George Saunders Tour 2013:

George Saunders Philip Coleman, Steve Gronert Ellerhoff, 2017-03-25 This timely volume explores the signal contribution George Saunders has made to the development of the short story form in books ranging from CivilWarLand in Bad Decline 1996 to Tenth of December 2013 The book brings together a team of scholars from around the world to explore topics ranging from Saunders's treatment of work and religion to biopolitics and the limits of the short story form It also includes an interview with Saunders specially conducted for the volume and a preliminary bibliography of his published works and critical responses to an expanding and always exciting creative oeuvre Coinciding with the release of the Saunders first novel Lincoln in the Bardo 2017 George Saunders Critical Essays is the first book length consideration of a major contemporary author's work It is essential reading for anyone interested in twenty first century fiction An Ethics Beyond Kevin Richard Kaiser, 2019-07-22 This study examines the fiction of contemporary American author George Saunders in terms of how it presents situations applicable to the chief notions of posthumanist ethics and how these conceptions concern nonhuman animals which are prevalent in his writing Posthumanist ethics can help us understand what is at play in Saunders's fiction Meanwhile his texts can help us understand what is at stake in posthumanist ethics This interdisciplinary project may be beneficial both to conceiving new notions of ethics that are more inclusive and more implicitly to understanding the relevance of Saunders's fiction to the current American sociocultural climate Conversations with George Saunders Michael O'Connell, 2022-06-27 Besides being one of America's most celebrated living authors George Saunders b 1958 is also an excellent interview subject In the fourteen interviews included in Conversations with George Saunders covering nearly twenty years of his career the Booker Prize winning author of Lincoln in the Bardo and Tenth of December provides detailed insight into his own writing process and craft alongside nuanced interpretations of his own work He also delves into aspects of his biography including anecdotes from his childhood and his experiences as both a student and teacher in MFA programs as well as reflections on how parenthood affected his writing the role of religious belief and practice in his work and how he has dealt with his growing popularity and fame Throughout this collection we see him in conversation with former students fellow writers mainstream critics and literary scholars In each instance Saunders is eager to engage in meaningful dialogue about what he calls the big questions of our age In a number of interviews he reflects on the moral and ethical responsibility of fiction as well as how his work engages with issues of social and political commentary But at the same time these interviews like all of Saunders's best work are funny warm surprising and wise Saunders says he has always enjoyed doing interviews in part because he views intense respectful conversation as really an artform an exploration of sorts Readers of this volume will have the pleasure of joining him in this process of exploration New Sincerity Adam Kelly, 2024-10-08 The years 1989 2008 were an era of neoliberal hegemony in US politics economy and culture Post 45 scholar Adam Kelly argues that American novelists who began their careers during these years specifically the post baby boom generation of writers born between the late 1950s and early 1970s responded to the times by developing in their fiction an aesthetics of sincerity How and in what way these writers ask can you mean what you say and avow what you feel when what you say and feel can be bought and sold on the market What is authentic art in a historical moment when the artist has become a model for neoliberal subjectivity rather than its negation Through six chapters focused on key writers of the period including Susan Choi Helen DeWitt Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers George Saunders Dana Spiotta Colson Whitehead and David Foster Wallace the book explores these central questions while intervening critically in a set of debates in contemporary literary studies concerning aesthetics economy gender race class and politics Offering the capstone articulation of a set of influential arguments made by the author over a decade and more New Sincerity constitutes a field defining account of a period that is simultaneously recent and historically bound and of a generation of writers who continue to shape the literary landscape of the present

The Transformative Power of Literature and Narrative: Promoting Positive Change Corinna Assmann, Jan Rupp, Christine Schwanecke, 2023-01-16 Narrative plays a central role for individual and collective lives this insight has arguably only grown at a time of multiple social and cultural challenges in the 21st century The present volume aims to actualize and further substantiate the case for literature and narrative taking inspiration from Vera N nning s eminent scholarship over the past decades Engaging with her formative interdisciplinary work the volume seeks to explore potentials of change through the transformative power of literature and narrative to be harnessed by individuals and groups as agents of positive change in today s world The book is located at the intersection of cognitive and cultural narratology and is concerned with the way literature affects individuals how it works at an intersubjective level enabling communication and community and how it furthers social and cultural change

