The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Travel and Tourism Linda L. Lowry, 2016-09 Taking a global and multidisciplinary approach The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Travel and Tourism examines the world travel and tourism industry which is expected to grow at an annual rate of four percent for the next decade Tourism in Pacific Islands Stephen Pratt, David Harrison, 2015-02-20 Pacific Island Countries have been shown to be especially vulnerable to such external influences as natural disasters political unrest and downturns in the global economy and their tourism industries have been notably affected In particular they typically have a narrow resource base and a fragile and often vulnerable natural environment While there is some research on islands and small states there is a dearth of information on the South Pacific and very little research is being undertaken in the region compared to other geographical regions in the world This volume brings together current work in Pacific Island tourism In this collection three main themes arise Images of the South Pacific Socio economic Impacts of Tourism and Pacific Island Countries and the Outside World The first focus is on the question of image namely stereotypes of a destination held by tourists and potential tourists the extent to which residents for their part really welcome visitors and the role tourism might play in changing pre established images The second theme is tourism s impacts notably the economic and socio cultural effects of international tourism s intrusion in the region which though often hotly debated have attracted relatively little empirical research The third focus is on the challenges of how PICs articulate with their external geo political and physical environment These involve existing relations with formal colonial centres geographical isolation the need for greater air access to the outside world and for more tourists and the continuing threat to several PICs of global warming which increased air travel will inevitably exacerbate This text will be of interest to tourism students researchers and academics in the fields of tourism development studies and cultural studies Research Methods in Service Innovation Flemming Sørensen, Francesco Lapenta, 2017-02-24 Research Methods in Service Innovation provides an essential methodological toolbox for researchers students and practitioners interested in better understanding innovation and improving innovation processes in service organisations Each chapter presents a specific method introduces its theoretical foundations explains its practical application and provides examples and suggestions for its implementation Exploring non-human work in tourism Jillian M. Rickly, Carol Kline, 2021-02-22 Critical animal studies is increasingly interfacing with tourism research in an effort to shed light on the various ways animals are incorporated into touristic experience Exploring non human work in tourism From beasts of burden to animal ambassadors builds upon the theoretical connections of animal ethics agency and welfare as it foregrounds specifically the work that animals perform in the industry While some types of animal labor are more readily identified readers of this volume may be surprised by how many forms of animal labor are overlooked Taking a widely international perspective with cases from the Arctic China Costa Rica China Finland Greece Mexico New Zealand and the United Kingdom this volume offers readers diverse scenarios of animals working The book is arranged along three themes of work Performative work focuses on the animals whose performances are front and center of tourists motivations and experiences Value added work turns attention to the co working relationships of animals while the political work of animals as ambassadors and icons is examined within the chapters on hidden labor Additionally the book makes theoretical considerations of the implications of positioning animals as workers and offers reflections on ways this focus on working animals extends current scholarship in the field Hospitality and Tourism 2015 Salamiah A. Jamal, Salleh Mohd Radzi, Norzuwana Sumarjan, C.T. Chik, Mohd Faez Saiful

Entrepreneurship Pantelis Sklias,Nikolaos Apostolopoulos,2022-09-15 Meaningful Pasts Russell Johnston,Michael Ripmeester,2024-01-31 In Meaningful Pasts Russell Johnston and Michael Ripmeester explore two strands of identity making among residents of the Niagara region in Ontario Canada First they describe the region s official narratives most of which celebrate the achievements of white settlers with a mix of storytelling rituals and monuments Despite their presence in local lore and landmarks these official narratives did not resonate with the nearly one thousand residents who participated in five surveys conducted over eleven years Instead participants drew on contemporary people places and events Second the authors explore the emergence of Niagara s wine industry as a heritage narrative The book shares how the survey participants embraced the industry as a local identifier and indicates how the industry s efforts have rekindled the residents interest in agriculture as a significant element of regional heritage and local identities Revealing how the profiles of local narratives and commemorations become entwined with social cultural economic and political power Meaningful Pasts illuminates the fact that local narratives retain their relevance only if residents find them meaningful in their day to day lives

The City Beneath Susan A. Phillips, 2019-11-05 A sweeping history of Los Angeles told through the lens of the many marginalized groups from hobos to taggers that have used the city s walls as a channel for communication Graffiti written in storm drain tunnels on neighborhood walls and under bridges tells an underground and until now untold history of Los Angeles Drawing on extensive research within the city s urban landscape Susan A Phillips traces the hidden language of marginalized groups over the past century from the early twentieth century markings of hobos soldiers and Japanese internees to the later inscriptions of surfers cholos and punks Whether describing daredevil kids bored workers or clandestine lovers Phillips profiles the experiences of people who remain underrepresented in conventional histories revealing the powerful role of graffiti as a venue for cultural expression Graffiti aficionados might be surprised to learn that the earliest documented graffiti bubble letters appear not in 1970s New York but in 1920s Los Angeles Or that the negative letterforms first carved at the turn of the century are still spray painted on walls today With discussions of characters like Leon Ray Livingston a k a A No 1 credited with consolidating the entire system of hobo communication in the 1910s and Kathy Zuckerman better known as the surf icon Gidget this lavishly illustrated book tells stories of small moments that collectively build into broad statements about power memory landscape and history itself

Race, Place and the Seaside Daniel Burdsey, 2016-08-18 This is the first academic monograph to focus exclusively on issues of race ethnicity whiteness and multiculturalism at the English seaside The book calls for acknowledgement of the racialised nature of this environment and proposes that its distinctive spaces places traditions and narratives should be included within broader analyses of race in contemporary Britain Introducing the concept of coastal liquidity to explain shifting ethno racial demographics migratory politics and spatial dynamics at the edge of the sea along with the relative im mobilities of the minority ethnic communities who move and reside there the author provides a relational exploration of seaside experiences both as a locus of racialised categorisation exclusion and subjugation and one of resistance conviviality and intercultural exchange Combining theoretical insight and empirical fieldwork the book disrupts dominant thinking that fixes ontologically minority ethnic bodies to urban spaces and overcomes their erasure and silencing
