during this period highlighting the transformational and sometimes radical reforms that the country has seen Crucially the book draws together contributions from over 40 esteemed education researchers working in the UK The chapters showcase work from a range of experienced and early career researchers ensuring original thought provoking and evidence informed perspectives as we examine the impact of recent policy and explore how it might develop into the future Key thematic areas covered include Restructuring and governing the system Teaching policy practice and professionalism Confronting the challenges of inclusion and inequality Steering and transforming the curriculum and assessment This timely collection will interest students at all levels researchers education professionals and policymakers It sheds important light on this tumultuous era for education policy and will inform those interested in this area for years to come The Moral Economy of Welfare and Migration Lydia Morris,2021-08-15 Britain's coalition government of 2010-2015 ushered in an enduring age of austerity and a moral mission of welfare reform as part of a drive for deficit reduction Stricter controls were applied to both domestic welfare and international migration and asylum which were presented as two sides of the same coin Policy in both areas has engaged a moral message of earned entitlement and invites a sociological approach that examines such policies in combination alongside their underpinning moral economy Exploring the idea of a moral economy from its original focus on popular rebellion at the rising price of corn to more contemporary analysis of measures that seek to impose moral values from above Lydia Morris examines Britain's reconfigured pattern of rights in the fields of domestic welfare and migration Those in power have claimed that heightened conditions and sanctions for the benefit dependent domestic population both in and out of work will promote labour market change and reduce demand for low skilled migrant workers often EU citizens whose own access to benefits was curtailed prior to Brexit Morris traces related political discourse through to the design and implementation of concrete policy measures and maps the diminished access to rights that has emerged paying particular attention to the boundaries drawn in defining target groups and the resistance this has provoked The Moral Economy of Welfare and Migration considers the topology of the whole system to highlight cross cutting devices of control that have far reaching implications for how we are governed as a total population Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1924

Research Tracks in Urbanism: Dynamics, Planning and Design in Contemporary Urban Territories Alessia Allegri,Angélica Benatti Alvim,Eunice Helena Abascal,Joaquin Sabaté,João Pedro Costa,Maria Cristina Schicchi,2021-09-13 Maybe the Global Village metaphor has never been more accurate than it is today where societies join forces in the fight against the COVID 19 pandemic in a global coordinated effort possibly never tested before in the known history of Humankind Although we are sure that in the past some other shared demands have united the different peoples of the world this has never been so strongly necessary mainly in what the global scientific community is concerned This is a fight for the survival of a society However we should not lose sight of what we are fighting for We fight together for people Not just for the abstract value of Human life but for life in society as a whole including its moral and ethical aspects The topics of this book are based on this claim on what makes it possible We do not build our lives in a vacuum or in distant Invisible Cities but through a higher value which represents physical life in society the City built by the discipline of Urbanism This book is a spin off of the International Research Seminar on Urbanism_SIIU2020 Inspired by the contents of twelve research seminars a group of researchers from the universities of Barcelona Lisbon and S o Paulo discuss the contemporary agenda of research in Urbanism Following the conference a selection of 35 original double blind peer reviewed research papers were brought together with different perspectives about such an agenda

Labour Control and Union Agency in Global Production Networks Tatiana López,2023-03-15 This book puts Indian garment workers and their organisations at the centre of the analysis Taking the Bangalore export garment cluster as a case study the book explores the conditions that enable but also constrain the capacities of garment workers unions to build collective power vis vis employers and thereby improve their conditions Drawing on theoretical concepts from labour geography relational economic geography and Global Production Network GPN analysis the book highlights on the one hand how the complex labour control regime in the Bangalore export garment cluster poses manifold challenges and constraints for workers and unions collective agency On the other hand the book illustrates the various networked agency strategies that local garment unions in Bangalore have developed over the years to overcome these constraints by tapping into coalitional power resources from worker consumer and labour rights organisations in the Global North This book is therefore highly relevant for economic geographers and other scholars interested in dynamics of labour and development in GPNs as well as for unionists and labour rights activists committed to improving working conditions in the global garment industry This is an open access book

Food Television and Otherness in the Age of Globalization Casey Ryan Kelly,2017-02-09 Food Television and Otherness in the Age of Globalization examines the growing popularity of food and travel television and its implications for how we understand the relationship between food place and identity Attending to programs such as Bizarre Foods Bizarre Foods America The Pioneer Woman Dinners Drive Ins and Dives Man vs Food and No Reservations Casey Ryan Kelly critically examines the emerging rhetoric of culinary television attending to how American audiences are invited to understand the cultural and economic significance of global foodways This book shows how food television exoticizes foreign cultures erases global poverty and contributes to myths of American exceptionalism It takes television seriously as a site for the reproduction of cultural and economic mythology where representations of food and consumption become the commonsense of cultural difference and economic success
