Geography PSeptember 2014 Memo:

Children of Migrants in China Kam Wing Chan, Yuan Ren, 2020-11-25 Children are precious in China especially as its population ages rapidly The unprecedented fast urbanization and massive internal migration have profoundly changed almost every aspect of society They have impacted the livelihood of children of migrants most Because of the hukou system and related policies China s internal migrants face major obstacles to assimilate into cities But more than that as this book shows these policies have also torn families apart on a scale unseen heretofore More than 100 million children grow up in unstable families and the great majority have suffered from prolonged separation from their parents in the migratory upheaval This book provides an updated analysis of this mega and painful process unfolding at various geographical scales The chapters revolve around the central notion of family togetherness or the lack thereof The book measures dissects and analyses the impacts of migration on children and recommends policies to address major problems from a variety of disciplinary perspectives employing different methodologies The problems faced by the children of migrants remain enormous and it is a looming huge crisis in the making If unaddressed those problems can damage a whole generation with serious consequences The chapters in this book were first published in Eurasian Geography and Economics Life of Permafrost Pey-Yi Chu, 2021-01-04 By tracing the English word permafrost back to its Russian roots this unique intellectual history uncovers the multiple contested meanings of permafrost as a scientific idea and environmental phenomenon World Economic Outlook, April 2014 International Monetary Fund. Research Dept., 2014-04-08 Global activity has broadly strengthened and is expected to improve further in 2014 15 according to the April 2014 WEO with much of the impetus for growth coming from advanced economies Although downside risks have diminished overall lower than expected inflation poses risks for advanced economies there is increased financial volatility in emerging market economies and increases in the cost of capital will likely dampen investment and weigh on growth Advanced economy policymakers need to avoid a premature withdrawal of monetary accommodation Emerging market economy policymakers must adopt measures to changing fundamentals facilitate external adjustment further monetary policy tightening and carry out structural reforms The report includes a chapter that analyzes the causes of worldwide decreases in real interest rates since the 1980s and concludes that global rates can be expected to rise in the medium term but only moderately Another chapter examines factors behind the fluctuations in emerging market economies growth and concludes that strong growth in China played a key role in buffering the effects of the global financial crisis in these economies Law and Regulation of Mobile Payment Systems Joy Malala, 2017-11-28 Over the last ten years mobile payment systems have revolutionised banking in some countries in Africa In Kenya the introduction of M Pesa a new financial services model has transformed the banking and financial services industry Giving the unbanked majority access to the financial services market it has attracted over 18 million subscribers which is remarkable given that fewer than 4 million people in Kenya have bank accounts This book addresses the legal and regulatory issues arising out of the introduction of M Pesa in Kenya and its drive towards financial inclusion It considers the interaction between regulation and technological innovation with a particular focus on the regulatory tools institutional arrangements and government decisional processes through the examination as a whole of its regulatory capacity This is done with a view to understanding the regulatory capacity of Kenya in addressing the vulnerabilities presented by technological innovation in the financial industry for consumers after financial inclusion It also examines the way that mobile payments have been regulated by criticising the piecemeal approach that the Central Bank of Kenya has taken in addressing the legal and regulatory issues presented by mobile payments The book argues there are significant gaps in the regulatory regime of mobile banking in Kenya The CIA World Factbook 2023-2024 Central Intelligence Agency,2023-06-20 The ultimate comprehensive guide to official country data and statistics from the world s most sophisticated intelligence gathering organization From Afghanistan to Zimbabwe The CIA World Factbook 2023 2024 offers complete and up to date information on the world s nations This comprehensive guide is packed with data on countries politics populations economics and environment for 2023 and looks ahead to 2024 The CIA World Factbook 2023 2024 includes the following for each country Brand new geopolitical maps Population statistics with details on languages religions literacy rates age structure HIV prevalence and much more Up to date data on military expenditures and capabilities Geography information including climate and natural hazards Details on prominent political figures and parties Contact information for diplomatic missions Facts on transportation trade and communication infrastructure Also included are appendices with useful abbreviations international environmental agreements international organizations and groups terror organizations and more Originally intended for use by government officials and policymakers as well as the broader intelligence community this is a must have resource for students travelers journalists and anyone with a desire to know more about their world Origination Andy Pike,2015-06-02 Origination The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale Burberry and Apple brands Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places Closing Sysco Lachlan MacKinnon,2020-02-27 Closing Sysco presents a history of deindustrialization and working class resistance in the Cape Breton steel industry between 1945 and 2001 The Sydney Steel Works is at the heart of this story having existed in tandem with Cape Breton's larger coal operations since the early twentieth century. The book explores the multifaceted nature of deindustrialization: the internal politics of the steelworkers union; the successful efforts to nationalize the mill in 1967; the years in transition under public ownership and the confrontations over health, safety and environmental degradation in the 1990s and 2000s. Closing Sysco moves beyond the moment of closure to trace the cultural, historical and political ramifications of deindustrialization that continue to play out in post-industrial Cape Breton Island. A significant intervention into the international literature on deindustrialization, this study pushes scholarship beyond the bounds of political economy and cultural change to begin tackling issues of bodily health, environment and historical memory in post-industrial places. The experiences of the men and women who were displaced by the decline and closure of Sydney Steel are central to this book. Featuring interviews with former steelworkers, office employees, managers, politicians and community activists, these one-on-one conversations reveal both the human cost of industrial closure and the lingering after-effects of deindustrialization.

