Africa Since 1800 Roland Anthony Oliver, Anthony Atmore, 1994-01-27 This general history of modern Africa has been revised and updated to take full account of the fresh perspectives on African history brought about by the end of the Cold War History in Africa ,2008 Journal of African History Roland Anthony Oliver, J. D. Fage, 1976 Journal of the African Society African Society, 1922 Doing Conceptual History in Africa Axel Fleisch, Rhiannon Stephens, 2018-02-21 Employing an innovative methodological toolkit Doing Conceptual History in Africa provides a refreshingly broad and interdisciplinary approach to African historical studies The studies assembled here focus on the complex role of language in Africa's historical development with a particular emphasis on pragmatics and semantics From precolonial dynamics of wealth and poverty to the conceptual foundations of nationalist movements each contribution strikes a balance between the local and the global engaging with a distinctively African intellectual tradition while analyzing the regional and global contexts in which categories like work marriage and land take shape Women in African Colonial Histories Susan Geiger, Jean Allman, Nakanyike Musisi, 2002-04 While recognising the inherent violence and brutality of the colonial encounter the essays in this anthology show that African women were not simply the hapless victims of European political rule Key Events in African History Toyin Falola, 2002-08-30 Provides information on thirty six key events from the prehistoric past to the dawn of the twenty first century which have shaped the history of Africa Readings in Gender in Africa Andrea Cornwall, International African Institute, 2005-02-14 Readings in Gender in Africa collects the most important critical and theoretical writings on how gender issues have transformed contemporary views of Africa Scholarship from North America Europe and Africa is represented in this comprehensive volume A synthetic introduction by Andrea Cornwall discusses efforts to include women in research about Africa The volume not only shows how gender relations have been constructed on the African continent but reflects the changes in approach and inquiry that have been brought about as scholars consider gender identities and difference in their work Specific themes covered here include the contestation and representation of gender femininity and masculinity livelihoods and lifeways gender and religion gender and culture and gender and governance Readers from across the landscape of African studies will find this an essential sourcebook Published in association with the International African Institute London Fusion Foodways of Africa's Gold Coast in the Atlantic Era James D. La Fleur, 2012-08-03 As most people in Atlantic era West Africa as in contemporary Europe and the Americas were farmers fields and gardens were the primary terrain where they engaged the opportunities and challenges of nascent globalization Agricultural changes and culinary cross currents from the Gold Coast indicate that Africans engaged the Atlantic world not with passivity but as full partners with others on continents whose histories have enjoyed longer and greater scholarly attention The most important seeds of change are not to be found in the DNA of crops and critters carried across the seas but instead in the creativity and innovation of the people who engaged the challenges and opportunities of the Atlantic World

Voices of the Poor in Africa Elizabeth Allo Isichei, 2004 An ambitious new approach to African studies utilizing indigenous sources to bring back the voices of the native Africans in their own words rather than that of colonizers and foreigners Elizabeth Isichei explores the Atlantic slave trade as reflected in the poetics of rumour and the poetics of memory an approach different from the quantitative and demographic studies which have transformed the subject over the past twenty years To this and to her study of popular consciousness in the colony and postcolony she brings together a wide range of disciplines ethnography art and art history and contemporary literary theory among them to look at the intellectual history of Africa from African rather than European premises The result is a history of popular consciousness which shows the experiences of ordinary people often in protest to an ongoing experience of exploitation Elizabeth Isichei is Professor of Religious Studies Otago University Dunedin New Zealand and author of over a dozen books on African history and religion She holds an Oxford doctorate and a D Litt from the University of Canterbury and is a fellow of the Royal Society N Z
