2. Read the following text and make a flow chart showing Jerry's extraordinary character in each of the boxes. (No.1 has been done for you.)

At daylight I was half-awakened by the sound of chopping. Again it was so even in texture that I went back to sleep. When I left my bed in the cool morning, the boy had come and gone, and a stack of kindling was neat against the cabin wall. He came after school in the afternoon and worked until time to return to the orphanage. His name was Jerry he had been at the orphanage since he was four. I could picture him at four, with the same grave gray-blue eyes and the same—independence. No, the word that comes to me is 'integrity' It is bedded on courage, but it is more than brave. It is honest, but it is more than honesty. The axe handle broke one day. Jerry said the woodshop at the orphanage would repair it. I brought money to pay for the job and he refused it. "I'll pay for it," he said. "I broke it. I brought the axe down careless." "But no one hits accurately every time." I told him. "The fault was in the wood of the handle. I'll see the man from whom I bought it." It was only then that he would take the money. He was standing back of his own carelessness. He was a free-will agent and he chose to do careful work, and if he failed, he took the responsibility without subterfuge.

1. A boy of integrity → 2. → 3. → 4. → 5. → 6.

1. A boy of integrity

2. A boy of courage

3. An icon of bravery

4. An example of honesty

5. A free will agent

6. A boy of responsibility

International Perspectives on the Teaching of Literature in Schools Andrew Goodwyn, Cal Durrant, Louann Reid, Lisa Scherff, 2017-08-31 Literature teaching remains central to the teaching of English around the world This edited text brings together expert global figures under the banner of the International Federation for the Teaching of English IFTE The book captures a state of the art snapshot of leading trends in current literature teaching as well as detailing predicted trends for the future The expert scholar and leading teacher contributors coming from a wide range of countries with fascinatingly diverse approaches to literature teaching cover a range of central and fundamental topics literature and diversity digital literatures pedagogy and reader response mother tongues the business of reading publishers adolescent fiction and censorship assessing responses to literature the changing definitions of literature and multimodal texts The collection reviews the consistently important place of literature in the education of young people and provides international evidence of its enduring value and contribution to education resisting the functionalist and narrowly nationalist perspectives of misguided government authorities International Perspectives on the Teaching of Literature in Schools will be of value to researchers PhD students literature scholars practitioners teacher educators teachers and all those in the extensive academic community interested in English and literacy around the world

Disavowing Authority in the Shakespeare Classroom Huw Griffiths, 2024-04-25 Based on real experiences of teaching Shakespeare in diverse classrooms and outreach programmes this Element questions the role of authority in Shakespeare teaching It connects an understanding of how Shakespearean texts function with critical thinking about teaching especially derived from the work of Jaques Ranci re Certain elements of the Shakespearean text notably how it was intended to teach its first readers the actors and its uses of dramatic irony are revealed as already containing possibilities for more decentred forms of knowledge production

A Holistic Home-School-Community Model for Learning Chinese Language Tse Shek Kam, Laing Victor, 2021-09-28 This book contains the compilation of studies from a 5 year project aimed at improving the Chinese teaching and learning as a second language for non Chinese speaking preschoolers in Hong Kong

In this project a home school community model was used in an attempt to address the teaching and learning of Chinese for non Chinese speaking preschoolers moving from a traditional school centred teaching approach to a holistic approach This allows them to learn in the same space and environment on the same topics creating an inclusive classroom that does not compromise the teaching and learning of Chinese for both local and non Chinese speaking preschoolers Issues such as medium of instruction language progression silent period multicultural teaching assistants multilingual learning facilitators parent changes and effective teaching are studied and discussed

Making Sense of Mass Education Gordon Tait, Nerida Spina, Jenna Gillett-Swan, Peter O'Brien, 2023-01-10 Making Sense of Mass Education provides a contemporary analysis of the ideas and issues that have traditionally dominated education research challenging outdated preconceptions with fundamental theory and discussion It takes a demythologising approach in assessing these issues and their relevance to schooling and education in Australia This text examines the cultural context of education and the influence of external media and new technologies and highlights the many forms of discrimination in education including social class race and gender It looks at alternative approaches to education including the repercussions of gathering data to measure school performance and considers the intersection of ethics and philosophy in classroom teaching The fourth edition expands on these issues with three new chapters on sexuality children's rights and neoliberalism and the marketisation of education Each chapter challenges and breaks down common myths surrounding these topics encouraging pre service teachers to think critically and reflect on their own beliefs

Biomedical English Isabel Verdaguer, Natalia Judith Laso, Danica Salazar, 2013-06-15 The corpus based studies in this volume explore biomedical research writing in English from a variety of perspectives The articles in this collection delve into the lexicographic issues involved in building an electronic database of collocations and lexical bundles offer insight on the teaching and learning of prototypical multiword units of meaning in biomedical discourse and view written scientific English through the lens of such diverse fields as phraseology metaphor gender and discourse analysis The research presented in this book forms the theoretical and methodological foundation of SciE Lex a lexical database of collocations and prefabricated expressions designed to help scientists write scientific papers in English accurately The concluding chapter on FrameNet addresses frame semantics whose application to the cross linguistic study of scientific language will open new and promising avenues of research in the study of specialized languages
