Franz Marc Blue Horse:

Franz Marc, Horses Franz Marc, Christian von Holst, Karin von Maur, 2000 Like no other artist Franz Marc pursued the representation of the horse a central topic in the fine arts as his life's work As a painter and co-founder of the Blaue Reiter he created symbolic visionary images which today stand among the icons of modernism This publication presents an overview of Marc's paintings drawings gouaches and a number of famous postcards from his nature studies of 1905 and 1906 to the sketches he made on the eve of World War I During this short period of time the horse motif became increasingly central especially after Marc moved from Munich to the secluded upper Bavarian village of Sindelsdorf With a skill for precise observation and intuitive understanding Marc attempted an animalization of art in which the horse became both subject and expression of the hope for better and more organic existence *Blue Horse I, Franz Marc. The Fate of the Animals Morgan Meis, 2022-09-15 In 1913 Franz Marc one of the key figures of German Expressionism created a masterpiece The Fate of the Animals With its violent slashes of color and line the painting seemed to pre figure both the outbreak of World War I and more eerily Marc's own death in an artillery barrage at the Battle of Verdun three years later With his signature blend of wide ranging erudition and lively accessible prose Morgan Meis explores Marc's painting in depth guided in part by a series of letters Marc wrote to his wife Maria while he was a soldier in the war In those letters Marc explores the nature of art the fate of European civilization and the inner spiritual nature of all life Along the way Meis brings in other artists such as D H Lawrence Edgar Degas and Paul Klee to flesh out his argument The Fate of the Animals also explores the darker undercurrents of German apocalyptic thinking in Marc's time especially Norse mythology and the ancient Vedic texts as they influenced Schopenhauer Nietzsche and Heidegger The Fate of the Animals is the second volume of Meis's Three Paintings Trilogy the first volume of which The Drunken Silenus examined a painting by Rubens The third volume forthcoming will consider a painting by Joan Mitchell      Fugitive Poses Gerald Robert Vizenor, 2000-01-01 Native sovereignty Gerald Vizenor contends is not possessed but expressed It emerges not from practicing vengeful and exclusionary policies and politics or by simple recourse to territoriality but by turning to Native transmotion the forces and processes of creativity and imagination lying at the heart of Native world views and actions Overturning long held scholarly and popular assumptions Vizenor offers a vigorous examination of tragic cultures and victimry      After The Scream Prelinger Elizabeth, Elizabeth Prelinger, Edvard Munch, High Museum of Art, 2001-01-01 This compelling book focusing on more than 60 of Edvard Munch's later paintings reveals the surprising vibrant work of a fascinating man who never ceased to grow as an artist 140 illustrations 130 in full color      Belgian Museums of the Great War Karen Shelby, 2017-09-20 Belgian Museums of the Great War Politics Memory and Commerce examines the handling of the centennial of World War I by several museums along the Western Front in Flanders Belgium In the twenty first century the museum has become a strategic space for negotiating ownership of and access to knowledge produced in local settings The specific focus on museums and commemorative events in Flanders allows for an in depth evaluation of how each museum works with the remembrance and tourist industry in the region while carving a unique niche Belgian Museums of the Great War writes the history of these institutions analyzes the changes made in advance of the anniversary years and considers the site specificity of each institution and its architectural frame Since museums not only transmit information but also shape knowledge as Eileen Hooper Greenhill has noted the diverse narratives and community programs sponsored by each museum have served to challenge prior historiographies of the war Through newly revamped interactive environments self guided learning and an emphasis on the landscape the museums in Flanders have a significant role to play in the ever changing dialogue on the meaning of the history and remembrance of the Great War
