The Manuscript Tradition of Propertius James L. Butrica, 1984-12-15 The elegist Sextus Propertius ca 50 ca 16 BC is generally reckoned among the most difficult of Latin authors At the root of this difficulty lies a deeply corrupt text and uncertainty over the manuscript transmission moreover the manuscripts used in the standard editions of today have been selected without a comprehensive examination of the surviving copies This study the fullest survey of the manuscripts so far considers the affiliation of more than 140 complete or partial witnesses and offers a thorough reassessment of the tradition The principal novelty is the argument that six Renaissance copies represent an independent third witness to the archetype revealing passages where corruptions glosses or medieval corrections are now accepted as the words of Propertius and suggesting that the archetype was far more corrupt than now commonly supposed The study is in two parts In Part One after a survey of Propertius fortuna in the Middle Ages the author considers the affiliation and history of the known manuscripts and editions to 1502 then offers a text and revised apparatus of four elegies In Part Two he presents detailed descriptions of 143 manuscripts most of them from personal inspection A New Latin Dictionary Charlton Thomas Lewis, Charles Short, 1907 Harpers' Latin Dictionary Charlton Thomas Lewis, 1879 Key to Easy Passages for Translation Into Latin J.
