Eyes: Diet and Nutrition for Optimal Eye Health Arunkumar Ranganathan ,Pinakin Gunvant Davey,2025-04-17 Despite extensive research into the role of nutrition and diet for human health the potential impact of what we eat on what we see is often overlooked Yet living and working later into life the frequency of eye diseases and age related ocular conditions is on the rise This includes cataracts glaucoma and age related macular degeneration AMD all of which are some of the leading causes of blindness worldwide Furthermore with growing cases of diabetes and obesity retinal damage caused by diabetic retinopathy is becoming an increasingly global problem Such conditions are multifactorial and complex Nevertheless studies have demonstrated a clear involvement of oxidative stress and free radical damage as causative to these conditions Various nutrients have therefore been investigated for their potential preventative and therapeutic applications in the protection of retinal cells and overall eye health Dietary antioxidants such as vitamin E the carotenoids beta carotene lutein and zeaxanthin and retinoids play a crucial role in protecting the eyes from UV sunlight damage and are linked with reduced risk of cataracts and AMD Other nutrients such as zinc iron selenium omega 3 fatty acids and vitamin C have also been implicated in eye health with the latter of particular interest in glaucoma prevention and treatment The Bioeconomy Approach Udaya Sekhar Nagothu,2020-03-10 This book examines the bioeconomy concept analysing the opportunities it can generate the constraints and the potential benefits for society The main objective of bioeconomy is to promote economic development by creating jobs and enhancing the sustainable utilization of bio resources A primary driver of bioeconomy strategy therefore is the need to respond to the growing population s food and economic requirements While today research and literature related to bioeconomy are limited this book presents a unique collection of perspectives on the complex dimensions of the bioeconomy debate Drawing on the experiences from Europe Asia and Africa it presents an international overview The chapters address a wide range of issues including coastal land interactions ecosystem services food production rural development agriculture forest management and bioenergy As a whole the volume outlines what role bioeconomy can play in contributing to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs without compromising on the ecological sustainability and equitable distribution of benefits The book concludes by providing recommendations for developing bioeconomy in respective sectors agriculture forestry fisheries renewable energy and directions for planning future bioeconomy programmes and strategies The Bioeconomy Approach will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecological economics development economics and environmental economics as well as policy makers and practitioners involved in sustainable development Ethnobotany of the Himalayas Ripu M. Kunwar,Hassan Sher,Rainer W.

Bussmann,2021-07-29 Research in recent years has increasingly shifted away from purely academic research and into applied aspects of the discipline including climate change research conservation and sustainable development It has by now widely been recognized that traditional knowledge is always in flux and adapting to a quickly changing environment Trends of globalization especially the globalization of plant markets have greatly influenced how plant resources are managed nowadays While ethnobotanical studies are now available from many regions of the world no comprehensive encyclopedic series focusing on the worlds mountain regions is available in the market Scholars in plant sciences worldwide will be interested in this website and its dynamic content The field and thus the market of ethnobotany and ethnopharmacology has grown considerably in recent years Student interest is on the rise attendance at professional conferences has grown steadily and the number of professionals calling themselves ethnobotanists has increased significantly the various societies like the Society for Economic Botany the International Society of Ethnopharmacology the Society of Ethnobiology and the International Society for Ethnobiology currently have thousands of members Growth has been most robust in BRIC countries This new MRW on Ethnobotany of the Himalayas takes advantage of the increasing international interest and scholarship in the field of mountain research It includes the best and latest research on a full range of descriptive methodological theoretical and applied research on the most important plants in the Himalayas Each contribution is scientifically rigorous and contributes to the overall field of study

Accelerating progress in improving diets and nutrition in Ethiopia Baye, Kaleab,Hirvonen, Kalle,2020-06-11 Ethiopia has witnessed significant reductions in child mortality undernutrition and communicable diseases but more substantial and faster progress is still needed The rise in obesity and in noncommunicable diseases particularly in urban areas is alarming and requires urgent policy and programmatic attention Unhealthy diets drive both undernutrition and obesity and are the underlying cause of significant proportion of both communicable and non communicable diseases Maintaining the relatively high breastfeeding practices and increasing the diversity of diets will be critical to improving nutrition in Ethiopia Implementation of effective nutrition messaging that shapes consumer behavior to adopt healthy dietary patterns while bridging gaps in both the reach and the quality of such messaging is warranted The health extension program which is the cornerstone of the transformation of the health sector may need to be redesigned in a way that improves its reach and the quality of the services it provides and minimizes the risk of burnout of frontline health workers Interventions focusing on making healthy diets available affordable and accessible are urgently needed
