find themselves overwhelmed by the pace of work and the constant monitoring They describe a daily routine marked by regimentation intense pressure to sell and unrelenting stress In New Bedford undocumented Guatemalans in the fish processing industry are fired if they don't work fast enough cheated out of wages and mistreated by supervisors Juravich describes a brutal immigration raid by U S Immigration and Customs Enforcement that divided families and forced workers further underground Juravich then takes us inside the operating rooms at the Boston Medical Center where hospital consolidation has brought a new bottom line philosophy that has fundamentally altered the way patient care is delivered Surgery takes place almost non stop driving some nurses from their chosen profession and leaving those who remain exhausted The final case study looks at the shuttering of the Jones Beloit plant an internationally known manufacturer of machinery for the paper industry Despite the best efforts of highly skilled and productive workers to save their plant it was abruptly closed and they were abandoned after their CEO recklessly became involved in a shaky foreign investment Juravich argues that workers face a series of paradoxes in the contemporary American workplace They can no longer assume that large established firms create good jobs The new working conditions often resemble what was traditionally associated with marginal and low wage employers He concludes that we must bring a discussion about the quality of jobs back into the public discourse and that a good jobs strategy is a fundamental building block to economic recovery Workers voices are front and center in this highly readable book It includes striking photographs by Paul Shoul and a CD that presents a series of audio documentaries with excerpts from the interviews as well as four original songs written and performed by Juravich

Consumer Behavior Morris B. Holbrook,2024-12-02 Consumer Behavior presents an autobiographical view of Morris B Holbrook s contributions to the study of consumer behavior describing his life and work over the past 60 years via a collection of subjective personal introspective essays This new collection extends enlarges and elaborates on the insights garnered over Holbrook s career to provide a lively and thought provoking exploration of the evolution of consumer research Using Subjective Personal Introspection SPI Holbrook shares aspects of his own journey in developing insights into such topics as the consumption experience consumer value the jazz metaphor marketing education and various controversies that have interested the scholarly community Early chapters portray Holbrook s evolution in college graduate school and faculty membership while later chapters trace his approaches to understanding the role of consumption as the essence of the human condition Throughout SPI is used to illuminate the ways in which academic struggles have led toward deeper understandings of consumers Readers with an interest in the autobiographical details of how ideas develop and emerge in an area such as consumer research including doctoral students or faculty members in the field of marketing will find enlightenment and inspiration in contemplating the mis adventures of a fellow traveler Inside the New China Gene Ayres,2017-07-05 China is no longer a Third World country It is now the world s fastest growing economy Even after the 2008 Olympics this fact may come as a shock to many Americans who continue to think that the Chinese still march around in brown uniforms with red stars on their caps arresting dissidents for wearing capitalist Levis China has at last count more than half a billion cell phone users Indeed the Chinese are not only the world s leading users of mobile phones but also the leading suppliers No Chinese student goes without one and even a donkey cart driver chatting away on a mobile is not an uncommon sight China s educated New Generation is possibly the most highly motivated force since the post World War II generation in America The young people of China are the next wave of a flourishing Chinese middle class now estimated as 13.5 % of the population and expected to be 600 million strong by 2015 according to Business Week These young people want to drive cars like ours live in houses like ours own condos near the beach wear designer clothes and carry cell phones iPods camcorders digital cameras and MP3 players just like Americans Tens of millions already do During a thirty month stay in Chinabetween 2004 and 2007 Ayres was presented to soldiers straight out of boot camp toasted by military generals and governors invited to parties with local leaders as a foreign expert and dignitary and begged to counsel dissidents and the lovelorn He rode buses jammed with peasants hoping that they would actually be paid at the end of the month He dickered with farmers in open markets and street vendors desperate to make ends meet He dealt with smooth savvy merchants in upscale department stores and debated policy with Communist Party bosses This revised paperback edition of the author s earlier work A Billion to One is a vivid intimate account of China as it is today
