My own faith in Chaitanya started giving me abundant strength. I no longer wanted to hide myself from the glaring eyes of the world. I took him around with me. He went with us everywhere like any normal child. We were not sorry or uncomfortable carrying him around.

If I required help for him in public places, I was not embarrassed to seek it from people around. I did not mind telling them that he was a special child. I was no more scared of people's curious looks and awkward questions. I could talk about Chaitanya's problem calmly. As my mind opened up further, I could discern a new hope springing in my heart. I felt happy I was a Special Mother.

The special school did Chaitanya a lot of good. He was now a much more confident person, adored by his teachers, his friends and his school staff. His speech improved and expression became clearer. His social manners became laudable.

Academically, he was still lagging behind the expected standard of learning but it was okay. He started developing an all-round interest in craft, art, music, dancing and sports.

Early in 1997-98, when he returned from state level inter-school sports, he had two prizes to his credit and a silver medal. He had won his laurels in athletic events and the silver medal in a running race.

Questions :

- (1) How was Chaitanya treated in his school ? (1)
- (2) What improvement did the special school bring in Chaitanya ? (2)
- (3) How did Chaitanya's mother react to the people's curious looks ? (2)
- (4) How will you help a physically challenged person ? (2)
- (5) Rewrite the following sentences in the ways instructed :
 - (i) His speech improved and expression became clearer.
(Rewrite it using 'not only but also') (1)
 - (ii) I could talk about Chaitanya's problem calmly.
(Rewrite it using 'be able to') (1)
 - (iii) He was still lagging behind the expected standard of learning, but it was okay.
(Rewrite it using 'Though') (1)
- (6) Find out words from passage which mean :
 - (i) recognize (5)
 - (ii) afraid (5)
- (B) Grammar: (Do as directed) : (4)
 - (i) Draw _____ map of _____ world. (Fill in the blanks with appropriate articles.) (1)
 - (ii) In a meeting, the physical teachers decided to spend two hours _____ the playground _____ warm-up activities.
(Fill in the blanks with proper prepositions.) (1)
 - (iii) "Boys", said the tutor, "sit on the benches. I have got something interesting for you".

Once upon a time, the animals decided they must do something heroic to meet the problems of a "new world", so they organized a school. They adopted an activity curriculum consisting of running, climbing, swimming and flying. To make it easier to administer the curriculum, all the animals took all the subjects.

The duck was excellent in swimming. In fact, better than his instructor. But he made only passing grades in flying and was very poor in running. Since he was slow in running, he had to stay after school and also drop swimming in order to practise running. This

Australian Music and Modernism, 1960-1975 Michael Hooper, 2019-10-31 Drawing on newly available archival material key works and correspondence of the era Australian Music and Modernism defines Australian Music as an idea that emerged through the lens of the modernist discourse of the 1960s and 70s At the same time that the new Australian Music was distinctive of the nation it was also thoroughly connected to practices from Europe and shaped by a new engagement with the music of Southeast Asia This book examines the intersection of nationalism and modernism at this formative time During the early stages of Australian Music there was disagreement about what the idea itself ought to represent and indeed whether the idea ought to apply at all Michael Hooper considers various perspectives offered by such composers as Peter Sculthorpe Richard Meale and Nigel Butterley and analyzes some of the era s significant works to articulate a complex understanding of Australian Music at its inception

In the Event of Women Tani Barlow, 2021-09-20 In the Event of Women outlines the stakes of what Tani Barlow calls the event of women Focusing on the era of the late nineteenth century through the mid twentieth century's Cultural Revolution Barlow shows that an event is a politically inspired action to install a newly discovered truth in this case the mammal origins of human social evolution Highbrow and lowbrow social theory circulating in Chinese urban print media placed humanity's origin story in relation to commercial capital's modern advertising industry and the conclusion that women's liberation involved selling buying and advertising industrial commodities The political struggle over how the truth of women in China would be performed and understood Barlow shows means in part that an event of women was likely global because its truth is vested in biology and physiology In so doing she reveals the ways in which historical universals are effected in places where truth claims are not usually sought This book reconsiders Alain Badiou's concept of the event particularly the question of whose political moment marks newly discovered truths

The Great Class War 1914-1918 Jacques R. Pauwels, 2016-04-06 Historian Jacques Pauwels applies a critical revisionist lens to the First World War offering readers a fresh interpretation that challenges mainstream thinking As Pauwels sees it war offered benefits to everyone across class and national borders For European statesmen a large scale war could give their countries new colonial territories important to growing capitalist economies For the wealthy and ruling classes war served as an antidote to social revolution encouraging workers to exchange socialism's focus on international solidarity for nationalism's intense militarism And for the working classes themselves war provided an outlet for years of systemic militarization quite simply they were hardwired to pick up arms and to do so eagerly To Pauwels the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in June 1914 traditionally upheld by historians as the spark that lit the powder keg was not a sufficient cause for war but rather a pretext seized upon by European powers to unleash the kind of war they had desired But what Europe's elite did not expect or predict was some of the war's outcomes social revolution and Communist Party rule in Russia plus a wave of political and social democratic reforms in Western Europe that would have far reaching consequences Reflecting his broad research in the voluminous recent literature about the First World War by historians in the leading countries involved in the conflict Jacques Pauwels has produced an account that challenges readers to rethink their understanding of this key event of twentieth century world history
