The Expert versus the Object Ronald D. Spencer, 2004-04-01 The authenticity of visual art has always commanded the attention of experts dealers collectors and the art minded public Is it real or original is a way of asking what am I buying What do I own What am I looking at And today more sophisticated questions are being asked How is authenticity determined and what weight does this determination have in court This book of essays proposes to answer those questions Three lines of inquiry are basic to determining authenticity a connoisseur s evaluation historical documentation or provenance and scientific testing A connoisseur is an expert who evaluates the rightness of a work based on much careful scrutiny of many works by an artist and familiarity with that artist s usual manner of working with materials In determining provenance a researcher traces the physical object from the artist through a chain of ownership to the present owner simple enough in concept though it assumes that the documentation is not faked or inaccurate The goal is to ensure that the object is the same one that left the artist s hand Scientific testing although sometimes useful is often longer on promise than result Dating paint or wood samples for instance can show that a painting was made in Rembrandt s lifetime but it cannot prove that it is by Rembrandt s hand If expert opinion is divided and large sums of money are involved a dispute over authenticity may end up in a court of law where evaluation of expert opinion evidence can be problematic The essays in this book clarify the nature of the methods outlined above and explain based on case law the present status of authentication issues in court Contributors include experts from Christie s London Sotheby s New York and the former director of the Frick Collection as well as leading art historians and art dealers an art conservator a forensic graphologist a philanthropist and collector and a specialist in French art law Their collective knowledge on issues of authenticity will be invaluable for anyone interested in the world of visual art

How to Paint Like Leonardo Da Vinci Bob Henry, 2014-05-10 Who wouldn't want to paint like one of the greatest painters that ever lived? Not only was Leonardo da Vinci one of the greatest painters, but he was an inventor, engineer, musician, scientist, writer, designer, and draftsman. I will show you how I have emulated and learned from the old masters so that I could paint like them and how you could too. I accomplished this the same way a young apprentice in a medieval guild would have started out: by copying their works. From copying their paintings, you can learn the styles and techniques from virtually any painter. By copying brushstroke for brushstroke, you'll be practicing your general painting skills while following a design and composition that works. You'll learn what makes a great painting great. By the end of your apprenticeship, you could say you were taught by a genius.

Contents: Introduction, Chapter 1: Who Was Leonardo da Vinci? Making waves in the art world early on. Multi-talented artist seeking employment for important people. Important artworks. Chapter 2: How To Paint Like a Master. Three stages to artistic mastery. Step-by-step process of painting and becoming a master. The secret to confident painting. How you can paint with modern materials. Chapter 3: How Leonardo Painted. Medieval and Renaissance art. Frescoes, tempera, and the new oil paint medium. Chapter 4: Begin Your Apprenticeship. Copy these paintings by Leonardo: Lady With an Ermine, The Mona Lisa. Chapter 5: Advanced Apprenticeship or Journeyman. Finish these unfinished Leonardo paintings: Saint Jerome, Adoration of the Magi. Chapter 6: Leonardo Paintings to Copy or Emulate. Bonus Chapter: Texture Painting and Color Mixing Guide. How to paint textures like fur, etc. Mix These Colors to Paint this.

Vinet, 2017-07-12 The discovery of this masterpiece, Whistler's Portrait of William Merritt Chase, along with another important Whistler painting, Harmony in Black No. 10, reveals exciting new discoveries on Whistler's artistic methods from the Old Masters and the artistic truisms of the Renaissance. Documented analysis, including x-ray examination, forensics, and recognized paintings by Whistler's followers will confirm this portrait and Harmony in Black No. 10, with x-ray revealing two lost paintings. These Whistler paintings connect scholarship and identify paintings worthy of merit and what makes a masterpiece a masterpiece.

Fragments of an Autobiography Felix Moscheles, 2022-09-16 In Fragments of an Autobiography, Felix Moscheles weaves a rich tapestry of his life experiences, blending anecdotal brilliance with introspective musings. The narrative unfolds in a fragmented yet cohesive manner, echoing the modernist literary style that was gaining momentum during Moscheles's time. Through vivid descriptions and poignant reflections the book offers insights into the artist's struggles and triumphs as well as his encounters with prominent cultural figures of the 19th century. The work serves as both a memoir and a cultural commentary positioning Moscheles's personal journey within the broader context of artistic and social movements of his era. Felix Moscheles, a noted painter and an influential figure in the artistic community, was born to a lineage steeped in creativity. His extensive travels and diverse interactions from fellow artists to philosophers deeply influenced his worldview, shaping the themes of identity, legacy, and the passage of time that permeate this autobiography. Moscheles's keen observations were informed by his experiences in the vibrant artistic circles of Europe, providing a unique lens through which he navigated his own personal narrative. This book is a must-read for anyone interested in the intersections of art, identity, and history. Moscheles's eloquent prose draws readers into a reflective exploration of the human experience, making Fragments of an Autobiography not only an essential text for those studying art history but also a profound meditation on life itself.

Christiana Herringham and the Edwardian Art Scene Mary Lago, 1996

Lady Herringham arrived on the Edwardian art scene with a translation of Il Libro dell'Arte o Trattato della Pittura, Cennini's fifteenth-century handbook on fresco and tempera. It aroused new interest in those techniques and led to the founding of the Society of Painters in Tempera in 1901. To preserve Britain's art heritage from buyers abroad, she provided the money that launched the National Art Collections Fund in 1903, creating what is still a vital and authoritative voice in Britain's cultural life. Her work as the only woman on the NACF's first executive committee prepared her to assist in founding the India Society, which urged respect for indigenous Indian traditions of the fine arts and encouraged appreciation for them in England.
