Smallman-Raynor,Andrew D. Cliff,J. Keith Ord,Peter Haggett,2022-02-10 The last half century has witnessed two landmark events in medical history The 1970s saw euphoria about the defeat of one of humankind s oldest disease scourges with the global eradication of smallpox To set against this the 2020s are experiencing the pandemic ravages of new viral diseases of which COVID 19 is currently the most potent But it is only the latest of a succession of threats A Geography of Infection explores the distinctive spatial patterns and processes by which such infectious diseases spread from place to place and can grow from local and regional epidemics into global pandemics This resource focuses initially on the local scale of doctors practices and small islands where epidemic outbreaks are slight in the numbers infected and in geographical extent Such local area studies raise two questions First how and where do epidemic diseases emerge and second why do more diseases appear to be emerging now To approach such questions implies a shift in spatial gear from painting epidemics with a fine tipped local brush to an expanded palette on which doctors practices and small islands are replaced by regional and global populations Simultaneously time bands are extended backwards to the origins of civilization and forwards into the twenty first century It eventually leads to a consideration of global pandemics both historical for example plague cholera and influenza and contemporary HIV AIDS and COVID 19 and examines the ways the spread of infection can be prevented All chapters are extensively illustrated with full colour diagrams and maps some of which are in colour for the first time Bringing together the authors collective 150 years of experience in research mapping and writing on spatial aspects of medical history this is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in the spread control and eradication of epidemic and pandemic diseases Elastic Empire Lisa

Canada's Waste Flows Myra J. Hird,2021-02-15 From shipments of Canadian waste rotting in developing countries to overflowing landfills and ineffective recycling programs Canada is facing a waste crisis Canadians are becoming increasingly aware that waste is an acute environmental and human health issue and a complex one the solutions to which are often contradictory Canada s Waste Flows is an honest look at the production and movement of Canadian waste from region to region and across the globe and its consequences Through a series of timely empirical case studies the book reveals waste as less of a technological problem and more of a material economic political historical and cultural concern Canada s Waste Flows demonstrates that Canadians are misdirecting their attention to post consumer waste and their responsibility for minimizing it through recycling waste must be understood as a social justice issue and in particular as a symptom of ongoing settler colonialism Through a comparative study of waste management in southern and northern Canadian communities Myra Hird argues that we will only resolve our waste crisis through democratic engagement A critical and compelling book that will generate conversation and incite change Canada's Waste Flows uncovers how Canada's role as a global leader in waste production and export is key to changing Canada's waste future Military Geosciences in the Twenty-First Century Russell S. Bombs Away David G. Havlick, 2018-04-11 When viewed from space the Korean Peninsula is crossed by a thin green ribbon On the ground its mix of dense vegetation and cleared borderlands serves as home to dozens of species that are extinct or endangered elsewhere on the peninsula This is Korea's demilitarized zone one of the most dangerous places on earth for humans and paradoxically one of the safest for wildlife Although this zone was not intentionally created for conservation across the globe hundreds of millions of acres of former military zones and bases are being converted to restoration areas refuges and conservation lands David G Havlick has traveled the world visiting these spaces of military to wildlife transition and in Bombs Away he explores both the challenges physical historical and cultural and fascinating ecological possibilities of military site conversions Looking at particular international sites of transition from Indiana's Big Oaks National Wildlife Refuge to Cold War remnants along the former Iron Curtain Havlick argues that these new frontiers of conservation must accomplish seemingly antithetical aims rebuilding and protecting ecosystems or restoring life while also commemorating the historical and cultural legacies of warfare and militarization Developing these ideas further he shows that despite the ecological devastation often wrought by military testing and training these activities need not be inconsistent with environmental goals and in some cases can even complement them a concept he calls ecological militarization A profound clear explication of landscapes both fraught and fecund marked by death but also reservoirs of life Bombs Away shows us how military activities conservation goals and ecological restoration efforts are made to work together to create new kinds of places and new conceptions of place

Acting with the World Andrew Pickering, 2025-02-07 In the Anthropocene our actions are coming home to roost Global warming species extinctions and environmental disasters are the dark side of our mastery of nature In Acting with the World Andrew Pickering identifies a different pattern of being and doing that can evade this dark side a pattern which he calls acting with the world In contrast to our usual practice of acting on the world acting with foregrounds nonhuman or more than human agency and aims to attune our practices to the propensities of nature Pickering explores examples of acting with from around the globe including flood control on the Mississippi River ecosystem restoration on the Colorado River the Room for the River project and rewilding in the Netherlands natural farming in Japan Aboriginal fire techniques in Australia and Amazonian shamanism Pickering argues that acting with intimately and gracefully plugs us into nature undercuts the Anthropocene from below and offers a constructive approach to addressing otherwise intractable wicked problems

The Struggle for Change Marvin T. Chiles, 2023-12-28 A Black majority city with a history of the most severe segregation and inequity Richmond is still grappling with this legacy as it moves into the twenty first century Marvin Chiles now offers a unique take on Richmond's racial politics since the civil rights era by demonstrating that the city's current racial disparities in economic mobility housing and public education actually represent the unintended consequences of Richmond's racial reconciliation measures He deftly weaves municipal politics together with grassroots efforts examining the work and legacies of Richmond's Black leaders from Henry Marsh on the city council in the 1960s to Mayor Levar Stoney to highlight the urban revitalization and public history efforts meant to overcome racial divides after Jim Crow yet which ironically reinforced racial inequality across the city Compellingly written this project carries both local and broader regional significance for Richmonders Virginians southerners and all Americans

'Is It Global War on Terrorism' or Global War over Terra Africana? Nkwazi Nkuzi Mhango, 2017-12-06 Global War on Terrorism or Global War over Terra Africana How Imperial Powers Seek to Occupy Africa Militarily is a long onerous academic voyage of the demystification and demythologization of the Global War on Terror former US president George W Bush and former UK premier Tony Blair conceived envisaged and declared for their hidden personal and national interests It is a hidden and untold story of the other side about the GWOT which is but the GWOTA Major arguments presented gyrate around the deconstruction and overhaul of the GWOT so that it can be equally formulated and fought by all nations for the interests of all but not the interests of some as it currently is Also the book repudiates the pontification the pontifex maximus of the GWOTA have always made ex nihilo while concealing their drives for perpetually exploiting poor countries Terrorism is a world phenomenon everybody must fight provided it is collectively agreed decided and declared for the collective good and interests of the world but not the interests of a few hegemonic countries that usurped the power of declaring who is a terrorist and who is not Although terrorism is real the manner it is fought is a little bit knotty This tome acts as an eye opener and a wake up call for Africa to start interrogating and excavating the hidden truths about the GWOT chiefly the way it was enacted declared presented and now fought with essentialist and controversialist modus operandi and rationale Other major questions asked and answered are Why exporting military and military hardware guised as fighting terrorism without underscoring the terror military incursion will inter alia cause to Africa especially If truly the aim of the GWOT is to wage war on terror why doesn t the West want to empower African armies Why did the US appoint itself to lead the war conceived and declared without meeting the requirements of the just war or international standards Why hasn t the world learned from Iraq and Libya whose governments were toppled under the fa ade of the GWOT Is it the GWOT or the GWOTA
