

The background of the book cover features a detailed molecular model. It consists of numerous white spheres, likely representing hydrogen atoms, connected by thin grey rods. These are arranged in a complex, interconnected network that fills the entire frame. Overlaid on this background are two semi-transparent teal rectangular boxes. The top box contains the authors' names, and the bottom box contains the edition information. The title 'BIOCHEMISTRY' is prominently displayed in the center in a large, bold, blue font, with the subtitle 'THE MOLECULAR BASIS OF LIFE' just below it in a smaller, blue font.
