Propaganda and Ideology in the Russian-Ukrainian War Jon Roozenbeek,2024-05-31 Russia s invasion of Ukraine is one of the most important conflicts of the twenty first century With the start of military hostilities in 2014 also came an onslaught of propaganda to both convince and confuse audiences worldwide about the war s historical and ideological underpinnings Based on extensive research drawing on tens of thousands of news articles and hundreds of pages of legal documents and internal correspondence this book offers the first comprehensive analysis of the role of propaganda ideology and identity in the Russian Ukrainian war It argues that despite Russia s efforts to set up a media machine at home and abroad with eight years of propaganda legitimising Russia s presence in eastern Ukraine Russia never managed to vocalise a convincing alternative to Ukrainian nationhood Instead Russian propaganda backfired Ukraine is now more united than ever before

Mobility and Migration Choices Martin van der Velde,Ton van Naerssen,2016-03-03 The crossing of national state borders is one of the most discussed issues of contemporary times and it poses many challenges for individual and collective identities This concerns both short distance mobility as well as long distance migration Choosing to move or not across international borders is a complex decision involving both cognitive and emotional processes This book tests the approach that three crucial thresholds need to be crossed before mobility occurs the individual s mindset about migrating the choice of destination and perception of crossing borders to that location and the specific routes and spatial trajectories available to get there Thus both borders and trajectories can act as thresholds to spatial moves The threshold approach with its focus on processes affecting whether when and where to move aims to understand the decision making process in all its dimensions in the hope that this will lead to a better understanding of the ways migrants conceive perceive and undertake their transnational journeys This book examines the three constitutive parts discerned in the cross border mobility decision making process people borders and trajectories and their interrelationships Illustrated by a global range of case studies it demonstrates that the relation between the three is not fixed but flexible and that decision making contains aspects of belonging instability security and volatility affecting their mobility or immobility

Law and Regulation of Mobile Payment Systems

Joy Malala, 2017-11-28 Over the last ten years mobile payment systems have revolutionised banking in some countries in Africa In Kenya the introduction of M Pesa a new financial services model has transformed the banking and financial services industry Giving the unbanked majority access to the financial services market it has attracted over 18 million subscribers which is remarkable given that fewer than 4 million people in Kenya have bank accounts This book addresses the legal and regulatory issues arising out of the introduction of M Pesa in Kenya and its drive towards financial inclusion It considers the interaction between regulation and technological innovation with a particular focus on the regulatory tools institutional arrangements and government decisional processes through the examination as a whole of its regulatory capacity This is done with a view to understanding the regulatory capacity of Kenya in addressing the vulnerabilities presented by technological innovation in the financial industry for consumers after financial inclusion It also examines the way that mobile payments have been regulated by criticising the piecemeal approach that the Central Bank of Kenya has taken in addressing the legal and regulatory issues presented by mobile payments The book argues there are significant gaps in the regulatory regime of mobile banking in Kenya

HC 369 - Devolution: The Next Five Years and Beyond Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Communities and Local Government Committee,2016 The Government has announced a devolution revolution transferring powers and opportunities to local government through a series of devolution deals The Cities and Local Government Devolution Bill gives statutory authority to deals and enables some of the specific reforms the Government wishes to make such as introducing directly elected mayors for combined authorities This inquiry set out to examine the contents of the Bill and in particular whether Greater Manchester s deal is a model for other areas but its scope quickly widened to a review of the way in which devolution in England is proceeding The Committee has identified various aspects of the current approach that it recommends are refined and improved The Committee has found a significant lack of public consultation and engagement at all stages in the devolution process The public should be engaged in the preparation of devolution proposals insofar as possible during the negotiations and once the results of a deal have begun to make an impact and communicated to throughout the process This is particularly the case for health devolution where the systems in place are complex changes are consequently more difficult to understand and the public s response is likely to be more emotional The Committee also believes that the Government s approach to devolution in practice has lacked rigour as to process there are no clear measurable objectives for devolution It suggests various ways in which proper process can be ensured

1916 Kieran Allen,2016-01-20 A few minutes after noon on the 24th April 1916 Patrick Pearse stepped outside the newly occupied GPO on Sackville Street with a copy of the Proclamation of the Irish Republic Reading aloud he declared a strike for Irish freedom against the world s greatest imperial power The Easter Rising as the six days of intense bloody fighting that followed came to be known set the course for the next 100 years of Irish history the Heroes of 16 becoming a national cultural and political touchstone down the generations But today canonised and mummified the radical visions of Pearse and the socialist James Connolly are an awkward encumbrance on an Irish state that has its roots in the counter revolution of the civil war and which has emerged as a haven of economic neoliberalism In this fascinating alternative history of modern Ireland Kieran Allen follows the thread of 1916 s revolutionary tradition an uneasy marriage of Socialism and Republicanism as it has unravelled across the century From the strikes boycotts occupations and land redistribution that accompanied the war of independence to the carnival of reaction that followed all the way up to the current movement against water charges and austerity Allen reveals the complexities ruptures and continuities of a revolutionary tradition that continues to haunt the establishment today

Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar, 2019-12-12. Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other, Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan-Africanism. The three primary regional economic communities (RECs) that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined: these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA), the East African Community (EAC) and the Southern African Development Community (SADC). These RECs include Africa's major economies, Egypt, South Africa and Kenya, but are also home to Africa's most conflict-prone and volatile states: the Democratic Republic of the Congo, DRC, Burundi, South Sudan, Somalia and Lesotho. Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs, this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan-Africanism.

Libya in the Arab Spring Ramazan Erdağ, 2017-03-22. By examining Libya's security architecture before and after the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) intervention in 2011, this book aims to answer three questions: First, what were the security patterns in Libya within the Middle East security complex before the Arab Spring? Second, to what extent did the Arab Spring and the revolution and intervention processes in Libya affect this security architecture? And third, what are the implications of the Libyan revolution and the NATO intervention on regional security and on the security sub-complexes of the Middle East in the post-Arab Spring era? The author addresses these issues by providing a micro-level analysis of amity-enmity patterns, power distribution and external power interests.

Ice and Snow in the Cold War Julia Herzberg, Christian Kehrt, Franziska Torma, 2018-10-19. The history of the Cold War has focused overwhelmingly on statecraft and military power, an approach that has naturally placed Moscow and Washington center stage. Meanwhile, regions such as Alaska, the polar landscapes and the cold areas of the Soviet periphery have received little attention. However, such environments were of no small importance during the Cold War: in addition to their symbolic significance, they also had direct implications for everything from military strategy to natural resource management. Through histories of these extremely cold environments this volume makes a novel intervention in Cold War historiography one whose global and transnational approach undermines the simple opposition of East and West
