Genius in France Ann Jefferson, 2014-12-21 This engaging book spans three centuries to provide the first full account of the long and diverse history of genius in France Exploring a wide range of examples from literature philosophy and history as well as medicine psychology and journalism Ann Jefferson examines the ways in which the idea of genius has been ceaselessly reflected on and redefined through its uses in these different contexts She traces its varying fortunes through the madness and imposture with which genius is often associated and through the observations of those who determine its presence in others Jefferson considers the modern beginnings of genius in eighteenth century aesthetics and the works of philosophes such as Diderot She then investigates the nineteenth century notion of national and collective genius the self appointed role of Romantic poets as misunderstood geniuses the recurrent obsession with failed genius in the realist novels of writers like Balzac and Zola the contested category of female genius and the medical literature that viewed genius as a form of pathology She shows how twentieth century views of genius narrowed through its association with IQ and child prodigies and she discusses the different ways major theorists including Sartre Barthes Derrida and Kristeva have repudiated and subsequently revived the concept Rich in narrative detail Genius in France brings a fresh approach to French intellectual and cultural history and to the burgeoning field of genius studies

Transcultural Poetics and the Concept of the Poet Ranjan Ghosh, 2016-12-08 Critiquing the politics and dynamics of the transcultural poetics of reading literature this book demonstrates an ambitious understanding of the concept of the poet across a wide range of traditions Anglo American German French Arabic Chinese Sanskrit Bengali Urdu and philosophies of creativity that are rarely studied side by side Ghosh carves out unexplored spaces of negotiation and intersections between literature aesthetics and philosophy The book demonstrates an original method of global comparison that displaces the relatively staid and historicist categories that have underpinned comparative literature approaches so far since they rarely dare stray beyond issues of influence and schools or new world literature approaches that affirm cosmopolitanism and transnationalism as overarching themes Going beyond comparatism and reformulating the chronological patterns of reading this bold book introduces new methodologies of reading literature to configure the concept of the poet from Philip Sidney to T S Eliot reading the notion of the poet through completely new theoretical and epistemic triggers Commonly known texts and sometimes well circulated ideas are subjected to refreshing reading in what the author calls the transcultural now and in fusionised transpoetical matrices By moving between theories of poetry and literature that come from widely separated times contexts and cultures this book shows the relevance of canonical texts to a theory of the future as marked by post global concerns

Logodaedalus Alexander Marr, Raphaële Garrod, José Ramón Marcaida, Richard J. Oosterhoff, 2019-02-15 Before Romantic genius there was ingenuity Early modern ingenuity defined every person not just exceptional individuals as having their own attributes and talents stemming from an inborn nature that included many qualities not just intelligence Through ingenuity and its family of related terms early moderns sought to understand and appreciate differences between peoples places and things in an attempt to classify their ingenuities and assign professions that were best suited to one's abilities Logodaedalus a prehistory of genius explores the various ways this language of ingenuity was defined used and manipulated between 1470 and 1750 By analyzing printed dictionaries and other lexical works across a range of languages Latin Italian Spanish French English German and Dutch the authors reveal the ways in which significant words produced meaning in history and found expression in natural philosophy medicine natural history mathematics mechanics poetics and artistic theory Martin's History of France Henri Martin, 1866 Colonial Culture in France since the Revolution Pascal Blanchard, Sandrine Lemaire, Nicolas Bancel, Dominic Thomas, 2013-12-02 This landmark collection by an international group of scholars and public intellectuals represents a major reassessment of French colonial culture and how it continues to inform thinking about history memory and identity This reexamination of French colonial culture provides the basis for a revised understanding of its cultural political and social legacy and its lasting impact on postcolonial immigration the treatment of ethnic minorities and national identity The Architecture of the Renaissance in France: The early renaissance (1495 to 1640) William Henry Ward, 1926 The Galaxy William Conant Church, 1866 Geography and National Identity David Hooson, 1994-10-20 This volume of especially commissioned essays explores the geography of and the role of geography in national and proto national identity Place and national identity are bound together Attachment to the one is almost always inseparable from the sense of the other Yet as this volume shows the articulated self conscious linking of place and identity is by and large a modern phenomenon that took root in nineteenth century Europe The formation of supranational states and the much vaunted globalization of culture led many to believe there would be a progressive dilution of national identities and a growing agglomeration of places and nations into larger state units Precisely the reverse has taken place This book explores the connections between identity and homeland showing how a place may be perceived as archetypal endowed with love and celebrated in music and poetry yet be a pretext for violence and war It examines the evolution of ideas about identity and their manifestations in a wide variety of settings from the former Soviet Union to the island states of the South Pacific Biography and the Question of Literature in France Ann Jefferson, 2007-01-04 Containing critical readings of some major French authors in the light of the evolving relations between biography and literature this book offers a history of French literature over a 300 year period and also a discussion of biography its forms history and functions The Imperial Dictionary of Universal Biography John Francis Waller,1857 The Enlightenment and the Intellectual Foundations of Modern Culture Louis Dupre,2008-10-01 The prestige of the Enlightenment has declined in recent years Many consider its thinking abstract its art and poetry uninspiring and the assertion that it introduced a new age of freedom and progress after centuries of darkness and superstition presumptuous In this book an eminent scholar of modern culture shows that the Enlightenment was a more complex phenomenon than most of its detractors and advocates assume It includes rationalist as well as antirationalist tendencies a critique of traditional morality and religion as well as an attempt to establish them on new foundations even the beginning of a moral renewal and a spiritual revival The Enlightenment s critique of tradition was a necessary consequence of the fundamental modern principle that we humans are solely responsible for the course of history Hence we can accept no belief no authority no institutions that are not in some way justified This foundation for better or for worse determined the course of the following centuries Despite contemporary reactions against it the Enlightenment continues to shape our own time and still distinguishes Western culture from any other Ideas in Seventeenth-century France E.
