Dead Tree Media Michael Stamm, 2018-10-16 A deep and timely account of how American newspapers were produced and distributed on paper Winner of the Best Book in Canadian Business History by the Canadian Business History Association Popular assessments of printed newspapers have become so grim that some have taken to calling them dead tree media as a way of invoking the medium s imminent demise There is a literal truth hidden in this dismissive expression printed newspapers really are material goods made from trees And throughout the twentieth century the overwhelming majority of trees cut down in the service of printing newspapers in the United States came from Canada In Dead Tree Media Michael Stamm reveals the international history of the commodity chains connecting Canadian trees and US readers Drawing on newly available corporate documents and research in archives across North America Stamm offers a sophisticated rethinking of the material history of the printed newspaper Tracing its industrial production from the forest to the newsstand he provides an account of the obscure and often hidden labor involved in this manufacturing process by showing how it was driven by not only publishers and journalists but also lumberjacks paper mill workers policymakers chemists and urban and regional planners Stamm describes the 1911 shift in tariff policy that gave US publishers duty free access to Canadian newsprint providing a tremendous boost to Canadian paper manufacturers and a significant subsidy to American newspaper publishers He also explains how Canada attracted massive American foreign investment in paper mills around the same time that US publishers were able to gain greater access to Canada s vast spruce forests Focusing particularly on the Chicago Tribune Stamm provides a new history of the rise and fall of both the mass

circulation printed newspaper and the particular kind of corporation in the newspaper business that had shaped many aspects of the cultural political and even physical landscape of North America For those seeking to understand the travails of the contemporary newspaper business Dead Tree Media is essential reading Practical Handbook Business in Africa Thomas Schmidt,Kay Pfaffenberger,Stefan Liebing,2023-11-16 Africa is a continent on the upswing developing great economic momentum If German companies want to participate in Africa s upswing they need to be familiar with some special features This book shows the way to successful business in Africa It is a practical yet scientifically based guide for all entrepreneurs and economically interested parties who want to be successful in Africa It combines the experience of many companies with the scientific perspective and findings of the Centre for Business and Technology in Africa at Flensburg University of Applied Sciences In the 2nd edition new developments on the African continent are taken up and current answers are given to the classical questions which each actor must answer for itself which wants to be economically successful in Africa WHY Africa is interesting for the business WHERE the largest chances of success exist HOW to proceed and WHICH approaches for the future organization of the economic relations between Germany and Africa are promising The book describes how to invest in Africa and bundles the current experiences of managers of large corporations and family businesses with a long history on the continent Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern Jacqueline Taylor,2023-11-28 The extraordinary life and work of architect Amaza Lee Meredith and the role modernism and material culture played in the aspiring Black American middle class of the early twentieth century Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern tells the captivating story of Amaza Lee Meredith a Black woman architect artist and educator born into the Jim Crow South whose bold choices in both life and architecture expand our understanding of the Great Migration and the Harlem Renaissance while revealing the importance of architecture as a force in Black middle class identity Through her charismatic protagonist Jacqueline Taylor derives new insights into the experiences of Black women at the forefront of culture in early twentieth century America caught between expectation and ambition responsibility and desire Central to Taylor s argument is that Meredith s response to modern architecture and art like those of other Black cultural producers was not marginal to the modernist project instead her work reveals the tensions and inconsistencies in how American modernism has been defined In this way the book shines a necessary light on modernism s complexity while overturning perceived notions of race and gender in relation to the modernist project and challenging the notion of the white male hero of modern architecture America's Moment: Creating Opportunity in the Connected Age Rework America,2015-06-15 It is time for a new conversation Amid the biggest economic transformation in a century the challenge of our time is to make sure that all Americans benefit from the wave of digital revolutions around the world that have permeated and upended modern life Yet today s economic arguments seem stuck We need a new vision of a hopeful future and a new action agenda So many Americans are uncertain about the future How can there be so many paths to opportunity with so few people traveling them As a nation we have to understand what is required to help Americans succeed now and how to prepare our country for what comes next We have been here before A hundred years ago America experienced the greatest economic transformation and technological revolution in its history The transformation of the past twenty years as the world has moved through the information era into the digital age has turned our life and work upside down once again It is a time of tremendous change but also of tremendous possibility Rework America is a group of American leaders who know from experience the challenges we face and the potential solutions In America's Moment they suggest a practical agenda for an exciting future It is illustrated by people who are already showing the way and includes actions Americans can take today in their own communities preparing people to succeed using the reach of the Internet and data to innovate jobs and to reach new markets all over the world using technology to match employers and workers and transitioning to a no collar working world neither blue collar nor white collar Set against the history of how Americans succeeded once before in remaking their country America's Moment is about the future It describes how the same forces of change technology and a networked world can become tools that can open opportunity to everyone

