

Unit HSC 3048

Support individuals at the end of life

This unit
is worth
7 credits

What are you finding out?

In this unit you will learn about the legal and organisational requirements to protect the rights of individuals at the end of life, as well as the key factors that can affect individuals' end-of-life care. You will also find out more about the purpose and systems for advance care planning and how to provide support both to individuals and the key people involved during end-of-life care.

This unit will also equip you with the knowledge that is required to understand how to address sensitive issues that may arise in relation to end-of-life care. The role of organisations, support services and the wider team in relation to supporting individuals and key people will also be explored in more detail.

Being able to support individuals through the process of dying, knowing the actions to take following the death of individuals, as well as being able to manage your feelings in relation to the dying or death of individuals, are integral aspects of supporting end-of-life care. This chapter will provide you with the opportunity to explore these in more detail.
