

In Genesis 37, we learn about Joseph and his brothers. The Bible tells us Joseph's brothers hated him. Jacob loved Joseph the most and gave him a special coat. They sold Joseph and in Genesis 45, Joseph tells them who he is. How did Joseph act? What did he say to his brothers? How did they feel about Joseph?

Peter asked Jesus how often he had to forgive others.
Was 7 times enough?
Jesus said to forgive others 70 x 71
What does that mean?

Thinking about Joseph, remember a time that someone treated you wrong. How did you react? Did you forgive them?

Forgiveness

is when someone hurts you and you truly let go of the hurt and anger.

You forgive and forget and don't hold a grudge against the person.

Jesus and the Thoughts of Many Hearts Collin Bullard, 2015-02-26 In the Gospel of Luke the aged Simeon foresees the future opposition which Jesus will face 2:34-35 and concludes his ominous oracle with a vivid description of the final outcome of Jesus' ministry so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed 2:35 Bullard presents an investigation of the narrative and Christological significance of this revelation of thoughts in the ministry of Jesus especially as this revelation is demonstrated and fulfilled in Jesus' ability to know the thoughts in the hearts of those whom he encounters throughout the Gospel Bullard first explores a number of potential literary parallels to Jesus' knowledge of thoughts in Greco-Roman and Jewish sources He then undertakes a narrative and redaction critical study which spans the Gospel in order to provide a full description of the revelation of thoughts in Jesus' ministry What Jesus knows and how he knows it are fundamental features of his identity governing how he relates to others in the narrative Yet the issue of whether or how Jesus' knowledge of thoughts fits into Luke's overall Christological portrait has been given only superficial attention Bullard offers an account of the Christological significance of Jesus' knowledge that makes sense of both its internal narrative development and external literary parallels
