Educating Marginalized Communities in East and Southeast Asia Khun Eng Kuah, Jason Eng Thye Tan, 2016-11-25 Despite the enshrinement by the United Nations in 1948 of education as a universal human right and despite the ideals espoused in the Education for All declaration in Dakar in 1990 it is patently clear that these ideals remain far from realized for a substantial portion of humankind Especially at risk are vulnerable segments of society such as women migrants refugees rural populations ethnic minorities and the financially disadvantaged This book centres on efforts to provide education to these marginalized populations in the East and Southeast Asian region Of particular interest are questions of financing and control As various governments have struggled to manage the escalating costs of building schools training teachers and educating students the topic of public private partnerships in educational provision has assumed growing importance The seven chapters presented here highlight a variety of partnerships among state civil society and non government organisations NGOs Post-Soviet Geography and Economics ,1996
