History, Memory, Performance D. Dean, Y. Meerzon, K. Prince, 2014-12-04 History Memory Performance is an interdisciplinary collection of essays exploring performances of the past in a wide range of trans national and historical contexts At its core are contributions from theatre scholars and public historians discussing how historical meaning is shaped through performance

International Performance Research Pedagogies Sruti Bala, Milija Gluhovic, Hanna Korsberg, Kati Röttger, 2017-11-07 This book offers a unique and much needed interrogation of the broader questions surrounding international performance research which are pertinent to the present and the future of Theatre and Performance studies Marking the completion of eight years of the Erasmus Mundus MA Programme in International Performance Research MAIPR a programme run jointly by the universities of Warwick UK Amsterdam Netherlands Helsinki Tampere Finland Arts in Belgrade Serbia and Trinity College Dublin Ireland the essays in this volume take stock of the achievements insights and challenges of what international performance research is or ought to be about By reflecting on the discipline of Performance Studies using the MAIPR programme as a case study in point the volume addresses the broader question of the critical link between the discipline of Performance Studies and humanities education in general examining their interactions in the contemporary university in the context of globalisation

Making War on Bodies Catherine Baker, 2020-03-02 No detailed description available for Making War on Bodies

The ^AOxford Handbook of Politics and Performance Shirin M. Rai, Milija Gluhovic, Silvija Jestrovic, Michael Saward, 2021-02-19 While political scientists and political theorists have long been interested in social and political performance and theatre and performance researchers have often focused on the political dimensions of the live arts the interdisciplinary nature of this labor has typically been assumed rather than rigorously explored This volume brings together leading scholars in the fields of Politics and Performance drawing on experts across the fields of literature law anthropology sociology psychology and media and communication as well as politics and theatre and performance to map out and deepen the evolving interdisciplinary engagement Organized into seven thematic sections the volume investigates the relationship between politics and performance to show that certain features of political transactions shared by performances are fundamental to both disciplines and that to a large extent they also share a common communicational base and language

Performance Studies in Motion Atay Citron, Sharon Aronson-Lehavi, David Zerbib, 2014-02-27 Performance Studies in Motion offers multiple perspectives on the current field of performance studies and suggests its future directions Featuring new essays by pioneers Richard Schechner and Barbara Kirshenblatt Gimblett and by international scholars and practitioners it shows how performance can offer a new way of seeing the world and testifies to the dynamism of this discipline Beginning with an overview of the development of performance studies the essays offer new insights into contemporary experimental and postdramatic theatre participatory performance and museum exhibitions the performance of politicians political institutions and grassroots protest movements

theatricality at war and in contemporary religious rituals and performative practices in therapy education and life sciences Employing original reflexive approaches to concrete case studies and situations contributors introduce a variety of applications of performance studies methodologies to contemporary culture art and society creating new interdisciplinary links between the arts humanities and social and natural sciences With studies from and about places as diverse as Austria Belgium China France Germany Israel Korea Palestine the Philippines Poland Rwanda and the USA Performance Studies in Motion showcases the vitality and breadth of the field today

Violence and Trauma in Contemporary Performance Sofie de Smet, Marieke Breyne, Pedzisai Maedza, Christel Stalpaert, 2025-05-28 In this book scholars and artists from different fields such as performance studies cultural and visual studies psychology and performance art address how performances and performance practices engage with histories of violence and trauma in contemporary societies They explore performance practices as alternative approaches to transitional justice schemes as embodied encounters with witnesses inside and outside rehearsal spaces and as research environments for artists working on intergenerational trauma the legacies of colonialism and migration The collection offers new ways of seeing healing and remembering violence and trauma in and through contemporary performances It challenges common assumptions about dominant and silenced narratives as well as precarious and resilient bodies that embody performances of historical and ongoing violence and trauma
