Beyond Male and Female? Sam Ashton,2023-09-21 In this incisive work Sam Ashton provides a compelling consistent and erudite argument for a foundational approach to the matter of sexual difference drawing on biblical and doctrinal material and using resources in their original languages He tracks and traces the sexed body as it moves from creation through the fall to redemption now and final consummation not yet In doing so Ashton presents what is perhaps the strongest case that can be made for male and female He created them Each chapter privileges biblical exegesis drawing upon figures in church history notably Augustine and Aquinas as and when they illumine Scripture By doing so the book considers the difficulty presented to sexual dimorphism by the phenomenon of intersex Ashton seeks to develop an understanding that is generous inclusive and affirming so he works carefully through the writings of Thatcher Song and Cornwall in a way that invites engagement and dialogue With the complete divine drama in view the book offers synthetic judgments about what remains essential for the structure of the sexed body as it travels through history and what may be accidental to the sexed body's direction within a particular theo dramatic act Ashton concludes by considering ways to transition from dogmatic judgments about intersexuality to the moral pastoral care of concrete intersex individuals briefly thinking about the complex matter of marriage

Hollywood Action Films and Spatial Theory Nick Jones,2015-03-02 This book applies the discourse of the so called spatial turn to popular contemporary cinema in particular the action sequences of twenty first century Hollywood productions Tackling a variety of spatial imaginations contemporary iconic architecture globalisation and non places phenomenological knowledge of place consumerist spaces of commodity purchase cyberspace the diverse case studies not only detail the range of ways in which action sequences represent the challenge of surviving and acting in contemporary space but also reveal the consistent qualities of spatial appropriation and spatial manipulation that define the form Jones argues that action sequences dramatise the restrictions and possibilities of space offering examples of radical spatial praxis through their depictions of spatial engagement struggle and eventual transcendence

The New Politics of Materialism Sarah Ellenzweig,John Zammito,2017-07-14 New materialism challenges the mechanistic models characteristic of early modern philosophy that regarded matter as largely passive and inert Instead it gives weight to topics often overlooked in such accounts agency vitalism complexity contingency and self organization This collection which includes an international roster of contributors from philosophy history literature and science is the first to ask what is new about the new materialism and place it in interdisciplinary perspective Against current theories of new materialism it argues for a deeper engagement with materialism s history questions whether matter can be lively and asks whether new materialism s wish to revitalize politics and the political lives up to its promise Contributors Keith Ansell Pearson Sarah Ellenzweig Christian J Emden N Katherine Hayles Jess Keiser Mogens Laerke Ian Lowrie Lenny Moss Angela Willey Catherine Wilson Charles T Wolfe Derek Woods and John H Zammito

Behavior Disorders of Adolescence Robert J. McMahon,Ray DeV. Peters,2012-12-06 This volume is one in a continuing series of publications sponsored by the Banff International Conferences on Behavioural Science The conferences have been held each spring since 1969 in Banff Alberta Canada They serve the purpose of bringing together outstanding behavioral scientists and professionals in a forum where they can present and discuss data related to emergent issues and topics Thus the International Conferences as a continuing event have served as an expressive early indicator of the developing nature and composition of behavioral science and scientific application Distance schedules and restricted audience preclude wide attendance at the conferences Consequently the publications have equal status with the conferences proper They are not however simply publications of the papers presented at the conference Presenters at the Banff Conferences are required to write a chapter specifically for the forthcoming book separate from their presentation and discussion at the conference itself The original conference had as its theme Ideal Mental Health Services The policy consciously adopted at that conference and followed ever since was to identify for the presentation of each year s theme those behavioral researchers who could best identify the state of the art In 1969 the conference faculty were Nathan Azrin Ogden Lindsley Gerald Paterson Todd Risley and Richard Stuart The conference topics for the first 19 years were as follows

Ideal Mental Health Services 1969 I Proceedings of the First International Symposium on Explosive Detection Technology, November 13-15, 1991 ,1992
