

Personal Narrative: My Family

3 pages | 617 words

There was Ten of us in my family. Mom, Dad, My 3 Older brothers, My Older Sister, then me and my 3 younger sisters. We lived in a 3 bedroom duplex with 2 full bathrooms and one half bathroom as with a half back yard. A big kitchen and living room. Me and my siblings had everything we wanted. My mom and dad always made away, what we wanted we got. They gave us money if we wanted it or needed it, they stayed for our sports events when we had them. My parents did a lot for us. One day my dad ended up incarcerated. My mom was left with 8 kids and a duplex to pay for. She did not know what to do so my dad had money saved up so she used that to pay for the bills as long as she could, but then one day we had to downgrade. We had to move to an apartment that was 2 bedroom and had 1 bathroom. My mom and 2 younger sisters shared a room, My older sister, me and my younger sister shared a room, and my 3 older brothers had the living room. We managed to stay there for 5 years before my dad was released. While we stayed there for 5 years there was ups and downs. Me and my siblings did not get along some of the times we fussed and fought because we were in the house a lot, but don't get me wrong we did still stay for sports events, but only if we had money we had saved to go to the games. My mom couldn't attend our games because she was always working. From the time we went to school to the time we got out of school and even after that she was at work. She stayed many of the nights trying to get over time because she had to provide for 8 kids and pay bills. There was never a time we went without Lights, food, Water, and cable. Even on Christmas she still managed to make it happen it might not have been a lot but she always did what she could to make her children happy. My mom sacrificed a lot for us. Things were good only when we had did what she had asked us to do. She had her rules and if we did not follow them then it was simple we couldn't go to games or go to our friends house and we sure couldn't ask her could we do anything if we didn't do what she said. We always had to make sure the house was clean, because remind you it was 9 of us all living in a small apartment. My mom struggled for a long time trying to make sure everything was good. She had many of times where she cried because things were so hard and she fussed and got mad, but she always made a way. I learned a lot in those 5 years, because so much happened and my mom managed to get all...
