June 2013 Memorandum Geography Paper 1:

The Oxford Companion to the Economics of China Shenggen Fan, Ravi Kanbur, Shang-Jin Wei, Xiaobo

Zhang, 2014-10-30 China's rise as an economic powerhouse raises a number of questions that are the subject of lively debate. How did the country do it? How applicable are the lessons of China's economic reform of the past thirty years to the challenges it faces in the next three decades? What does the detailed pattern of China's success and challenges look like at the sub-sectoral and sub-national levels and what does this mean for future policy? How will China's role as a global economic player evolve? The Oxford Companion to the Economics of China presents an original collection of perspectives on the Chinese economy's past, present and future. 99 entries written by the leading China analysts of our time. The topics covered include the China model, future prospects for China, China and the global economy, trade and the Chinese economy, macroeconomics and finance, urbanisation, industry and markets, agriculture and rural development, land, infrastructure and environment, population and labour, dimensions of wellbeing and inequality, health and education, gender equity, regional divergence in China and a selection of perspectives on some of China's provinces. The Editors are four global leaders in Chinese economic analysis and policy who between them have held or hold the following positions: Director General, International Food Policy Research Institute; Co-Editor, China Economic Review; President, Chinese Economists Society; Assistant Director of Research at the IMF; Principal Adviser to the Chief Economist of the World Bank and Professors of Economics at Ivy League Universities.

Decolonization and Conflict Martin Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2017-06-15 Insurgency based irregular warfare typifies armed conflict in the post Cold War age. For some years now western and other governments have struggled to contend with ideologically driven guerrilla movements, religiously inspired militias and systematic targeting of civilian populations. Numerous conflicts of this type are rooted in experiences of empire breakdown. Yet few multi-empire studies of decolonisation's violence exist. Decolonization and Conflict brings together expertise on a variety of different cases to offer new perspectives on the colonial conflicts that engulfed Europe's empires after 1945. The contributors analyse multiple forms of colonial counter-insurgency, from the military engagement of anti-colonial movements to the forced removal of civilian populations and the application of new doctrines of psychological warfare. Contributors to the collection also show how insurgencies, their propaganda and methods of action were inherently transnational and inter-connected. The resulting study is a vital contribution to our understanding of contested decolonization. It emphasises the global connections at work and reveals the contemporary resonances of both anti-colonial insurgencies and the means devised to counter them. It is essential reading for students and scholars of empire, decolonization and asymmetric warfare. Southeastern Geographer David M. Cochran Jr., Carl A. Islam and the Liberal State Stephen H. Jones, 2020-11-26 National identity and liberal democracy are recurrent themes in debates about Muslim minorities in the West Britain is no exception with politicians responding to claims about Muslims lack of integration by mandating the promotion of fundamental British values including democracy and individual liberty This book engages with both these themes addressing the lack of understanding about the character of British Islam and its relationship to the liberal state It charts a gradual but decisive shift in British institutions concerned with Islamic education Islamic law and Muslim representation since Muslims settled in the UK in large numbers in the 1950s Based on empirical research including interviews undertaken over a ten year period with Muslims and analysis of public events organized by Islamic institutions Stephen Jones challenges claims about the isolation of British Islamic organizations and shows that they have decisively shaped themselves around British public and institutional norms He argues that this amounts to the building of a distinctive British Islam Using this narrative the book makes the case for a variety of liberalism that is open to the expression of religious arguments in public and to associations between religious groups and the state It also offers a powerful challenge to claims about the insularity of British Islamic institutions by showing how the national orientation of Islam called for by British policymakers is in fact already happening

Coast Guards and Ocean Politics in the Arctic Andreas Østhagen, 2019-11-04 This book is about how coast guards are becoming states foremost tool to manage changes occurring in ocean politics generally and in the Arctic specifically It looks at states rights at sea changes occurring in the Arctic region how coast guards are handling issues arising and how international cooperation can deal with some of the related challenges

