sormais avec un jumeau De chaque paire l un na t Alpha physiquement parfait en tous points et l autre Om ga affubl d une difformit physique plus ou moins marqu e Dans cette soci t les Om gas sont discrimin s et ostracis s tandis que leurs fr res Alphas

vivent dans l'opulence en s'accaparrant les maigres richesses de la Terre Or un lien invisible et indéchiffrable unit les jumeaux sans qu'on puisse en percevoir le mystère où qu'ils se trouvent et qu'il importe la distance qui les sépare quand l'un des deux meurt l'autre meurt aussi Cass est l'une des rares Omegas dotée d'un pouvoir de clairvoyance Alors que son jumeau Zach accède aux hautes sphères du Conseil des Alphas Cass ose faire le pire des rêves possibles celui d'un monde où Alphas et Omegas sont traités à égalité Prise au cœur du combat entre le Conseil et la Résistance Cass va devoir lutter pour survivre et permettre son rêve de devenir réalité

Apocalyptic Discourse in Contemporary Culture Monica Germana, Aris Mousoutzanis, 2014-09-15 This interdisciplinary collection of essays focuses on critical and theoretical responses to the apocalypse of the late twentieth and early twenty-first century cultural production Examining the ways in which apocalyptic discourses have had an impact on how we read the world's globalised space the traumatic burden of history and the mutual relationship between language and eschatological belief fifteen original essays by a group of internationally established and emerging critics reflect on the apocalypse its past tradition pervasive present and future legacy The collection seeks to offer a new reading of the apocalypse understood as a complex and frequently paradoxical paradigm of contemporary Western culture The majority of published collections on the subject have been published prior to the year 2000 and in their majority of cases locate the apocalypse in the future and envision it as something imminent This collection offers a post-millennial perspective that perceives the end as immanent and simultaneously rooted in the past tradition

'Guilty Pleasures' Alice Guilluy, 2021-11-04 In Guilty Pleasures Alice Guilluy examines the reception of contemporary Hollywood romantic comedy by European audiences She offers a new look at the romantic comedy genre through a qualitative study of its consumption by actual audiences In doing so she attempts to challenge traditional critiques of the genre as trite escapism at best and dangerous guilty pleasure at worst Despite this cultural anxiety little work has been done on the genre's real audiences Guilluy addresses this gap by presenting the results of a major qualitative study of the genre's reception based on interview research with rom com viewers in Britain France and Germany focusing on Sweet Home Alabama 2002 dir Andy Tennant Throughout the interviews participants attempted to distance themselves from what they described as the typical rom com viewer the uneducated gullible overly emotional American woman Guilluy calls this fantasy figure the phantom spectatrix Guilluy complements this with a critical examination of the press reviews of the 20 biggest grossing rom coms at the worldwide box office in order to contextualise the findings of her audience research

Apocalyptic Chic Barbara Brodman, James E. Doan, 2017-10-10 This book deals with legends and images of the apocalypse and post apocalypse in film and graphic arts literature and lore from early to modern times and from peoples and cultures around the world It reflects an increasingly popular leitmotif in literature and visual arts of the 21st century humanity's fear of extinction and its quest for survival in revenant supernatural or living human form It is the logical continuation of a series of collected essays examining the origins and evolution of myths and legends of the supernatural in Western and non Western tradition and popular culture The first two volumes of the series The Universal Vampire Origins and Evolution of a Legend Fairleigh Dickinson University Press 2013 and Images of the Modern Vampire The Hip and the Atavistic Fairleigh Dickinson University Press 2013 focused on the vampire legend The third The Supernatural Revamped From Timeworn Legends to Twenty First Century Chic 2016 focused on a range of supernatural beings in literature film and other forms of popular culture

Lost and Found Emma L.E.Rees, 2013-06-28 He is my miracle says Sarah Frost Mellor's protagonist of her lover Joe Found by accident in the least likely of places Sarah won the 2012 Cheshire Prize for Literature with her short story Udumbara in Lytham St Anne's and it is in this modest seaside town that Lost and Found begins Reading through the stories in this collection the reader will find many things surreal flotsam on a desolate beach a love letter mislaid for decades turns of phrase in a classroom relationships shaped in unusual settings But to find something means simultaneously to acknowledge the possibility of loss And loss figures largely in the anthology too from beloved relatives to despised spouses and from inconsequential objects to an individual's very sense of self life's losses are portrayed here in a variety of humorous dark and frequently surprising ways The Cheshire Prize for Literature was inaugurated in 2003 as the High Sheriff's Cheshire Prize for Literature It is funded by the Bank of America Europe Card Services and is administered by the University of Chester The 2012 competition was for short stories and this collection contains 24 of the shortlisted entries including those of the eventual winner Details of the Prize are available at <http://www.chester.ac.uk/literatureprize> misfit learns something important a misanthrope is reformed by an unlikely companion and a boy imagines beauty where others see only ugliness This is Zoo where the quotidian and the sublime are juxtaposed and where we can imagine ourselves momentarily at least living the lives of others As spectators we progress from one cage to another as readers of the anthology we go from one story to the next visiting some more than once and finding meanings and associations which are ultimately unique The Cheshire Prize for Literature was inaugurated in 2003 as the High Sheriff s Cheshire Prize for Literature It is funded by Bank of America and administered by the University of Chester The 2009 competition was for Short Stories and this collection contains 23 of the short listed entries including those of the eventual winners Details of the Prize are available at <http://www.chester.ac.uk/literatureprize>