The Routledge Companion to Bourdieu's 'Distinction'

Philippe Coulangeon, Julien Duval, 2014-10-30 This edited collection explores the genesis of Bourdieu's classical book Distinction and its international career in contemporary Social Sciences It includes contributions from contemporary sociologists from diverse countries who question the theoretical legacy of this book in various fields and national contexts Invited authors review and exemplify current controversies concerning the theses promoted in Distinction in the sociology of culture lifestyles social classes and stratification with a specific attention dedicated to the emerging forms of cultural capital and the logics of distinction that occur in relation to material consumption or bodily practices They also empirically illustrate the theoretical contribution of Distinction in relation with such notions as field or habitus which fruitfulness is emphasized in relation with some methodological innovations of the book In this respect a special focus is put on the emerging stream of distinction studies and on the opportunities offered by the geometrical data analysis of social spaces

The Marketisation of Higher Education John D. Branch, Bryan Christiansen, 2021-05-03 This edited volume explores the nature scope and consequences of the marketisation of higher education Chapters identify different practices which reflect the marketisation of higher education and offer various perspectives on the policies and procedures which stimulate and regulate it The volume takes a holistic approach following the notion that the marketisation of higher education both drives and is driven by the universities which form the higher education market

State against Civil Society Cameron Ross, 2017-10-02 Over the period December 2011 July 2013 a tidal wave of mass protests swept through the Russian capital and engulfed scores of cities and regions These demonstrations came as a great shock to the Russian political establishment After decades of passive acceptance of the status quo it appeared that civil society was at last awakening The protests came in the wake of the Arab Spring revolts which toppled authoritarian dictators in Tunisia Egypt and Libya However by the end of 2013 the number of mass protests in Russia and their size had declined precipitously President Putin on returning to office in 2012 had quickly regained the upper hand over the protestors This book examines the reasons for the rise and fall of the mass protests in the Russian Federation Internationally renowned experts in the field of Russian politics from Russia and the UK provide important new insights into the nature of the mass opposition movement the non systemic opposition its strengths and its weaknesses A key novel aspect of the study is its focus on the national and regional dimensions of the protest movement and its class and ethnic dimensions This book was published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies Empire's Labor Adam D. Moore, 2019-11-15 In a dramatic unveiling of the little known world of contracted military logistics Adam Moore examines the lives of the global army of laborers who support US overseas wars Empire's Labor brings us the experience of the hundreds of thousands of men and women who perform jobs such as truck drivers and administrative assistants at bases located in warzones in the Middle East and Africa He highlights the changes the US military has undergone since the Vietnam War when the ratio of contractors to uniformed personnel was roughly 1 6 In Afghanistan it has been as high as 4 1 This growth in logistics contracting represents a fundamental change in how the US fights wars with the military now dependent on a huge pool of contractors recruited from around the world It also Moore demonstrates has social economic and political implications that extend well beyond the battlefields Focusing on workers from the Philippines and Bosnia two major sources of third country national TCN military labor Moore explains the rise of large scale logistics outsourcing since the end of the Cold War describes the networks infrastructures and practices that span the spaces through which people information and goods circulate and reveals the experiences of foreign workers from the hidden dynamics of labor activism on bases to the economic and social impacts these jobs have on their families and the communities they hail from Through his extensive fieldwork and interviews Moore gives voice to the agency and aspirations of the many thousands of foreigners who labor for the US military Thanks to generous funding from UCLA and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories Brexit and After Kumiko Haba, Martin Holland, 2020-12-12 This book makes a new departure from others on the subject Not only does it analyze Brexit from the domestic point of view in the UK