With these considerations in mind, and following the 2004 American Idol season, we proposed to our participants whether to log viewing times and comments. We gave our participants a choice between two options: (a) log viewing times and comments, and (b) not log viewing times and comments. Participants who chose option (a) were asked to log their viewing times and comments, while participants who chose option (b) were asked not to log their viewing times and comments.
