Enrico Ivaldi, Andrea Ciacchi

Geography Paper 1 2014 Narch:

The Great Music City Andrea Baker, 2019-03-01 In the 1960s as gentrification took hold of New York City Jane Jacobs predicted that the city would become the true player in the global system Indeed in the 21st century more meaningful comparisons can be made between cities than between nations and states Based on case studies of Melbourne Austin and Berlin this book is the first in depth study to combine academic and industry analysis of the music cities phenomenon Using four distinctly defined algorithms as benchmarks it interrogates Richard Florida's creative cities thesis and applies a much needed synergy of urban sociology and musicology to the concept mediated by a journalism lens Building on seminal work by Robert Park Lewis Mumford and Jane Jacobs it argues that journalists are the cultural branders and street theorists whose ethnographic approach offers critical insights into the urban sociability of music activity

Geofinance between Political and Financial Geographies Silvia Grandi, Christian Sellar, Juvaria Jafri, 2019-12-27 This edited collection explores the boundaries between political and financial geographies focusing on the linkages between the changing strategies policies and institutions of the state It also investigates banks and other financial institutions affected by both state policies and a globalizing financial system and the financial resources available to firms as well as households In so doing the book highlights how an empirical focus on the semi periphery of the financial system may generate new perspectives on the entanglement between geo politics and finance

Order and Conflict in Public Space Mattias De Backer, Lucas Melgaço, Georgiana Varna, Francesca Menichelli, 2016-05-20 Which public and whose space The understanding of public space as an arena where individuals can claim full use and access hides a reality of constant negotiation conflict and surveillance This collection uses case studies concerning the management use and transgression of public space to invite reflection on the way in which everyday social interaction is framed and shaped by the physical environment and vice versa International experts from fields including geography criminology sociology and urban studies come together to debate the concepts of order and conflict in public space This book is divided into two parts spaces of control and spaces of transgression Section I focuses on formal and informal surveillance and the politics of control using case studies to compare strategies in spaces including Olympic cities luxury skyscrapers residential neighbourhoods and shopping malls Section II focuses on transgressive or deviant behaviour in public spaces with case studies examining behaviour in nightlife districts governance of homelessness boy racer culture and abortion protests The epilogue concludes the book with an exploration of possible future avenues for research on public space and a critical appraisal of the concept of public space itself This interdisciplinary collection will be of interest to students researchers and professionals in the areas of criminology sociology surveillance studies human and social geography and urban studies and planning

Urbanization with Chinese Characteristics: The Hukou System and Migration Kam Wing Chan, 2018-04-19 Many agree that rapid urbanization in China in the late 20th and early 21st centuries is a mega process significantly reshaping China and the global economy China

