How Much Fees At Lungile College:

ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 Patterns of Harassment in African Journalism Lungile Augustine Tshuma, Trust Matsilele, Mbongeni Jonny Msimanga, Sadia Jamil, 2024-06-14 This volume examines the trends and patterns of journalists harassment in Africa and assesses the policy interventions and protection mechanisms that are put into place in the region Drawing from case studies from selected African countries an international team of authors offer a broad insight into the state of harassment across the continent while building new theoretical perspectives that are also context specific The chapters bring previous theories and research up to date by addressing the continual change and development of new discourses including the use of big data and artificial intelligence in harassing and intimidating journalists and mental health issues affecting journalists in their line of duty More so the authors argue that the state and form of harassment is not universal as location and context are some of the key factors that influence the form and character of harassment Offering new theoretical insights into the scope of journalism practices in Africa this book will interest students and scholars of journalism African studies political science media and communication studies journalism practice and gender studies Journal of the American Oriental Society American Oriental Society, 1851 List of members in each volume Reviews on Biomarker Studies of Metabolic and Metabolism-Related Disorders Paul C. Guest, 2019-03-27 The book recognizes that throughout the scientific medical and economic communities new tests incorporating biomarkers are needed to improve the diagnosis of patients suffering from metabolic disorders The early identification of those at risk of developing obesity will help to place these individuals on the best treatment course as early as possible for improved treatment outcomes This will also help to cut costs incurred by the healthcare services For all of this to occur new research efforts are needed to identify novel biomarkers that can be used to predict the disease in the presymptomatic stage for disease monitoring and for prediction of treatment response It is also possible that new drug targets can be identified using these approaches which in turn can lead to the development of new treatment approaches This volume also includes a series of reviews on biomarker discovery and usage in the study of diseases marked by perturbations in metabolism It will describe the pros and cons of the various approaches and cover the successes and failures in this important research field Journal of the American Oriental Society, 1851 Black Composers of Southern Africa Yvonne Huskisson, 1992 This publication contains details of a new up and coming generation of composers It provides information on 318 composers and as such is a standard reference work on local composers When A Man Cries Siphiwo Mahala, 2014-08-01 Themba Limba is a family man who is caught between his flourishing career as a teacher and municipal councillor in the township of Sekunjalo and his overriding sexual interests Despite his attempts to maintain his status in the community his actions eventually lead to his downfall What follows is an account sometimes tragic occasionally humorous and always compelling of Themba's efforts to regain his dignity and pride in the eyes of his family and community When a Man cries is an uncompromising and engrossing novel about the challenges of manhood in contemporary South African society It interrogates the dynamics of township life and the human and socio economic realities of the most impoverished communities in post apartheid South Africa Health Crises and Media Discourses in Sub-Saharan Africa Carol Azungi Dralega,Angella Napakol,2022-05-24 This is an open access book which brings together leading scholars and critical discourses on political economic legal technological socio cultural and systemic changes and continuities intersecting media and health crises in Sub Saharan Africa The volume extensively discusses COVID 19 but it also covers other epidemics such as malaria HIV AIDS as well as silent health crises such as mental health simmering across the subcontinent The chapters fill knowledge gaps highlight innovations unpack the complexities surrounding the media ecosystem in times of health crises They explore among other issues the politics of public health communication infodemics existential threats to media viability draconian legislations threats to journalists journalism COVID related entrepreneurship marginalization and more This is a timely resource for academics advocacy groups media practitioners and policy makers working on crises and media reporting not just in Africa but anywhere in the global South

Shifting Journalism Boundaries in Zimbabwe Mphathisi Ndlovu,Lungile Tshuma,2025-12-03 This book investigates the ways in which peripheral news actors in digital media are transforming journalism in Zimbabwe Journalism s boundaries have become blurred porous and fuzzy as non traditional news actors such as bloggers social media influencers citizen journalists start ups satirists comedians and fact checkers gain increasing influence in digital spaces As legacy news media attempt to ring fence the field journalism becomes both boundaried and boundless This book examines how peripheral journalistic practices are impacting Zimbabwe a semi authoritarian regime facing significant economic pressures Taking into account Zimbabwe s specific sociocultural political and economic context this book explores how political issues are mediated by periphery actors how they deal with challenges to their legitimacy and professionalism how sustainable their positions are and finally what the implications of shifting journalistic boundaries are for education and training institutions As the impact of digital technologies continues to rise this timely book will be an important read for researchers working on journalism media and communication and African studies Leadership and Authority Titre Ande,2011-06-01 This book proposes that Christian theology in Africa can have a significant impact if a critical understanding of the socio political situation in contemporary Africa is taken seriously The Christian leadership in post colonial Africa has cloned its understanding and use of authority on the Bula Matari model which issued from the brutality of colonialism and political absolutism in post colonial Africa This model has caused many problems in churches including dysfunction conflicts division and lack of prophetic ministry The book proposes that Life Community ecclesiology can liberate authority where leadership is a function not a status and apostolic succession belongs to all the people of God This is a superb book on leadership which has implications for all in church leadership beyond the Congo Ande analyzes how church leadership has often mimicked secular models in an unhelpful way He critiques the use of power and privilege and offers an alternative model of life community ecclesiology This is an informative instructive and compelling read Cathy Ross J V Taylor Fellow in Missiology Oxford University Manager Crowther Centre for Mission Education CMS Dr Ande s book is a very important addition to the history of Christianity in the eastern Congo Democratic Republic His careful study of the growth of the Anglican church in Boga and Aru clearly and vividly explores the different dynamics of church growth in these two areas He is sensitive to the differing ways in which Ugandan Anglicanism has provided models for the development of the church in Congo by a study both of the original evangelism from Buganda associated with Apolo Kivebulaya in Boga and the more recent impact of Revivalist Christianity mediated through the West Nile during times of political confusion in both countries The historical material is used with great insight to develop a constructive theology of power and authority in the church and to critique existing structures of clerical and episcopal power Kevin Ward Senior Lecturer Department of Theology and Religious Studies University of Leeds Rt Rev Dr Titre Ande Georges Congolese is currently the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese of Aru Democratic Republic of Congo He is a former principal of the Anglican Theological College ISThA at Bunia and still lectures at the college He has a PhD from the University of Birmingham