Vicious Circuits Joseph Jonghyun Jeon, 2019-03-12 In December of 1997 the International Monetary Fund announced the largest bailout package in its history aimed at stabilizing the South Korean economy in response to a credit and currency crisis of the same year Vicious Circuits examines what it terms Korea's IMF Cinema the decade of cinema following that crisis in order to think through the transformations of global political economy at the end of the American century It argues that one of the most dominant traits of the cinema that emerged after the worst economic crisis in the history of South Korea was its preoccupation with economic phenomena As the quintessentially corporate art form made as much in the boardroom as in the studio film in this context became an ideal site for thinking through the global political economy in the transitional moment of American decline and Chinese ascension With an explicit focus of state economic policy IMF cinema did not just depict the economy it also was this economy's material embodiment That is it both represented economic developments and was itself an important sector in which the same pressures and changes affecting the economy at large were at work Joseph Jonghyun Jeon's window on Korea provides a peripheral but crucial perspective on the operations of late US hegemony and the contradictions that ultimately corrode it Human Rights and the Dark Side of Globalisation Thomas Gammeltoft-Hansen, Jens Vedsted-Hansen, 2016-12-08 This book examines the continued viability of international human rights law in the context of extraterritorialisation outsourcing and privatisation of law enforcement tasks New forms of state cooperation raise difficult questions about divided shared and joint responsibility under international human rights law This book brings together some of the most authoritative legal voices to provide an introduction to core issues such as state responsibility attribution and extraterritorial jurisdiction as well as up to date case studies of different transnational law enforcement issues It will interest students scholars and practitioners of IR human rights and public international law The Drone Memos Jameel Jaffer, 2010-01-12 A trenchant summation and analysis of the legal rationales behind the US drone policy of targeted killing of suspected terrorists including US citizens Publishers Weekly starred review In the long response to 9 11 the US government initiated a deeply controversial policy of targeted killing the extrajudicial execution of suspected terrorists and militants typically via drones A remarkable effort was made to legitimize this practice one that most human rights experts agree is illegal and that the United States has historically condemned In The Drone Memos civil rights lawyer Jameel Jaffer presents and assesses the legal memos and policy documents that enabled the Obama administration to put this program into action In a lucid and provocative introduction Jaffer who led the ACLU legal team that secured the release of many of the documents evaluates the drone memos in light of domestic and international law He connects the documents legal abstractions to the real world violence they allow and makes the case that we are trading core principles of democracy and human rights for the illusion of security A careful study of a secretive counterterrorism infrastructure capable of sustaining endless orderless war this book is profoundly necessary Katrina vanden Heuvel editor and publisher of The Nation Kosovo and Serbia Leandrit I. Mehmeti, Branislav Radeljic, 2017-06-17 Azan on the Moon is an in depth anthropological study of people's lives along the Pamir Highway in eastern Tajikistan Constructed in the 1930s in rugged high altitude terrain the road fundamentally altered the material and social fabric of this former

Soviet outpost on the border with Afghanistan and China The highway initially brought sentiments of disconnection and hardship followed by Soviet modernization and development and ultimately a sense of distinction from bordering countries and urban centers that continues to this day Based on extensive fieldwork and through an analysis of construction mobility technology media development Islam and the state Till Mostowlansky shows how ideas of modernity are both challenged and reinforced in contemporary Tajikistan In the wake of China s rise in Central Asia people along the Pamir Highway strive to reconcile a modern future with a modern past Weaving together the road a population and a region Azan on the Moon presents a rich ethnography of global connections

The Common Camp Irit Katz, 2022-08-09 Seeing the camp as a persistent political instrument in Israel Palestine and beyond The Common Camp underscores the role of the camp as a spatial instrument employed for reshaping controlling and struggling over specific territories and populations Focusing on the geopolitical complexity of Israel Palestine and the dramatic changes it has experienced during the past century this book explores the region s extensive networks of camps and their existence as both a tool of colonial power and a makeshift space of resistance Examining various forms of camps devised by and for Zionist settlers Palestinian refugees asylum seekers and other groups Irit Katz demonstrates how the camp serves as a common thread in shaping lands and lives of subjects from across the political spectrum Analyzing the architectural and political evolution of the camp as a modern instrument engaged by colonial and national powers as well as those opposing them Katz offers a unique perspective on the dynamics of Israel Palestine highlighting how spatial transience has become permanent in the ongoing story of this contested territory The Common Camp presents a novel approach to the concept of the camp detailing its varied history as an apparatus used for population containment and territorial expansion as well as a space of everyday life and subversive political action Bringing together a broad range of historical and ethnographic materials within the context of this singular yet versatile entity the book locates the camp at the core of modern societies and how they change and transform
