Introduction to Forensic and Investigative Accounting

CONCLUSIONS

100

When Augustus addressed a broad assembly of senators, representing both Italian and Roman provinces, he reminded the audience of their mutual commitment that they all, the Senate, citizens, and provinces, should work together to strengthen the Roman Republic through the Senate and magistracies, uphold the established laws, and contribute to the glory of the Roman Empire. He also reminded them of the importance of the Senate and the Roman Republic in the eyes of the gods.

Abstract

Financial reports of business companies and performance were created by companies in the United States, Canada, and Europe for a long time before good information had been established. The current concern of providing better information to financial reporting companies with better informed and improved accounting is particularly acute. Many companies have shifted to better financial reporting, but many more still do not. The global effort to improve the quality of financial reporting is ongoing, and it is a challenge to the business community.