democracy social analysis and construction of new institutionalization with the EU it extends the analysis externally and reconsiders the EU and UK relationship with Asia and the implications for international relations and a new world order From this foundation this book presents a broad and diverse spectrum of views concerning Brexit and the EU For these reasons it serves as an original and excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate students as well as for researchers of the EU and international relations Contributions to this volume are from the European Union Studies Association EUSA Asia Pacific Tokyo Conference and affiliated conferences at the following universities between 2017 19 Aoyama Gakuin University Tokyo Taiwan National University Taipei and Fudan University Shanghai Almost all of the authors have engaged in interdisciplinary research on the EU are members of the EUSA Asia Pacific and have made public presentations on Brexit and how it relates to the EU Asia international relations economics and institutions Therefore this book presents various aspects of Brexit and its aftermath from the perspectives of the disciplines of political science economics and international relations in its analysis of the UK the EU Asia and the future world order The EUSA Presidents and executive committee members participated in the Asia Pacific Conference postgraduate student workshops were organized and their presentations moderated thereby guaranteeing both the quality of the contributions to this book as well as encouraging young talented scholars to write about Brexit and the EU While many books on Brexit have been published this book offers many new and perspectives that provide suggestions for possible solutions to the problems facing the UK and the EU after Brexit Rival Visions Dustin Gish, Andrew Bibby, 2021-02-05 The emergence of the early American republic as a new nation on the world stage conjured rival visions in the eyes of leading statesmen at home and attentive observers abroad Thomas Jefferson envisioned the newly independent states as a federation of republics united by common experience mutual interest and an adherence to principles of natural rights His views on popular government and the American experiment in republicanism and later the expansion of its empire of liberty offered an influential account of the new nation While persuasive in crucial respects his vision of early America did not stand alone as an unrivaled model The contributors to Rival Visions examine how Jefferson's contemporaries including Washington Adams Hamilton Madison and Marshall articulated their visions for the early American republic Even beyond America in this age of successive revolutions and crises foreign statesmen began to formulate their own accounts of the new nation its character and its future prospects This volume reveals how these vigorous debates and competing rival visions defined the early American republic in the formative epoch after the revolution

Muslim Fashion Reina Lewis, 2015-10-15 In the shops of London's Oxford Street girls wear patterned scarves over their hair as they cluster around makeup counters Alongside them hip twenty somethings style their head wraps in high black topknots to match their black boot cut trousers Participating in the world of popular mainstream fashion often thought to be the domain of the West these young Muslim women are part of an emergent cross faith transnational youth subculture of modest fashion In treating hijab and other forms of modest clothing as fashion Reina Lewis counters the overuse of images of veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity A Global Idea Mayssoun Sukarieh, 2023-08-15 A Global Idea outlines how youth as shown by the Arab Spring uprisings and subsequent state responses became a prominent social and political category during the first two decades of the twenty first century in the Middle East Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interview data and textual analysis Mayssoun

Sukarieh explains that the spread of youth as an important category is linked to the operation of a global youth development complex a diverse transnational network of state private sector civil society and international development aid organizations that worked through key urban areas such as Washington DC Amman and Dubai In its analysis of the arrival extension and embedding of the youth development complex in the Middle East during this period A Global Idea addresses a broader question that is of global and not just regional concern How are certain ideas that are central to the working and reproduction of global capitalism able to travel the world so that they are found virtually everywhere

Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger, Elisabeth Springler, 2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics

