

Dear College Signing Day Site Coordinators:

On behalf of the Tennessee Higher Education Commission (THEC), thank you for hosting a Tennessee College Signing Day event during the month of May at your school or organization. We hope the event will help bolster your efforts to expand the college-going culture of your school.

The purpose of College Signing Day is to build statewide excitement around going to college. For many years, College Signing Day was often associated with students signing athletic scholarships, but every student should have the opportunity to publicly celebrate their postsecondary plans. The event can also be an inspiring opportunity for younger students. By applauding seniors who are transitioning to higher education, younger students begin to form their own educational aspirations and plans. Additionally, schools that partner with local higher education institutions to implement College Signing Day have the opportunity to grow the relationship between local colleges, their school, and their students.

Please contact Mary Laphen, Statewide Services Coordinator for THEC's Office of P-16 Initiatives, at (615) 253-1155 or mary.laphen@tn.gov if you have any questions or concerns about planning and implementing a College Signing Day at your school. We will keep you updated regarding any changes or additional information you may find useful.

Thank you in advance for your willingness to participate in this important college access event. Your participation will encourage Tennessee students and their families to make college a part of their future.

Sincerely,

Going Greek Marianne R. Sanua,2018-02-05 A history of Jewish fraternities and sororities in the early twentieth century United States Going Greek offers an unprecedented look at the relationship between American Jewish students and fraternity life during its heyday in the first half of the twentieth century More than secret social clubs fraternities and sororities profoundly shaped the lives of members long after they left college often dictating choices in marriage as well as business alliances Widely viewed as a key to success membership in these self governing sectarian organizations was desirable but not easily accessible especially to non Protestants and nonwhites In Going Greek Marianne Sanua examines the founding of Jewish fraternities in light of such topics as antisemitism the unique challenges faced by Jewish students on campuses across the United States responses to World War II and questions pertaining to assimilation and or identity reinforcement

An English as an Additional Language (EAL) Programme Caroline Scott, 2019-09-18 You enjoy teaching and like every other teacher you want the best for every learner Recently you have found a steady stream of learners coming to your school with little or no English You aren't really sure how to provide the best possible education for them when they are struggling to understand the English in your already differentiated lessons This book provides you with a programme for use as an induction to English complete with integral assessment It provides guidance on how to bridge the gap between these learners and their peers It is suitable for learners of any language background including those not literate in their home language due to the focus on learning through images It also includes suggestions on how to include parents who are new to English and ideas on family learning You'll find an EAL framework to provide structure to your EAL provision across the school as well as guidance on how to approach class teaching Developed from good practice in schools and informed by research this programme is designed to move learners into English quickly It uses a visual structured approach that works alongside immersion in the mainstream

The Second Letter to the Corinthians Mark A. Seifrid, 2014-10-17 Newest volume in the acclaimed Pillar New Testament Commentary series The question that Paul set before the ancient church in Corinth Do you not recognize that Jesus Christ is in and among you 2 Cor 13:5 remains a critical question for the church today This commentary by Mark Seifrid seeks to hear Paul's message afresh and communicate it to our time Seifrid offers a unified reading of 2 Corinthians which has often been regarded as a composite of excerpts and fragments He argues that Paul's message is directed at the practical atheism of the Corinthian church the hidden heresy that assumes God's saving work in the world may be measured by outward standards of success and achievement Like all of the Pillar volumes Seifrid's commentary on 2 Corinthians offers careful grammatical analysis and exegesis with clear pastoral application
