Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel M. Mbah, 2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women s career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa Kenya National Bibliography Kenya National Library Service. National Reference & Bibliographic Department, 2012

Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors, Maria Brons, Marc Marschark, 2019-01-16 By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts

The Fabric of Peace in Africa Pamela Aall, Chester A. Crocker, 2017-06-05 Africa has experienced dozens of conflicts over a variety of issues during the past two decades Responding to these conflicts requires concerted action to manage the crises the violence the political discord and the humanitarian consequences of prolonged fighting It is also necessary to address the long term social and economic impacts of conflict to rebuild communities societies and states that have been torn apart To accomplish this requires the involvement of institutions and groups rarely considered in formal official African conflict management activities schools universities religious institutions media commercial enterprises legal institutions civil society groups youth women and migrants These groups and organizations have an important role to play in building a sense of identity fairness shared norms and cohesion between state and society all critical components of the fabric of peace and security in Africa This volume brings together leading experts from Africa Europe and North America to examine these critical social institutions and groups and consider how they can either improve or impede peaceful conflict resolution The overarching questions that are explored by the authors are What constitutes social cohesion and resilience in the face of conflict What are the threats to cohesion and resilience And how can the positive elements be fostered and by whom The second of two volumes on African conflict management capacity by the editors The Fabric of Peace in Africa Looking beyond the State opens new doors of understanding for students scholars and practitioners focused on strengthening peace in Africa the first volume Minding the Gap African Conflict Management in a Time of change focused on the role of mediation and peacekeeping in managing violence and political crises Teaching and Teacher Education in International Contexts Cheryl J. Craig,Juanjo Mena,Ruth G. Kane,2023-08-10 The ISATT 40th Anniversary Yearbook presented over three volumes celebrates the contributions of ISATT members over time and offers current scholarly research to inform current and future teacher education and teaching Eurasian Business and Economics Perspectives Mehmet Huseyin Bilgin,Hakan Danis,Ender Demir,Virginia Bodolica,2022-10-12 EBES conferences have been intellectual hub for academic discussion in economics finance and business fields and provide network opportunities for participants to make long lasting academic cooperation This is the 23rd volume of the Eurasian Studies in Business and Economics EBES s official proceeding series which includes selected papers from the 36th EBES Conference Istanbul The conference was organized on July 1 3 2021 in hybrid mode with both online and in person presentation In the conference 141 papers by 311 colleagues from 49 countries were presented Both theoretical and empirical papers in this volume cover diverse areas of business economics and finance from many different regions Therefore it provides a great opportunity to colleagues professionals and students to catch up with the most recent studies in different fields and empirical findings on many countries and regions Mobile Learning in Schools Jocelyn Wishart,2017-10-03 Mobile Learning in Schools explores the potential for using mobile devices in diverse school and college settings around the globe It evaluates the exciting opportunities mobile initiatives bring and shares experience of where things can go wrong in order to ensure that those embarking on new projects are fully informed Drawing on a wide range of international perspectives it unpicks knotty sociocultural issues including lack of sustainability behavioural and ethical concerns and explores successful student learning Key issues considered include mobile learning in primary schools teaching and learning with mobile devices in secondary schools opportunities inside and outside school pedagogical principles and sustainability mobile learning for initial teacher training and CPD ethical considerations behaviour matters disruption plagiarism cheating cyberbullying assessing mobile learning With annotated further reading and questions to trigger reflection and further discussion amongst readers this thought provoking text provides a detailed survey of this often controversial topic It is essential reading for all those engaged in understanding the potential for using mobile devices to support students learning Thus Until Emilia Ilieva,Reuben Matheka,2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style Raising the Impact of Education Research in Africa Charl C. Wolhuter, 2018-12-01 The low demonstrable effect of education research done in South Africa in particular and Africa in general continues to be a problem in scientific records in the educational sciences This scholarly collected work addresses this obstacle and focuses on recommendations from scholars in different sectorial categories in the field of education Scholars from a variety of sub fields within the educational sciences reflect on this particular matter revisiting the history of research and research outcomes and offering informed recommendations based on in depth investigation and analysis of aspects of the various discourses within the relevant sub fields The scope of the content of this collected work centres on the issue of the lack of scientific records concerning the scientific raising of the impact of education research The book aims at making a specific contribution to the educational sciences by stimulating scholarly discussion around how to increase the recording of the significance of educational research done in Africa and in South Africa in particular and to redirect the research agenda into the direction of making more impact Impact is conceptualised to mean both scholarly impact that is being cited and being used as foundation for theory building and for further research and practical impact that is improvement of practice teaching and learning in education institutions at all levels Predictive Analytics for
