Washington correspondent of The Irish Times has witnessed more than her share of history in three decades as a foreign correspondent She has reported with clarity and fearlessness on the main conflicts of our era from the civil war in Lebanon to the break up of Yugoslavia the US invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq and the ongoing Israeli Palestinian conflict She has been outspoken in her criticism of the often cruel and misguided actions of the world s leading powers and invariably seeks out the views of civilians caught up in wars that are not of their making The human cost of conflict and the absurdity of war come through her work time and again In this stunning and moving collection Lara Marlowe has chosen her finest pieces of writing from her years as a foreign correspondent in some of the world s most troubled countries notably Lebanon the Palestinian territories Iraq and Haiti as well as the power centers of Paris and Washington She brings her keen insight to bear on some intractable problems and shares with the reader the terror of living in a war zone There are lighter moments too a wonderful house warming party in Beirut during a lull in artillery bombardments meetings with talented celebrities including Carla Bruni Isabelle Adjani and Marcel Marceau the simple delight of the companionship of cats This is a superb collection from a writer at the height of her powers The Picture of Dorian Gray Neil Bartlett, Oscar Wilde, 2016-07-28

Believe me no civilised man ever regrets a pleasure As London slides from one century into the next a young man is cursed with the uncanny ability to remain both young and beautiful while descending into a life of heartless debauchery With its glittering dialogue provocative imagery and radical questioning of sexual and moral freedoms all brought sharply into focus by this brand new adaptation Oscar Wilde's infamous parable has lost none of its power to provoke and disturb Using Wilde's original words a company of sixteen actors and all of adaptor Neil Bartlett's trademark theatricality this new stage version of Wilde's black hearted parable was commissioned by and first produced at the Abbey Theatre Ireland's national theatre in the autumn season of 2012

Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower, 2013-01-17 Almost all of us know French literature even if we don't know French because it is probably the second largest and certainly the most translated into English And even if we don't read we would have seen film and television versions think Count of Monte Cristo and even a musical rendition Les Mis So this is a particularly interesting volume in the literature series since it covers French literature from the earliest times to the present It is also a particularly rich literature espousing every genre from poetry to novel to biography to drama and adopting every style including realism and surrealism and expressing the views of all classes and political stands with recently strong feminist and gay strains Obviously the core dictionary section includes among its panoply of often substantial and detailed entries hundreds of authors dozens of significant works the various styles mentioned above and many others events that have impacted literature such as the Dreyfus Affair and the Algerian War and literary prizes The chronology manages to cover about 1 200 years of literary output And the introduction sets it all out neatly from one historical and literary period to the next The bibliography broken down by period and author directs us to further reading in both French and English
