Prisons, 1860-1900 Sean McConville,Professor Sean Mcconville,2018-10-24 The local prisons of the latter half of the nineteenth century refined systems of punishment so harsh that one judge considered the maximum penalty of two years local imprisonment to be the most severe punishment known to English law next only to death This work examines how private perceptions and concerns became public policy It also traces the move in English government from the rural and aristocratic to the urban and more democratic It follows the rise of the powerful elite of the higher civil service describes some of the forces that attempted to oppose it and provides a window through which to view the process of state formation

Prison Worlds Didier Fassin,2017-05-23 The prison is a recent invention hardly more than two centuries old yet it has become the universal system of punishment How can we understand the place that the correctional system occupies in contemporary societies What are the experiences of those who are incarcerated as well as those who work there To answer these questions Didier Fassin conducted a four year long study in a French short stay prison following inmates from their trial to their release He shows how the widespread use of imprisonment has reinforced social and racial inequalities and how advances in civil rights clash with the rationales and practices used to maintain security and order He also analyzes the concerns and compromises of the correctional staff the hardships and resistance of the inmates and the ways in which life on the inside intersects with life on the outside In the end the carceral condition appears to be irreducible to other forms of penalty both because of the chain of privations it entails and because of the experience of meaninglessness it comprises Examined through ethnographic lenses prison worlds are thus both a reflection of society and its mirror At a time when many countries have begun to realize the impasse of mass incarceration and question the consequences of the punitive turn this book will provide empirical and theoretical tools to reflect on the meaning of punishment in contemporary societies

Down to This Shaughnessy Bishop-Stall,2010-06-04

For some young men climbing Everest or sailing solo into polar seas isn t the biggest risk in the world Instead it is venturing alone into the deepest urban jungle where human nature is the dangerous incomprehensible and sometimes wildly uplifting force that tests not only your ability to survive but also your own humanity One cold November day Shaughnessy Bishop Stall heads out on just such a quest He packs up a new tent some clothes his notebooks and a pen and goes to live in Tent City twenty seven lawless acres where the largest hobo town on the continent squats in the scandalized shadow of Canada's largest city The rules he sets for himself are simple no access to money family or friends except what he can find from that day on He'll do whatever people in Tent City do to get by be whatever bum wino beggar hustler criminal junkie or con man he chooses to be on any given day When he arrives he finds a dump full of the castaways of the last millennium human and otherwise On the edge of the world yet somehow smack in the middle of it all fugitives drug addicts prostitutes dealers and ex cons have created an anarchic society where the rules are made up nightly and your life depends on knowing them Not only does Bishop Stall manage to survive until the bulldozers come but against all odds his own heart and spirit slowly mend An astonishing account of birth suicide brawls binges tears crazed laughter good and bad intentions fiendish charity and the sudden eloquence and generosity of broken souls Down to This is Bishop Stall's iridescent love song to a lost city like no other The Mouse Story Karl Henrik With, Gerda Frederiksen Behrens, Dorothea Prall, 1922

evil of the Urn that adds to the despair and captures Jonathan and separates him from his family and his childhood sweetheart Elizabeth But it is also the fortunes of the Urn that provide the creative opportunity that brings Jonathan and his family together again Struggling for his freedom it takes all of Jonathan s imagination and cunning to use the Urn to receive a gift that the Urn has no power to give This gift not only changed the lives of Jonathan and his parents but also that of the King and the people of Catawissa From the Shtetl to America Joshua Rassen,2009 THE JACOB RASSEN STORY Jacob Rassen s life 1905 1986 reflects much of the Jewish history of the twentieth century from the last years of the Eastern European shtetl to modern America His life was shaped by four wars two local wars in Lithuania and the two world wars As a young man Jacob developed a passion for agronomy He taught and wrote extensively As an agronomist he traveled to Denmark and Russia He spent a year in Palestine starting a school of agronomy in the early days of the kibbutz movement Jacob remained in Europe during World War II He survived the Dvinsk and Riga ghettos concentration camps and a year as a partisan fighter His first wife and two children were killed in 1943 as the Dvinsk ghetto was liquidated In 1945 Jacob remarried and emigrated to the United States where he started a new life and family He lived mostly in Massachusetts and spent his last year in San Francisco Jacob recorded a nine hour narrative in 1986 The transcript captures his gift for storytelling his passion for life and his remarkable tale of survival Frank Leslie's Pleasant Hours ,1881
