Highest Ranking Impact Factor Journals:

Journals of the Century Tony Stankus, 2019-12-06 This book first published in 2002 gathers some of America's top subject expert librarians to determine the most influential journals in their respective fields 32 contributing authors reviewed journals from over twenty countries that have successfully shaped the evolution of their individual specialties worldwide Their choices reflect the history of each discipline or profession taking into account rivalries between universities professional societies for profit and not for profit publishers and even nation states and international ideologies in each journal's quest for reputational dominance Each journal was judged using criteria such as longevity of publication foresight in carving out its niche ability to attract none are in the employ of any publisher but each is fully credentialed and well published and many are award winners The authors guide college and professional school librarians on limited budgets via an exposition of their analytical and critical winnowing process in determining the classic resources for their faculty students and working professional clientele

Multidimensional Journal Evaluation Stefanie Haustein, 2012-04-26 Scientific communication depends primarily on publishing in journals The most important indicator to determine the influence of a journal is the Impact Factor Since this factor only measures the average number of citations per article in a certain time window it can be argued that it does not reflect the actual value of a periodical This book defines five dimensions which build a framework for a multidimensional method of journal evaluation The author is winner of the Eugene Garfield Doctoral Dissertation Scholarship 2011
