History Of Nigerian Navy:

African Navies Timothy Stapleton, 2022-11-11 This edited volume focuses on aspects of the understudied theme of African sea power including African navies and the engagement of non African navies with the continent Africa possesses 48 000 kilometers of coastline comprising 38 out of 54 of the continent's states and several strategic choke points for international shipping such as the Suez Canal the Gulf of Aden and the Cape of Good Hope Nevertheless post colonial Africa's small navies and their relations with the navies of external powers have not received much scholarly attention Focusing on Sub Saharan Africa this collection attempts to address this neglect and stimulate further research by offering original chapters related to historical and contemporary themes around Africa's navies The historical chapters cover the origin of the Tanzanian Ethiopian Nigerian and Ghana navies during the era of decolonization and the Cold War the asymmetrical naval campaign fought during the Nigerian Civil War 1967-70 and the activities of the Soviet Navy in supporting African states and movements fighting lingering colonialism and white supremacy during the 1970s and 1980s Focusing on the contemporary situation other chapters discuss the engagement of the Indian Navy with Africa the potential role of the Angolan and Mozambican navies in the Southern African Development Community SADC the transformation and development of the post apartheid South African Navy and the challenges and capabilities of African navies in the early twenty first century The book concludes by discussing the question of whether African coastal countries need navies This book will be of much interest to students of naval power strategic studies African politics and International Relations Chapters 1 2 6 and 8 of this book are available for free in Open Access at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

New Directions in African Military History Timothy J.

Stapleton, 2025-06-02 New Directions in African Military History takes a thematic approach to the history of war and military structures in Africa and highlights the under researched areas African Military History represents a relatively new and fast growing sub field bridging the previously wide gap between the well established genres of African History and Military History Based on a synthesis of existing literature and aimed at a wide readership this book adopts a broad temporal range and uses select examples to highlight a series of points to cover the pre colonial to post colonial eras and offer examples from various parts of the continent This volume evaluates controversial academic debates examining evidence research methods approaches and changing historiographical contexts as well as pointing to potential new areas of research It comprises seven thematic chapters on ways of war weapons technology navies air power battles women combatants and genocide in African history This volume will be of value to students and scholars alike interested in Modern History Military History and African History

The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleyhans, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent s resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations

The Odyssey of the Nigerian Woman Oluwakemi Abiodun Adesina,Aisha Balarabe Bawa,Mutiat Titilope Oladejo,2023-12-07 This book explores the roles that Nigerian women have played since pre colonial times in shaping the culture customs and values of the different societies that now constitute parts of the modern Nigerian state The contributions gathered here provide engaging explanations of different aspects of Nigerian life highlighting the effects of patriarchy colonialism industry and international policies on women in Africa s most populous country This book represents a major contribution to African women s history and gender studies globally and will appeal to students and scholars of women s history and gender interested in understanding life and its challenges in the Global South

Federal Nigeria ,1966 The Third Wave of Historical Scholarship on Nigeria Saheed Aderinto,Paul Osifodunrin,2013-02-22 This festschrift in honor of Professor Ayodeji Olukoju one of Nigeria s brightest historians brings together scholarship representative of the third wave of historical scholarship on Nigeria Olukoju a pioneering historian of Nigerian maritime history also produced significant revisionist scholarship in the areas of economic urban and infrastructure history The contributions in this volume epitomize the groundbreaking directions of his career they are marked by a search for new explanations and venture into uncharted terrain in Nigerian history Aside from its critical engagement of Olukoju s impressive scholarship this volume presents chapters on such underresearched aspects of Nigerian history as sexuality children and youth crime memory and HIV AIDS It offers historical explanations of a host of development challenges confronting Nigeria Africa s most populous country and resilient reinterpretations of the place of history in nation building The contributors pioneering experts in their various subfields bring their research and teaching experience to the fore and deploy neglected data as they unfold topics that shed light on Nigeria its peoples and cultures They show that history both as a daily practice and as an academic endeavor remains vital as Africans seek solutions to the continent s critical development challenges Seaforth World Naval Review 2021 Conrad Waters,2021-10-01 The essential compendium covering the year in naval developments the only annual overview of its kind For over a decade this annual has provided an authoritative summary of all that has happened in the naval world in the previous twelve months combining regional surveys with major articles on noteworthy new ships and other important developments Besides the latest warship projects it also looks at wider issues of significance to navies such as aviation and weaponry and calls on expertise from around the globe to give a balanced picture of what is going on and to interpret its significance The latest of the in depth Significant Ships series cover the US Navy s America LHA 6 class amphibious ships the Singaporean Independence an indigenous design of Littoral Mission Vessel and the venerable Type 23 frigate still the mainstay of the British Royal Navy s surface fleet Technological subjects include an analysis of stealth at sea by Norman Friedman the US Standard missile family by Richard Scott as well as David Hobbs regular review of naval aviation This year the reviews of specific fleets focus on the navies of Sweden and Nigeria two medium sized naval powers with very different histories Firmly established as the only annual naval overview of its type World Naval Review is essential reading for anyone whether enthusiast or professional interested in contemporary maritime affairs Gender Politics and Governance in Africa T. Oladejo,2021-01-04 Good governance is an index of human development What constitutes good governance is holistic and gender issues are key components in the formation and practice of governance In pre colonial Africa governance is inclusive of men and women In the pre colonial era it could be argued that women had spheres of power and powerlessness In most post colonial societies of Africa it is a rarity to accord women positions in government Yet the United Nations Conferences held in Copenhagen 1980 Nairobi 1985 Beijing 1995 and New York 2000 all had drafts and resolutions to change inequalities and vulnerabilities women encounter in public and private spaces What are the issues to understand in the inclusion or exclusion of women in governance of African states and societies This book explicates the experiential issues in gender politics and governance The known are the stereotypes accorded to women as weak and unfit to take strategic roles in public life Scholars across disciplines have debunked this perception The known constantly linger in perpetuity because the development plans of African states fail to understand what it takes to have women empowered in all ramifications New Architecture of Regional Security in Africa Usman A. Tar,Bashir Bala,2019-11-11 This book critically explores the emerging architecture of regional security in Africa with particular reference to counterterrorism and counterinsurgency in the Lake Chad Basin Region In New Architecture of Regional Security in Africa the contributors scholars policy makers and defense security practitioners from both within and outside Africa examine the evolution dynamics and working mechanisms for peace and security or emerging regional security architecture for regional security in the region The volume will be essential reading for all academics scholars and researchers in academia and NGOs with interests in counterinsurgency and counterterrorism related issues in the Lake Chad Basin region Additionally the volume will also be useful for students of counterinsurgency counterterrorism small wars terrorism and strategic studies and defense and security studies It will also provide invaluable reference material for policy practitioners working on the activities in the contemporary operating environment within the Lake Chad Basin region This book offers innovative perspectives on the emerging architecture for regional security in Africa with a focus on how member states of the Lake Chad Basin Commission are coping with the challenges of terrorism and insurgency Edited by Usman A Tar and Bashir Bala the volume is the first to critically document regional security in the Lake Chad Basin
