Unsettled History Leslie Witz,Gary Minkley,Ciraj Rassool,2017-02-27 An engrossing look at how history has been produced contested and unsettled in South Africa from Mandela s release to 2010

Anzac Labour Nathan Wise,2014-09-03 Anzac Labour explores the horror frustration and exhaustion surrounding working life in the Australian Imperial Force during the First World War Based on letters and diaries of Australian soldiers it traces the history of work and workplace cultures through Australia the shores of Gallipoli the fields of France and Belgium and the Near East

A Life in Code G. Stuart Smith,2017-05-12 Protesters called it an act of war when the U S Coast Guard sank a Canadian flagged vessel in the Gulf of Mexico in 1929 It took a cool headed codebreaker solving a trunk full of smugglers encrypted messages to get Uncle Sam out of the mess Elizebeth Smith Friedman s groundbreaking work helped prove the boat was owned by American gangsters This book traces the career of a legendary U S law enforcement agent from her work for the Allies during World War I through Prohibition when she faced danger from mobsters while testifying in high profile trials Friedman founded the cryptanalysis unit that provided evidence against American rum runners and Chinese drug smugglers During World War II her decryptions brought a Japanese spy to justice and her Coast Guard unit solved the Enigma ciphers of German spies Friedman s all source intelligence model is still used by law enforcement and counterterrorism agencies against 21st century threats

Flight Risk Forrest L. Marion,2018-10-15 From the 1920s Afghanistan maintained a small air arm that depended heavily upon outside assistance Starting in 2005 the United States led an air advisory campaign to rebuild the Afghan Air Force AAF In 2007 a formal joint combined entity led by a U S Air Force brigadier general began air advisor work with

Afghan airmen Between 2007 and 2011 these efforts made modest progress in terms of infrastructures personnel and aircraft accessions and various training courses But by 2010 advisors increasingly viewed AAF command and control C2 as a problem area that required significant improvement if a professional air force was to be built In the spring of 2011 major institutional changes to AAF C2 procedures were being introduced when nine U S air advisors were killed The attack was the worst single incident loss of U S Air Force personnel in a deployed location since 1996 and the worst insider attack since 2001 From the day of that tragic event the cultural chasm between Afghanistan and the West became more apparent This dilemma continues with no end in sight to an air advisory mission of uncertain long term value Metropolitan Jews Lila

Corwin Berman,2015-05-06 In this provocative and accessible urban history Lila Corwin Berman considers the role that Detroit s Jews played in the city s well known narrative of migration and decline Taking its cue from social critics and historians who have long looked toward Detroit to understand twentieth century urban transformations Metropolitan Jews tells the story of Jews leaving the city while retaining a deep connection to it Berman argues convincingly that though most Jews moved to the suburbs urban abandonment disinvestment and an embrace of conservatism did not invariably accompany their moves Instead the Jewish postwar migration was marked by an enduring commitment to a newly fashioned urbanism with a vision of self community and society that persisted well beyond city limits Complex and subtle Metropolitan Jews pushes urban scholarship beyond the tenacious black white urban suburban dichotomy It demands a more nuanced understanding of the process and politics of suburbanization and will reframe how we think about the American urban experiment and modern Jewish history Caroline's Dilemma Bettina Bradbury,2020-09-01 Caroline Kearney faced a heartbreaking dilemma Caroline was a thirty one year old mother of six when her husband died in Melbourne Australia in 1865 Having no legal rights herself to the sheep station in Wimmera Victoria that her late husband owned she had great hopes that her sons would inherit it But that was not to be Her husband s will written on his deathbed offered a reasonable annuity to support her and the children but it came with a catch To get that money Caroline had to move to Ireland with her children and live in a house of her brothers in law s choosing English born Caroline had migrated to Australia with her family when she was only seventeen She had never even been to Ireland Her husband and his family unlike her were Catholic This extraordinary book combines storytelling with a historian s detective work Pieced together from evidence in archives newspapers genealogical sites legal records and old fashioned legwork Caroline s Dilemma sheds new light on the workings of colonial gender relationships and family lives that spanned the nineteenth century globe It reveals much about women s property rights migration settler colonialism the Irish diaspora and sectarian conflict It shows how one middle class woman and her family fought to shape their own lives within the British Empire Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane,Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu,2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day Naval History, 2016 The Stories of Jazz Mario Dunkel, 2021-09-22 New Orleans jazz Dixieland Chicago jazz swing bebop cool jazz hard bop and free jazz up until today the history of jazz is told as a tradition consisting of fixed components including a succession of jazz styles How did this construction of music history emerge What were the alternative perspectives And why did the narrative of a fixed tradition catch on In this study Mario Dunkel examines narratives of jazz history from the beginnings of jazz until the late 1950s According to Dunkel the jazz tradition is simultaneously an attempt to approach historical reality and the product of competition between different narratives and cultural myths From the middlebrow culture of the 1920s to the New Deal the African American civil rights movement and the role of the U S in the Cold War Dunkel shows in detail how the jazz tradition as a global narrative of the twentieth century is intertwined with greater social and cultural developments