s urbanization also carries a certain mystique which has long fascinated generations of scholars and journalists alike As it has turned out many of the asserted Chinese feats are mostly fancied claims or gross misinterpretations of statistics for example There does exist however an urbanization that displays rather uncommon Chinese characteristics that remain to inadequately understood Building on his three decades of careful research Professor Kam Wing Chan expertly dissects the complexity of China s hukou system migration urbanization and their interrelationships in this set of journal articles published in the last ten years These works range from seminal papers on Chinese urban definitions and statistics and broad perspective analysis of the hukou system of its first semi centennial to examinations of migration trends and geography and critical evaluations of China s 2014 urbanization blueprint and hukou reform plan This convenient assemblage contains many of Chan s recent important works Together they also form a relatively coherent set on this topic They are essential readings to anyone serious about gaining a true understanding of the prodigious urbanization in contemporary China Handbook of Research methods and Applications in Environmental Studies Matthias Ruth,2015-08-28 This Handbook presents methods to advance the understanding of interdependencies between the well being of human societies and the performance of their biophysical environment It showcases applications to material and energy use urbanization and tech Smart Sustainable Cities and Knowledge-Based Economy Enrico Ivaldi,Andrea Ciacchi,2023-07-10 This book provides information and resources to city planners and other public policy officials on the importance of smart sustainable cities and their relationship with urban knowledge based economy It answers important topical questions relating to urban sustainable development and human well being namely how can we implement policies and programs that can make cities smart and boost their knowledge based development How can such programs reduce inequalities and enhance the environment where people live and work The authors suggest a new approach to the creation of sustainable smart cities not only in metropolises but also in smaller urban spaces They advance the body of knowledge in entrepreneurship literature by examining both the European regional understanding of entrepreneurship and the quality of life and well being at city levels They also provide synthetic indexes to assess the relationship between perceived quality of life and entrepreneurship This book stimulates the debate on the role of smart cities in promoting entrepreneurship which is a currently under investigated topic in Europe and is of interest to a wide range of practitioners professionals and academics in the area of well being and quality of life research urban studies public policy and sustainable development Spationomy Vít Pászto,Carsten Jürgens,Polona Tominc,Jaroslav Burian,2019-11-06 This open access book is based on Spationomy Spatial Exploration of Economic Data an interdisciplinary and international project in the frame of ERASMUS funded by the European Union The project aims to exchange interdisciplinary knowledge in the fields of economics and geomatics For the newly introduced courses interdisciplinary learning materials have been developed by a team of lecturers from four different universities in three countries In a first study block students were taught methods from the two main research fields Afterwards the knowledge gained had to be applied in a project For this international project teams were formed consisting of one student from each university participating in the project The achieved results were presented in a summer school a few months later At this event more methodological knowledge was imparted to prepare students for a final simulation game about spatial and economic decision making In a broader sense the chapters will present the methodological background of the project give case studies and show how visualisation and the simulation game works Handbook on Geographies of Technology Barney Warf,2017-02-24 This Handbook offers an insightful and comprehensive overview from a geographic perspective of the numerous and varied technologies that are shaping the contemporary world It shows how geography and technology are intimately linked by examining the origins growth and impacts of 27 different technologies and highlighting how they influence the structure and spatiality of society Insight Turkey 2015 - Fall 2015 (Vol. 17, No. 4) , Last year was the year of elections in Turkey with two parliamentary elections and months long electoral campaigns that dominated the political agenda of the country The parliamentary elections of June 7 2015 brought an end to the AK Party s 12 year long era of parliamentary majority and single party government in Turkey Nevertheless the endeavors to form a coalition government could not be concluded successfully and another election appeared on the horizon The country was ruled by an AK Party led interim government and the elections were repeated five months later on November 1 2015 While close in time the two elections were quite distant with regard to the political contexts in which they were carried out and in their respective results The November elections witnessed a comeback for the AK Party which increased its votes by over 9 points with the addition of five million new votes in the ballot box Sustainable Transportation in Natural and Protected Areas Francesco Orsi,2015-07-16 Protected areas are at the centre of nature based tourism which is increasingly popular across the world As visitor numbers increase so does awareness of the harmful effects that large crowds may have on both natural resources and individuals recreational experience This volume considers the challenge of transportation to and within natural and protected areas the improvement of which has already been recognised as having great potential for mitigating the environmental impacts of ecotourism While several books have focused considerable attention to the management of protected areas in general little has been said about the specific issue of sustainable transport an emerging trend that is already reshaping visitation patterns in natural settings This book provides current knowledge on issues associated with the transportation of visitors in natural and protected areas and a comprehensive overview of the technical and strategic options available to tackle these issues It approaches the subject via three main topics preferences or the visitors attitudes towards transportation practices where current approaches are assessed through examples and case studies of successful experiences and methodologies from around the world and policies where suggestions and recommendations are put forward for both local scale strategies and broad scale regulatory action with global relevance Contributors include academics in the field of natural resource management and tourism with extensive experience in protected area management and active partnerships with natural park administrations

Testimonio Catherine Nolin, Grahame Russell, 2021-10-25 What is land A resource to be exploited A commodity to be traded A home to cherish In Guatemala a country still reeling from thirty six years of US backed state repression and genocides dominant Canadian mining interests cash in on the transformation of land into property while those responsible act with near total impunity Editors Catherine Nolin and Grahame Russell draw on over thirty years of community based research and direct community support work in Guatemala to expose the ruthless state machinery that benefits the Canadian mining industry a staggeringly profitable juggernaut of exploitation sanctioned and supported every step of the way by the Canadian government This edited collection calls on Canadians to hold our government and companies fully to account for their role in enabling and profiting from violence in Guatemala The text stands apart in featuring a series of unflinching testimonios testimonies authored by Indigenous community leaders in Guatemala as well as wide ranging contributions from investigative journalists scholars Lawyers activists and documentarians on the ground As resources are ripped from the earth and communities and environments ripped apart the act of standing in solidarity and bearing witness rather than extracting knowledge becomes more radical than ever

