Television without frontiers? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2007-02-05 The draft Audiovisual Media Services AMS Directive published in December 2005 was met with some alarm It sought to extend the existing Television without Frontiers Directive to new services which were seen to be competing for audience and revenue In doing so it would have introduced inappropriate regulation on the new media sector There have now been some changes to the original draft and a tightening of the definition of television like services Although an improvement the Committee is concerned that there is still not enough legal certainty They are also worried about the need to defend the Country of Origin approach to single market legislation and reject the idea that regulators should act to preserve the market dominance of existing players from new entrants They are also unconvinced of the need for any quantitative restriction on advertising

Listening and Speaking Student Book Jenny Bixby, Nigel Caplan, Meg Brooks, Miles Craven, 2020-07-09 A six level paired skills series that helps students to think critically and succeed academically The Third Edition builds on Q Skills for Success question centered approach with even more critical thinking up to date topics and 100% new assessment Branding and Designing Disability Elizabeth DePoy, Stephen Gilson, 2014-06-27 Over the past fifty years design and branding have become omnipotent in the market and have made their way to other domains as well Given their potential to divide humans into categories and label their worth and value design and branding can wield immense but currently unharnessed powers of social change Groups designed as devalued can be undesigned redesigned and rebranded to seamlessly and equivalently participate in community work and civic life This innovative book argues that disability as a concept and category is created reified and segregated through current design and branding that begs for creative change Transcending models of disability that locate it either as an embodied medical condition or as a socially constructed entity this book challenges the very existence and usefulness of the category itself Proposing and illustrating creative and responsible design DePoy and Gilson include thinking and action strategies that are useful and potent for undesigning redesigning and rebranding to meet the full range of human needs and to enhance full participation in local through global communities Divided into two parts the first section presents a critical examination of disability as a designed and branded phenomenon exploring what exactly is being designed and branded and how The second part investigates the redesign of disability and provides principles for redesign and rebranding illustrated with examples from high tech to place based sustainable strategies The book provides a unique and contemporary framework for thinking about disability as well as providing relevant design and branding guidance to designers and engineers interested in embodiment issues Lean Logic David Fleming, 2016 Lean Logic is David Fleming's masterpiece the product of more than thirty years work and a testament to the creative brilliance of one of Britain's most important intellectuals A dictionary unlike any other it leads readers through Fleming's stimulating exploration of fields as diverse as culture history science art logic ethics myth economics and anthropology being made up of four hundred and four engaging essay entries covering topics such as Boredom Community Debt Growth Harmless Lunatics Land Lean Thinking Nanotechnology Play Religion Spirit Trust and Utopia The threads running through every entry are Fleming's deft and original analysis of how our present market based economy is destroying the very foundations ecological economic and cultural on which it depends and his core focus a compelling grounded vision for a cohesive society that might weather the consequences A society that provides a satisfying culturally rich context for lives well lived in an economy not reliant on the impossible promise of eternal economic growth A society worth living in Worth fighting for Worth contributing to The beauty of the dictionary format is that it allows Fleming to draw connections without detracting from his in depth exploration of each topic Each entry carries intriguing links to other entries inviting the enchanted reader to break free of the imposed order of a conventional book starting where she will and following the links in the order of her choosing In combination with Fleming s refreshing writing style and good natured humor it also creates a book perfectly suited to dipping in and out The decades Fleming spent honing his life s work are evident in the lightness and mastery with which Lean Logic draws on an incredible wealth of cultural and historical learning from Whitman to Whitefield Dickens to Daly Kropotkin to Kafka Keats to Kuhn Oakeshott to Ostrom Jung to Jensen Machiavelli to Mumford Mauss to Mandelbrot Leopold to Lakatos Polanyi to Putnam Nietzsche to N ss Keynes to Kumar Scruton to Shiva Thoreau to Toynbee Rabelais to Rogers Shakespeare to Schumacher Locke to Lovelock Homer to Homer Dixon in demonstrating that many of the principles it commends have a track record of success long pre dating our current society Fleming acknowledges with honesty the challenges ahead but rather than inducing despair Lean Logic is rare in its ability to inspire optimism in the creativity and intelligence of humans to nurse our ecology back to health to rediscover the importance of place and play of reciprocity and resilience and of community and culture Recognizing that Lean Logic s sheer size and unusual structure could be daunting Fleming s long time collaborator Shaun Chamberlin has also selected and edited one of the potential pathways through the dictionary to create a second stand alone volume Surviving the Future Culture Carnival and Capital in the Aftermath of the Market Economy The content rare insights and uniquely enjoyable writing style remain Fleming s but presented at a more accessible paperback length and in conventional read it front to back format

A Water Story Geoff Beeson,2020-02-03 Freshwater scarcity is a critical challenge with social economic political and environmental consequences Water crises in Australia have already led to severe restrictions being applied in cities drought ravaging farmlands and the near terminal decline of some rivers and wetlands A Water Story provides an account of Australian water management practices set against important historical precedents and the contemporary experience of other countries It describes the nature and distribution of the country s natural water resources management of these resources by Indigenous Australians the development of urban water supply and support for pastoral activities and agricultural irrigation with the aid of case studies and anecdotes This is followed by discussion of the environmental consequences and current challenges of water management including food supply energy and climate change along with options for ensuring sustainable adequate high quality water supplies for a growing population A Water Story is an important resource for water professionals and those with an interest in water and the environment and related issues as well as students and the wider community

John Barrett, Sir Alan Beith, Sir Menzies Campbell, Sandra Gidley, Paul Holmes and Richard Younger-Ross Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee on Standards and Privileges,2010-03-19 This report from the House of Commons Committee on Standards and Privileges HCP 491 session 2009

10 ISBN 9780215545008 examines the claim that 6 Liberal Democratic MPs John Barrett Sir Alan Beith Sir Menzies Campbell Sandra Gidley Paul Holmes and Richard Younger Ross who following the sale of the Dolphin Square estate in Westminster in 2005 tenants had received offers from the estate's new owners of a lump sum in exchange for moving out or paying a higher rent The 6 members wrote to the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards to rule on whether their decisions in respect of the offers from the new owners had been appropriate The report sets out the Commissioner's decision in respect of the MPs concerned BBC annual report 2008-09 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2010-03-30 Incorporating HC 945 i session 2008 09 Globalisation and Its Impact on Wales: Oral and written evidence Great Britain.