Women and Personal Property in the Victorian Novel Deborah

Wynne,2016-02-17 How key changes to the married women s property laws contributed to new ways of viewing women in society are revealed in Deborah Wynne s study of literary representations of women and portable property during the period 1850 to 1900 While critical explorations of Victorian women s connections to the material world have tended to focus on their relationships to commodity culture Wynne argues that modern paradigms of consumerism cannot be applied across the board to the Victorian period Until the passing of the 1882 Married Women s Property Act many women lacked full property rights evidence suggests that for women objects often functioned not as disposable consumer products but as cherished personal property Focusing particularly on representations of women and material culture in Charles Dickens George Eliot and Henry James Wynne shows how novelists engaged with the vexed question of women s relationships to property Suggesting that many of the apparently insignificant items that clutter the Victorian realist novel take on new meaning when viewed through the lens of women s access to material culture and the vagaries of property law her study opens up new possibilities for interpreting female characters in Victorian fiction and reveals the complex work of thing culture in literary texts

Still Life Emma L.E. Rees,2011-04-30 In a hot Spanish kitchen a little boy s mouth waters as he daydreams about the citrus tang of freshly squeezed juice in the weak sunlight outside a Russian Orthodox church splinters of wood dance like so many motes of dust and in a camp in Germany three prisoners of war look upwards and marvel at the near weightless liberty of the birds they see These are some of the exquisite moments almost visual in their vibrancy that are captured in the pages of Still Life In this rich and textured anthology the mundane is transfigured as poets attempt to answer or at least to establish the big questions of life In being recalled and recorded in poetry still lives are endowed both with vitality and with a particular kind of immortality too The Cheshire Prize for Literature was inaugurated in 2003 as the High Sheriff s Cheshire Prize for Literature It is funded by Bank of America and administered by the University of Chester The 2010 competition was for poetry and this anthology contains 58 of the short listed entries including those of the eventual winners Details of the prize are available at www.chester.ac.uk/literatureprize

Post-Anthropocene Esther Priyadharshini, 2021-11-25 This book draws on posthumanist critique and post qualitative approaches to research to examine the pedagogies offered by imaginaries of the future Starting with the question of how education can be a process for imagining and desiring better futures that can shorten the Anthropocene it speaks to concerns that are relevant to the fields of education youth and futures studies This book explores lessons from the imaginaries of apocalypse revolution and utopia drawing on research from youthful perspectives in a context when the narrative of youth despair about the future is becoming persistent It investigates how the imaginary of Apocalypse acts as a frame of intelligibility a way of making sense of the monstrosities of the present and also instigates desires to act in different ways Studying the School Climate Strikes of 2019 as Revolution moves us away from the teleologies of capitalist consumption and endless growth to newer aesthetics The strikes function as a public pedagogy that creates new publics that include life beyond the human Finally the book explores how the Utopias of Afrofuturist fiction provides us with a kind of investable utopia because the starting point is in racial economic and ecological injustice If the Apocalypse teaches us to recognize what needs to go and Revolution accepts that living with less than is necessary then this kind of Utopia shows us how becoming more than human may be the future More Bagpipe Music Derek Alsop, 2012-08-13 Scotland its cities mountains landscapes wildlife poetry art and music is the theme of this collection of poems From Glasgow to Aberdeen from Skye to Lower Largo Derek Alsop traverses the country exploring its history mythology and culture with a keen outsider's eye What emerges is a land of incomparable richness diversity and beauty Whether the subject is the seals of Portnahaven or the birds of Jura the whisky of Islay or the races at Ayr Alsop finds his own view of Scotland There are darker moments too as the violent history of Scotland reveals itself amongst the ruins monuments and glens Sian Hughes winner of the Arvon

International Poetry Competition and author of the prizewinning volume The Missing has said Derek Alspop is a well respected teacher of poetry and now it turns out he is also a very winning poet in his own right

Mapping the World of Anglo-American Studies at the Turn of the Century Marija Knežević, 2015-10-05 This volume revisits the most important issues that Anglo American studies are facing at the beginning of the twenty first century with regards to both research and teaching Given the English language s status as a lingua franca the culture that produced it and that has been changing it the literature written in English and relevant linguistic and literary discourse have come to largely dominate critical theory globally Therefore the subjects of Anglo American studies and their traditional and modern concepts must be approached from a multidisciplinary perspective and must also be problematized in and determined by other spheres of the world especially at the universities at which they are studied This book consequently approaches both mainstream cultural literary linguistic and academic achievements and often by way of comparison those smaller more distant and marginalized fields traditionally subordinate studies as well as instances of cultural hybridization Given its concern with a broad field of culture literature linguistics and methodology of teaching English as a foreign language this book consists of two main parts comprising the closest research and teaching fields one attending to culture and literature and the other approaching linguistics and methodology

Screening Twilight Wickham Clayton, Sarah Harman, 2014-06-19 The Twilight saga a series of five films adapted from Stephanie Meyer s four vampire novels has been a sensation both at the box office and through the attention it has won from its predominantly teenaged fans This series has also been the subject of criticism and sometimes derision often from critics and on occasion even from fans However it also offers rich opportunities for analytic and critical attention which the contributors to Screening Twilight demonstrate with energy and style Through examining Twilight the book unpacks how this popular group of films work as cinematic texts what they have to say about cinema and culture today and how fans may seek to re read or subvert these messages The chapters address Twilight in the context of the vampire and myth in terms of genre and reception identity gender and sexuality and through re viewing the series fandom Screening Twilight is also a revelation of how a popular cinematic phenomenon like Twilight rewards close attention from contemporary critical scholars of cinema and culture