Carceral Mobilities Jennifer Turner, Kimberley Peters, 2016-12-01 Mobilities research is now centre stage in the social sciences with wide ranging work that considers the politics underscoring the movements of people and objects critically examining a world that is ever on the move At first glance the words carceral and mobilities seem to sit uneasily together This book challenges the assumption that carceral life is characterised by a lack of movement Carceral Mobilities brings together contributions that speak to contemporary debates across carceral studies and mobilities research offering fresh insights to both areas by identifying and unpicking the manifold mobilities that shape and are shaped by carceral regimes It features four sections that move the reader through the varying typologies of motion underscoring carceral life tension circulation distribution and transition Each mobilities led section seeks to explore the politics encapsulated in specific regimes of carceral movement With contributions from leading scholars and a range of international examples this book provides an authoritative voice on carceral mobilities from a variety of perspectives including criminology sociology history cultural theory human geography and urban planning This book offers a first port of call for those examining spaces of detention asylum imprisonment and containment who are increasingly interested in questions of movement in relation to the management control and confinement of populations

Scripts of Servitude Beatriz P. Lorente, 2017-10-19 This book examines how language is a central resource in transforming migrant women into transnational domestic workers Focusing on the migration of women from the Philippines to Singapore the book unpacks why and how language is embedded in the infrastructure of transnational labor migration that links migrant sending and migrant receiving countries It sheds light on the everyday lives of transnational domestic workers and how they draw on their linguistic repertoires and in particular on English as they cross geographical and social spaces By showing how the transnational mobility of labor is dependent on the selection and performance of particular assemblages of linguistic resources that index migrants as labor and not as people the book provides a powerful lens with which to examine how migration contributes to relationships of inequality and how such inequalities are produced and challenged on the terrain of language

Creating Enemies David Mattingly, 2015-09-15 The Bush administration planned the invasion of Iraq to be a quick in and out operation without dedicating a large force for the invasion and the aftermath The honeymoon period immediately after the invasion closed and the insurgency movement emerged and grew when the Coalition Provisional Authority disbanded the army and banned the Ba ath Party and most of its members from participating in the new government The results of the orders created an insurgency war that the U S and Coalition forces had not planned to fight The war created numerous domestic and foreign insurgency groups and militias as well as a largely under governed area in Western Iraq on the Syrian border The Syrian Civil War drew a number of groups into the country to fight along the pro Shi a and pro Sunni factions The insurgency war born in the aftermath of the invasion has created regional instability and conflict The war has also crippled the U S in reacting to other global conflicts at a time when Russia is increasing its involvement in world affairs

Meos of Mewat in the 21st Century Abhay Chawla, 2023-02-28 While most of the earlier scholarship of the Meo community has focused on the community s troubled histories their backwardness and unusual social and religious configuration this research conducted over a span of five years shines a light upon modern Meos in the twenty first century and their embracing of mobile technology to leapfrog into the future With special attention given to Meo youth and women this work engages with the lived experience of these actors delving into their aspirations challenges and self devised solutions as they negotiate the structures of tradition and patriarchy The Meo community saddled with high levels of illiteracy and marginalization inhabits the Mewat area of North West India nestled between Delhi Agra and Jaipur Their spoken language is Mewati and there are multiple conjectures put forth about their origin and continual migrations throughout history before finally settling in Mewat Practitioners of Islam the Meos at the same time observe Hindu social practices such as division into Pals and Gotras with clearly laid down exogamous rules Historically this has rendered the Meos as an enigma to outsiders and as a problem for the reigning political state from the Delhi Sultanate to the British colonizers contributing to their marginalized status As an oral society the traditional Meo medium was that of the mirasi folklore tellers and bards who would sing about Meo valor in the face of state authority So deeply entrenched in tradition and alterity how do Meos then tread and engage with modern techno centric new media The answer to such an inquiry is not simple or straightforward While over 90% of Meos owned a mobile phone as of 2016 different audience segments provide different narratives and leverage the technology in different ways College students use their mobile phones to access different social media platforms and opportunities for employment and higher education truck drivers on the other hand use their mobiles to remain in touch with their families when out on long distance driving assignments Meanwhile married women and young girls while not allowed to own a phone nonetheless find ways of gaining access to the technology With the use of new media Bollywood consumption is on the rise and one sees changes in sartorial choices ideas on grooming and marriage and social life in general So much so the traditional profession of the mirasi has now become defunct Present day Meo society is experiencing a change at multiple levels which is a complex negotiation between traditional and modern And in this twenty first century story empowered by technology rather than being a victim the Meo emerges as a hero Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine, Keith A. Roberts, Kathleen Odell Korgen, 2016-11-30 Inspire your students to develop their sociological imaginations in Our Social World Focused on deep learning rather than memorization this book encourages readers to analyze evaluate and apply information about the social world to see the connection between the world and personal events from a new perspective and to confront sociological issues on a day to day basis Organized around the Social World Model a conceptual framework used across chapters to see the complex links between various micro to macro levels of the social system students will develop the practice of using three levels of analysis and to view sociology as an integrated whole rather than a set of discrete subjects