Handbook of the American Short Story Erik Redling, Oliver Scheiding, 2022-01-19 The American short story has always been characterized by exciting aesthetic innovations and an immense range of topics This handbook offers students and researchers a comprehensive introduction to the multifaceted genre with a special focus on recent developments due to the rise of new media Part I provides systematic overviews of significant contexts ranging from historical political backgrounds short story theories developed by writers print and digital culture to current theoretical approaches and canon formation Part II consists of 35 paired readings of representative short stories by eminent authors charting major steps in the evolution of the American short story from its beginnings as an art form in the early nineteenth century up to the digital age The handbook examines historically methodologically and theoretically the coming together of the enduring narrative practice of compression and concision in American literature It offers fresh and original readings relevant to studying the American short story and shows how the genre performs American culture

Hospitality in American Literature and Culture Ana Maria Manzananas Calvo, Jesús Benito Sanchez, 2016-11-03 This book examines hospitality in American immigrant literature and culture situating it at the crossroads of space and border theory and exploring themes of migration citizenship identity formation and spatiality Assessing the conditions duration and shifting roles of hosts and guests in the US it visits recent representations of immigrant spatiality from the space of the body in film to the ways in which immigrants are incorporated into the US in a range of literary examples Timely and imperative in light of the legacies of colonialism and the realities of modern day globalization this book will be of value to fields including post colonialism American Studies and others The Graveyard in Literature Aoileann Ní Éigeartaigh, 2021-11-12 This volume focuses on literary and other cultural texts that use the graveyard as a liminal space within which received narratives and social values can be challenged and new and empowering perspectives on the present articulated It argues that such texts do so primarily by immersing the reader in a liminal space between life and death where traditional certainties such as time and space are suspended and new models of human interaction can thus be formulated Essays in this volume examine the use of liminality as a vehicle for social critique paying particular attention to the ways in which liminal spaces facilitate the construction of alternative perspectives

Doing Animal Studies with Androids, Aliens, and Ghosts David P. Rando, 2023-04-06 Exploring what can be learnt when literary critics in the field of animal studies temporarily direct attention away from representations of nonhuman animals in literature and towards liminal figures like androids aliens and ghosts this book examines the boundaries of humanness Simultaneously it encourages the reader both to see nonhuman animals afresh and to reimagine the terms of our relationships with them Examining imaginative texts by writers such as Octavia Butler Philip K Dick Kazuo Ishiguro Jeanette Winterson and J M Coetzee this book looks at depictions of androids that redefine traditional humanist qualities such as hope and uniqueness It examines alien visions that unmask the racist and heteronormative roots of speciesism And it unpacks examples of ghosts and spirits who offer posthumous visions of having been human that decenter anthropocentrism In doing so it leaves open the potential for better relationships and futures with nonhuman animals

Bending Genre Margot Singer, Nicole Walker, 2022-12-15 Ever since the term creative nonfiction first came into widespread use memoirists and journalists essayists and fiction writers have faced off over where the border between fact and fiction lies An early and influential book on questions of form in creative nonfiction Bending Genre asks not where the boundaries between the genres should be drawn but what happens when you push the line The expanded second edition doubles the first edition with 23 new essays that broaden the exploration of hybridity structure unconventionality and resistance in creative nonfiction pushing the conversation forward in diverse and exciting ways Written for writers and students of creative writing this collection brings together perspectives from leading writers of creative nonfiction including Michael Martone Brenda Miller Ander Monson David Shields Kazim Ali and in the new edition Catina Bacote Ira Sukrungruang Ingrid Horrocks Elena Passarello and Aviya Kushner Each writer's innovative essay probes our notions of genre and investigates how creative nonfiction is shaped modeling the forms of writing being discussed Like creative nonfiction itself Bending Genre is an exciting hybrid that breaks new ground Features in the second edition Updated introduction to the new edition Expanded sections on Hybrids Structures and Unconventions A new section on Resistances
