History Of The Filipino People:

A History of the Philippines Renato Constantino, Letizia R. Constantino, 1975 Unlike other conventional histories the unifying thread of A History of the Philippines is the struggle of the peoples themselves against various forms of oppression from Spanish conquest and colonization to U S imperialism Constantino provides a penetrating analysis of the productive relations and class structure in the Philippines and how these have shaped and been shaped by the role of the Filipino people in the making of their own history Additionally he challenges the dominant views of Spanish and U S historians by exposing the myths and prejudices propagated in their work and in doing so makes a major breakthrough toward intellectual decolonization This book is an indispensable key to the history of conquest and resistance in the Philippine

Philippine Studies Priscelina Patajo-Legasto, 2008 These essays by Philippine and U S based scholars illustrate the dynamism and complexities of the discursive field of Philippine studies as a critique of vestiges of universalist Western hegemonic paradigms as an affirmation of traditional and emergent cultural practices as a site for new readings of old texts and new popular forms brought into the ambit of serious scholarship and as a liberative space for new art and literary genres

The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital Lisa Lowe, David Lloyd, 1997-11-17 Coming from a broad cross section of academic disciplines and theoretical positions this collection of essays questions and reworks Marxist critiques of capitalism that center on the West and which posit a uniform model of development More specifically

The Philippine Temptation Epifanio San Juan, 1996 In this incisive and polemical book E San Juan Jr the leading authority on Philippines U S literary studies goes beyond fashionable postcolonial theory to bring to our attention the complex history of Philippines U S literary interactions In sharp contrast to other works on the subject the author presents Filipino literary production within the context of a long and sustained tradition of anti imperialist insurgency and foregrounds the strong presence of oppositional writing in the Philippines After establishing the historical context of U S intervention and Filipino resistance San Juan examines the work of two very significant writers The first Carlos Bulosan a journalist and union activist became in the author s words a tribune of the people Bulosan s writings which combine critique and prophecy do not allow us to forget the atrocities inflicted on the Filipino people The other Jos Garcia Villa lapsed into premature obscurity on account of the complexity of his writings about the Filipino predicament Read through San Juan s eyes these writers are revealed as multifaceted thinkers and activists not stereotypical ethnic artists San Juan goes beyond literary studies and contemporary debates about nationalism and politics to point the way to a new direction in radical transformative writing He uncovers hidden agendas in many previous accounts of U S Philippine relations and this book exemplifies how best to combine activist scholarship with historically grounded cultural commentary Author note E San Juan Jr is Fellow of the Center for the Humanities and Visiting Professor of English Wesleyan University and Director of the Philippines Cultural Studies Center He was recently chair of the Department of Comparative American Cultures Washington University and Professor of Ethnic Studies at Bowling Green State University Ohio He received the 1999 Centennial Award for Literature from the Philippines Cultural Center His most recent books are Beyond Postcolonial Theory From Exile to Diaspora After Postcolonialism and Racism and Cultural Studies The Filipino People Ask Justice Manuel Luis Quezon, 1913 Values in Philippine Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole
