The Groupie Journal John Abramowitz, Christine Michelle, 2022-01-20 I grew up thinking that my mother was a groupie who didn't want me It wasn't much different that the home I grew up in where my rock star father and his wife didn't want me either At least they let me stick around even if that's all they managed Everything I thought I knew about my mother was a lie The rest was still true After nearly dying blowing up my family's unsavory secrets in public and running away to hang out with an up and coming band you would think life couldn't get more eventful for me You would be wrong Life on the road was supposed to be about disappearing Instead I found myself and something else too I found love and acceptance and I wouldn't trade it for anything else in the world NOTE The Groupie Journal was originally a Kindle Vella