Refugee Resilience and Adaptation in the Middle East Haya Al-Dajani, Maysa Baroud, Nasser Yassin, 2023-05-03 This edited volume investigates how refugee communities in the Middle East have adapted to secure their livelihoods within the informal economy Focusing on Lebanon and Jordan which between 2011 and 2020 received more refugees as a proportion of their population than any other countries in the world this edited volume investigates the informal mechanisms that Syrian refugees have adopted to fit into the informal economies of Lebanon and Jordan in the face of significant challenges and barriers The volume investigates how legality temporality connectedness gender and geography among other factors have influenced the emergence of refugee communities informal adaptive mechanisms Drawing on in depth original research among Syrian refugee tribal communities agricultural workers female headed households and micro entrepreneurs the volume provides tangible policy and practice recommendations to help to improve the situation of refugees and vulnerable populations that are employed in the informal economy Highlighting the resilience and agency demonstrated by refugees this edited volume s original community based analysis will be of interest to students researchers and professionals from across Middle East studies refugee studies informal labor economics and development studies Taken For A Ride Matteo Rizzo,2017-05-19 How does public transport work in an African city under neoliberalism Who owns what in it Who has the power to influence its shape and changes in it over time What does it mean to be a precarious and informal worker in the private minibuses that provide public transport in Dar es Salaam These are the main questions that inform this in depth case study of Dar es Salaam s public transport system over more than forty years The growth of cities and informal economies are two central manifestations of globalization in the developing world Taken for a Ride addresses both drawing on long term fieldwork in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and charting its public transport system s journey from public to private provision This new addition to the Critical Frontiers of Theory Research and Practice in International Development Studies series investigates this shift alongside the increasing deregulation of the sector and the resulting chaotic modality of public transport It reviews state attempts to regain control over public transport and documents how informal wage relations prevailed in the sector The changing political attitude of workers towards employers and the state is investigated from an initial incapacity to respond to exploitation to the political organisation and unionisation which won workers concessions on labour rights A longitudinal study of workers throws light on patterns of occupational mobility in the sector and the political and economic interests that shaped the introduction of Bus Rapid Transit in Dar es Salaam and local resistance to it are analysed Taken for a Ride reveals the political economy of public transport exposing the limitations of market fundamentalist and post colonial scholarship on economic informality the urban experience in developing countries and the failure to locate the agency of the urban poor within their economic and political structures It is both a contribution and a call for the contextualised study of actually existing neoliberalism Automobility and the City in

Twentieth-Century Britain and Japan Simon Gunn,Susan C. Townsend,2019-08-22 Automobility and the City in Twentieth Century Britain and Japan is the first book to consider how mass motorization reshaped cities in Japan and Britain during the 20th century Taking two leading motor cities Nagoya and Birmingham as their principal subjects Simon Gunn and Susan C Townsend show how cars changed the spatial form and individual experience of the modern city and reveal the similarities and differences between Japan and Britain in adapting to the motor age The book has three main themes the place of automobility in post war urban reconstruction the emerging conflict between the promise of mobility and personal freedom offered by the car and its consequences for the urban environment the M E dilemma and the extent to which the Anglo Japanese comparison can throw light on fundamental differences in cultural understanding of the environment urbanism and the self The result is the first comparative history of mass automobility and its environmental consequences between East and West Social Reproduction and the City Simon Black,2020 The transformation of child care after welfare reform in New York City and the struggle against that transformation is a largely untold story In the decade following welfare reform despite increases in child care funding there was little growth in New York s unionized center based child care system and no attempt to make this system more responsive to the needs of working mothers As the city delivered child care services on the cheap relying on non union home child care providers welfare rights organizations community legal clinics child care advocates low income community groups activist mothers and labor unions organized to demand fair solutions to the child care crisis that addressed poor single mothers need for quality affordable child care as well as child care providers need for decent work and pay Social Reproduction and the City tells this story linking welfare reform to feminist research and activism around the crisis of care social reproduction and the neoliberal city At a theoretical level Simon Black s history of this era presents a feminist political economy of the urban welfare regime applying a social reproduction lens to processes of urban neoliberalization and an urban lens to feminist analyses of welfare state restructuring and resistance Feminist political economy and feminist welfare state scholarship have not focused on the urban as a scale of analysis and critical approaches to urban neoliberalism often fail to address questions of social reproduction To address these unexplored areas Black unpacks the urban as a contested site of welfare state restructuring and examines the escalating crisis in social reproduction He lays bare the aftermath of the welfare to work agenda of the Giuliani administration in New York City on child care and the resistance to policies that deepened race class and gender inequities