Mobility and Migration Choices Martin van der Velde, Ton van Naerssen, 2016-03-03 The crossing of national state borders is one of the most discussed issues of contemporary times and it poses many challenges for individual and collective identities. This concerns both short distance mobility as well as long distance migration. Choosing to move or not across international borders is a complex decision involving both cognitive and emotional processes. This book tests the approach that three crucial thresholds need to be crossed before mobility occurs: the individual's mindset about migrating, the choice of destination and perception of crossing borders to that location and the specific routes and spatial trajectories available to get there. Thus both borders and trajectories can act as thresholds to spatial moves. The threshold approach, with its focus on processes affecting whether, when and where to move, aims to understand the decision-making process in all its dimensions in the hope that this will lead to a better understanding of the ways migrants conceive, perceive and undertake their transnational journeys. This book examines the three constitutive parts discerned in the cross-border mobility decision-making process: people, borders and trajectories and their interrelationships. Illustrated by a global range of case studies, it demonstrates that the relation between the three is not fixed but flexible and that decision-making contains aspects of belonging, instability, security and volatility affecting their mobility or immobility.

Sisters in Arms Julie Wheelwright, 2020-02-20 SHORTLISTED FOR THE BRITISH ARMY BOOK OF THE YEAR 2021 A long overdue assertion on the role of women on the battlefield. This book is going straight on my daughter's bookshelf. Dan Snow, historian, TV presenter and broadcaster. Sisters in Arms shows the many faces of women in combat from the myths of the ancient world to the headline-grabbing conflicts of today, with a scrupulous attention to their different contexts but a common compassion for their struggles and achievements. Boyd Tonkin, journalist and author. Wheelwright not only uncovers neglected female warriors but she brings their temperaments talents fancies and foibles to life Professor Joanna Bourke Birkbeck University of London Sisters in Arms charts the evolution of women in combat from the Scythian warriors who inspired the Amazonian myth to the passing soldiers and sailors of the eighteenth century and on to the re emergence of women as official members of the armed forces in the twentieth century Author Julie Wheelwright traces our fascination with these forgotten heroines using their own words including official documents diaries letters and memoirs to bring their experiences vividly to life She examines their contemporary legacy and the current role of women in the armed forces while calling into question the enduring relationship between masculinity and combat

Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar,2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECS include Africa s major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa s most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism

Famines in European Economic History Declan Curran,Lubomyr Luciuk,Andrew G. Newby,2015-04-24 This volume explores economic social and political dimensions of three catastrophic famines which struck mid nineteenth and early twentieth century Europe the Irish Famine An Gorta M r of 1845 1850 the Finnish Famine Suuret N lk vuodet of the 1860s and the Ukrainian Famine Holodomor of 1932 1933 In addition to providing new insights into these events on international national and regional scales this volume contributes to an increased comparative historiography in historical famine studies The parallel studies presented in this book challenge and enhance established understandings of famine tragedies including famine causation and culpability social and regional famine vulnerabilities core periphery relationships between nations and regions degrees of national autonomy and self sufficiency as well as famine memory and identity Famines in European Economic History advocates that the impact and long term consequences of famine for a nation should be understood in the context of evolving geopolitical relations that extend beyond its borders Furthermore regional structures within a nation can lead to unevenness in both the severity of the immediate famine crisis and the post famine recovery This book will be of interest to those in the fields of economic history European history and economic geography

The President's U.N. Climate Pledge United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, Space, and Technology (2011),2015

1916 Kieran Allen,2016-01-20 A few minutes after noon on the 24th April 1916 Patrick Pearse stepped outside the newly occupied GPO on Sackville Street with a copy of the Proclamation of the Irish Republic Reading aloud he declared a strike for Irish freedom against the world's greatest imperial power The Easter Rising as the six days of intense bloody fighting that followed came to be known set the course for the next 100 years of Irish history the Heroes of 16 becoming a national cultural and political touchstone down the generations But today canonised and mummified the radical visions of Pearse and the socialist James Connolly are an awkward encumbrance on an Irish state that has its roots in the counter revolution of the civil war and which has emerged as a haven of economic neoliberalism In this fascinating alternative history of modern Ireland Kieran Allen follows the thread of 1916's revolutionary tradition an uneasy marriage of Socialism and Republicanism as it has unravelled across the century From the strikes boycotts occupations and land redistribution that accompanied the war of independence to the carnival of reaction that followed all the way up to the current movement against water charges and austerity Allen reveals the complexities ruptures and continuities of a revolutionary tradition that continues to haunt the establishment today

