Les Grammaires De La Contestation:

The Politics of Listening Leah Bassel, 2017-03-30 This book explores listening as a social and political practice in contrast to the more common focus on voice and speaking The author draws on cases from Canada France and the United Kingdom exploring minority women and debates over culture and religion riots and young men in France and England citizen journalism and the creative use of different media and solidarity between migrant justice and indigenous activists Analysis across these diverse settings considers whether and how a politics of listening which demands that the roles of speakers and listeners change can be undertaken in adversarial and tense political moments The Politics of Listening argues that such a practice has the potential to create new ways of being and acting together as political equals who are heard on their own terms The book will appeal to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology and political theory

Refugee Women Leah Bassel, 2012-05-31

Debates over the headscarf and niqab so called sharia tribunals Female Genital Operations and forced marriages have raged in Europe and North America in recent years raising the question does accommodating Islam violate women s rights The book takes issue with the terms of this debate It contrasts debates in France over the headscarf and in Canada over religious arbitration with the lived experience of a specific group of Muslim women Somali refugee women The challenges these women eloquently describe first hand demonstrate that the fray over accommodating culture and religion neglects other needs and engenders a democratic deficit In Refugee Women Beyond Gender versus Culture new theoretical perspectives recast both the story told and who tells the tale By focusing on the politics underlying how these debates are framed and the experiences of women at the heart of these controversies women are considered first and foremost as democratic agents rather than actors in the culture versus gender script Crucially the institutions and processes created to address women s needs are critically assessed from this perspective Breaking from scholarship that focuses on whether the accommodation of culture and religion harms women Bassel argues that this debate ignores the realities of the women at its heart In these debates Muslim women are constructed as silent victims Bassel pleads compellingly for a consideration of women in all their complexity as active participants in democratic life The book will appeal to students and scholars throughout the social sciences particularly of sociology political science and women s studies Minority Women and Austerity Leah

Bassel, Akwugo Emejulu, 2017-07-12 EPUB and EPDF available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence In the first book of its kind Bassel and Emejulu explore minority women s experiences of and resistances to austerity measures in France and Britain Minority women are often portrayed as passive victims However Minority women and austerity demonstrates how they use their race class gender and legal status as a resource for collective action in the face of the neoliberal colonisation of non governmental organisations the failures of left wing politics and the patronising initiatives of policy makers Using in depth case studies this book explores the changing relations between the state the market and civil society which create opportunities and dilemmas for minority women activists Through an intersectional politics of survival these women seek to subvert the dominant narratives of crisis and activism Fear, Love, and Liberation in Contemporary Québec Alexa Conradi, 2019-04-01 In response to rapid and unsettling social economic and climate changes fearmongering now features as a main component of public life Right wing nationalist populism has become a hallmark of politics around the world No less so in Quebec Alexa Conradi has made it her life s work to understand and to generate thoughtful debate about this worrisome trend As the first President of Québec solidaire and the president of Canada s largest feminist organisation the Fédération des femmes du Québec Conradi refused to shy away from difficult issues the Charter of Quebec Values religion and Islam sovereignty rape culture and violence against women extractive industries and the treatment of Indigenous women austerity policy and the growing gap between rich and poor This determination to address uncomfortable subjects has made Conradi an anglo Montrealer a sometimes controversial leader In Fear Love and Liberation in Contemporary Quebec Conradi invites us to take off our rose coloured glasses and to examine Quebec's treatment of women with more honesty Through her personal reflections on Quebec politics and culture she dispels the myth that gender equality has been achieved and paves the way for a more critical understanding of what remains to be done Essai de Grammaire Du Dialecte Mentonnais

Les Grammaires De La Contestation : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
