A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents United States. President, 1897 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the President, 1789-1908 United States. President, James Daniel Richardson, 1909 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1902 United States. President, 1903 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1897 United States. President, 1897 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1907 United States. President, James Daniel Richardson, 1897 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1905 United States. President, James Daniel Richardson, 1897 "A" Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents 1789-1897 James Daniel Richardson, 1897 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1922: 1881-1889 United States. President, 1897 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1897: 1861-1869 United States. President, 1900 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1922 United States. President, 1917 A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents: Encyclopedic index, A-L United States. President, 1922 Messages of Murder Ronald Headland, 1992 Included among these are descriptions of the main features of the reports and the various stages in their compilation examples and methodology of presentation of the killings and comparisons of reporting procedures and totals of victims shot by each of the four Einsatzgruppen The study begins by noting the post war discovery of the reports and then assumes a roughly chronological sequence in its overall treatment An outline of the major National Socialist agencies and general reporting practices before the war is followed by the events of the war as reflected in the reports Then the postwar life of the reports is examined with particular reference to their use as legal evidence at Nuremberg as well as a consideration of their reliability as historical source material A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents (Complete) James Daniel Richardson, United States Presidents, 1916-01-01 The messages of the several Presidents of the United States annual veto and special are among the most interesting instructive and valuable contributions to the public literature of our Republic They discuss from the loftiest standpoint nearly all the great questions of national policy and many subjects of minor interest which have engaged the attention of the people from the beginning of our history and so constitute important and often vital links in their progressive development The proclamations also contain matter and sentiment no less elevating interesting and important They inspire to the highest and most exalted degree the patriotic fervor and love of country in the hearts of the people It is believed that legislators and other public men students of our national history and many others will hail with satisfaction the compilation and publication of these messages and proclamations in such compact form as will render them easily accessible and of ready reference The work can not fail to be exceedingly convenient and useful to all who have occasion to consult these documents The Government has never heretofore authorized a like publication In executing the commission with which I have been charged I have sought to bring together in the several volumes of the series all Presidential proclamations addresses messages and communications to Congress excepting those nominating persons to office and those which simply transmit treaties and reports of heads of Departments which contain no recommendation from the Executive The utmost effort has been made to render the compilation accurate and exhaustive Although not required by the terms of the resolution authorizing the compilation it has been deemed wise and wholly consistent with its purpose to incorporate in the first volume authentic copies of the Declaration of Independence the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution of the United States together with steel engravings of the Capitol the Executive Mansion and of the historical painting the Signing of the Declaration of Independence Steel portraits of the Presidents will be inserted each in its appropriate place The Abridgment ...