HC 369 - Devolution: The Next Five Years and Beyond Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Communities and Local Government Committee, 2016 The Government has announced a devolution revolution transferring powers and opportunities to local government through a series of devolution deals The Cities and Local Government Devolution Bill gives statutory authority to deals and enables some of the specific reforms the Government wishes to make such as introducing directly elected mayors for combined authorities This inquiry set out to examine the contents of the Bill and in particular whether Greater Manchester's deal is a model for other areas but its scope quickly widened to a review of the way in which devolution in England is proceeding The Committee has identified various aspects of the current approach that it recommends are refined and improved The Committee has found a significant lack of public consultation and engagement at all stages in the devolution process The public should be engaged in the preparation of devolution proposals insofar as possible during the negotiations and once the results of a deal have begun to make an impact and communicated to throughout the process This is particularly the case for health devolution where the systems in place are complex changes are consequently more difficult to understand and the public's response is likely to be more emotional The Committee also believes that the Government's approach to devolution in practice has lacked rigour as to process there are no clear measurable objectives for devolution It suggests various ways in which proper process can be ensured

The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits, 2020-09-08 A revolutionary new argument from eminent Yale Law professor Daniel Markovits attacking the false promise of meritocracy It is an axiom of American life that advantage should be earned through ability and effort Even as the country divides itself at every turn the meritocratic ideal that social and economic rewards should follow achievement rather than breeding reigns supreme Both Democrats and Republicans insistently repeat meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we are It sustains the American dream But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that Daniel Markovits prosecutes with rare force Markovits is well placed to expose the sham of meritocracy Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within Markovits also knows that if we understand that meritocratic inequality produces near universal harm we can cure it When The Meritocracy Trap reveals the inner workings of the meritocratic machine it also illuminates the first steps outward towards a new world that might once again afford dignity and prosperity to the American people

Urban Geopolitics Jonathan Rokem, Camillo Boano, 2017-08-21 In the last decade a new wave of urban research has emerged putting comparative perspectives back on the urban studies agenda However this research is frequently based on similar case studies on a few selected cities in America and Europe and all too often focus on the abstract city level with marginal attention given to particular local contexts Moving away from loosely defined urban theories and contexts this book argues it is time to start learning from and compare across different contested cities It questions the long standing Eurocentric academic knowledge production that is prevalent in urban studies and planning research This book brings together a diverse range of international case studies from Latin America South and South East Asia Eastern Europe Africa and the Middle East to offer an in depth understanding of the worldwide contested nature of cities in a wide range of local contexts It suggests an urban ontology that moves beyond the urban West and North as well as adding a comparative relational understanding of the contested nature that Southern cities are developing This timely contribution is essential reading for those working in the fields of human geography urban studies planning politics area studies and sociology

Bordering the Middle East Daniel Meier, 2020-05-21 This volume focuses on the influence that borders in the Middle East can have on actors identity building as well as how local national or transnational actors re define borders and boundaries The Middle East is facing a political crisis revealed by the Arab uprisings that is affecting states borders in a paradoxical way while local communal or tribal dissent tends to contest international borders states are trying to affirm their control over national territory in building border fences Focusing on borders in their materiality as well as their symbolic dimensions their representations may help with reappraising the region's own history the local national specificities as well as regional global constraints affecting borderlands and those who cross borders be they workers migrants or jihadists In this book six case studies will provide insights on state community relationships through the lens of border issues in the Levant and the Gulf The theoretical framework provided by the border studies conceptual tools allows authors to delve into the process of bordering de bordering and re bordering which is affecting the region raising questions on sovereignty authority and the political legitimacy of the regimes This book was originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics Cash Not Care Mo Stewart,2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government Earthquakes and Multi-hazards Around the Pacific Rim, Vol. I Yongxian Zhang,Thomas Goebel,Zhigang Peng,Charles A. Williams,Mark Yoder,John B. Rundle,2017-12-20 This is the first of two volumes devoted to earthquakes and multi hazards around the Pacific Rim The circum Pacific seismic belt is home to roughly 80% of the world s largest earthquakes making it the ideal location for investigating earthquakes and related hazards such as tsunamis and landslides Gathering 16 papers that cover a range of topics related to multi hazards the book is divided into three sections earthquake physics earthquake simulation and data assimilation and multi hazard assessment and earthquake forecasting models The first section includes papers on laboratory derived rheological parameters as well as seismic studies in the Gulf of California and China In turn the second section includes papers on improvements in earthquake simulators as well as the statistical methods used to evaluate their performance automated methods for determining fault slip using near field interferometric data variabilities in earthquake stress drops in California and the use of social media data to supplement physical sensor data when estimating local earthquake intensity The final section includes a paper on probabilistic tsunami hazard assessment several papers on time dependent seismic hazard analysis around the Pacific Rim and a paper on induced and triggered seismicity at the Geysers geothermal field in California Rapid advances are being made in our understanding of multi hazards as well as the range of tools used to investigate them This volume provides a representative cross section of how state of the art knowledge and tools are currently being applied to multi hazards around the Pacific Rim The material here should be of interest to scientists involved in all areas of multi hazards particularly seismic and tsunami hazards In addition it offers a valuable resource for students in the geosciences covering a broad spectrum of topics related to hazard research
