Narrating the Soviet Era in Russian School History Textbooks Olga Konkka, 2025-09-03 This study focuses on how Russian history textbooks published between 1992 and 2021 dealt with the topic of the Soviet period 1917-1991 Representations of this part of Russia's past in school manuals have provoked vivid debates and bolstered government intervention in the field while a gradual shift towards a less critical narrative of the USSR in more recent textbooks is often presented as directed by Vladimir Putin This study combines research into these texts and inquiry into those who write, publish, approve or criticize them Bringing together these perspectives provides a more complex view of school textbooks as final products of both top down and bottom up processes This volume is aimed at postgraduates, researchers and academics specializing in Soviet history, contemporary Russian politics and society and history education and textbooks

Sick Schools David V. Anderson, 2020-01-10 Who's afraid of for-profit education? Those who work in non-profit or government-owned and operated schools. Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment. What's more important to humans: nutrition or education? Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities, including education. What organizations provide food, and who pays for the food? Food is provided by for-profit farmers, for-profit processors, for-profit wholesalers, and for-profit retailers. Most food is purchased with the consumer's own money, but a significant amount is purchased by low-income individuals using food stamps. Why can't education be provided similarly using education stamps? We trust for-profit enterprises to provide our food. Why can't we trust for-profit enterprises to provide K-12 education? Fear-mongers have frightened us and made us into gullible, compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education. Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods, and then contemplate how a for-profit K-12 education sector would please and amaze its customers.
